

DANGER THREATENS STRICKEN DISTRICT

LOUISIANA PARISHES SWEEP BY WALL OF WATER TEN FEET HIGH TODAY.

RUSH RESCUE FLEETS

Section Affected is Densely Populated and Many Lives May Be Lost by Last Flood.

New Roads, La., May 9.—By carrying away 1,000 feet of soft earth at the mouth of the Torras crevice a wall of water from eight to ten feet deep and a half mile in width is to beat down upon the already overflooded region of Point Coupee Parish, St. Landry and other parishes.

New Roads, which has heretofore been considered practically safe from the Torras flood, is being rapidly inundated. Boats are being hurriedly built and other preparations are being made to enable the inhabitants to make a hurried exit.

This part of the parish is thickly settled and much rescue work will be required. Motor boats and skiffs are being concentrated here by the government representatives. In some instances the officers have confiscated boats and are holding them in readiness.

Farmers driving their live stock in advance of the flood are arriving here today from the country around Fort de la Riviere. They report over one hundred persons are marooned in that vicinity in their homes and are in urgent need of relief. Motor boats were unable to reach that district yesterday.

Looters in skiffs are reported to be reaping a rich harvest in the inundated country. Many houses from which the occupants were hurriedly driven, have been broken into and looted.

The size of the families among the refugees is surprising. One robust white woman had sixteen children strung out after her when she turned down the steps of the relief train. Mothers with eight, nine and ten children are numerous among the people in the Point Coupee parish.

TELLS EXPERIENCE IN TITANIC WRECK

Engineers State That Four Air Tight Compartments Were Opened to Allow Access to Pumps.

London, Eng., May 9.—Evidence that the doors of four water-tight bulkheads had been opened after having been closed from the bridge was introduced today at the British Wreck Commission inquiry, into the loss of the Titanic. This was done, according to Thomas Dolan, of the engineers' staff, in order that the engineers' crew might reach the pumps.

After the last boat had left, Dolan testified, he went to the poop deck where there were many men but no women. When the Titanic foundered he was sucked down about two fathoms and later was picked up unconscious. He remembered having swum about for some twenty minutes before being rescued and saw, he said, at least one thousand other men swimming or floating on the surface buoyed up by life preservers. He saw no women in the water.

The conduct of J. Bruce Ismay, managing director, was described by another witness as exemplary.

The Telegram.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—Statements regarding the Titanic disaster read into the record of the senate investigating committee today included a telegram from Vice-President Franklin D. Roosevelt. This stated that a full staff of the staff of the passenger department failed to disclose any knowledge regarding the typewritten report to keep Hughes of West Virginia supposed to have been shot at 7:30 p. m., following the disaster, saying the Titanic's passengers were safe.

James Hooty, a telegraph operator at Taunton, Mass., sent an affidavit saying that between 8 and 11 o'clock on Monday morning, the morning of the accident, he received a "flash message" stating "Titanic sunk." A little later, probably five or ten minutes, he said, he added:

"I received a 'kill' on this flash which read: 'Kill flash Titanic sunk.' Montreal says wireless operator at Cape Race made a mistake."

CANDIDATES PREPARE FOR OHIO CAMPAIGN

Taft, Roosevelt and La Follette Engage in Fight for State Delegation.

Columbus, O., May 9.—Politics only slumbered in this state today after the fourth of the President's three-day tour and the invasion of the candidates which is to begin here next week. President Taft will return Sunday, according to present plans, and Monday he is to be followed by Col. Roosevelt.

Campaign managers for La Follette say that he is to make a final tour of the state prior to the primary election on May 21.

In the democratic ranks there is much activity and many candidates are laying out plans for speaking tours.

GOMEZ A PRISONER UNDER HEAVY GUARD

Report Sent to State Department That Orozco Probably Will Not Confirm Gomez as President.

Washington, May 9.—Enrico Vazquez Gomez is held a prisoner in the customs house at Juarez, according to advices to the state department today. A heavy guard has been thrown about the building.

The department further is advised that Orozco probably will not confirm Gomez as president. The report indicates the rebels have been defeated in the mountain pass, El Puerto del Carmen, between Monclova and Cuatro Ciénegas Coahuila.

NAVY AWAITS COMING OF GERMAN SQUADRON

Fleet Expected to Sail Tomorrow and Reach Hampton Roads the Last Week of the Month.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—Navy department officials and officers of the navy in this vicinity are awaiting with much interest the coming of the German naval squadron. According to the latest dispatches from Berlin the squadron will sail tomorrow and will reach Hampton Roads, their first objective point, the last week of this month. While the vessels are anchored in the Roads, the officers and men will visit Washington, Mt. Vernon and Annapolis. After leaving Hampton Roads the squadron will visit New York, Newport and possibly Boston and the New England coast. The squadron is to be composed of the armored cruiser Moltke, the protected cruiser Bremen and one of the modern turbine cruisers.

JUDGE REFUSES TO SELECT RECEIVERS

Federal Judge Landis Refuses to Appoint Auxiliary Receivers for Allis-Chalmers Company.

Chicago, May 9.—Judge K. M. Landis, in the United States district court today refused to appoint auxiliary receivers to the Allis-Chalmers company. Several weeks ago Otto H. Falk and D. W. Call were appointed receivers for the company in the original proceedings in Milwaukee and the same receivers were also in the district court here. Judge Landis wishes to get a statement from the attorneys in the case regarding the affiliations of the receivers and their interest in the original Allis-Chalmers organization.

"Information has reached me," said Judge Landis, "that the attorneys in the case in Milwaukee were also the attorneys for the original company before receivers were appointed. I want to know if this is true and I want a report showing just how much all these men are interested in the affairs." Hearing on the petition was continued for a week.

SOCIALIST EJECTED FROM THE COUNCIL

Deputy in Prussian Diet Carried From Chamber by Police After He Had Interrupted Speaker.

Berlin, May 9.—Long standing conflict between President Baron Von Ertze and six socialists of the Prussian diet, resulted today in the calling of police to the diet chamber where they ejected Deputy Borchardt. The latter stood near the Tribune during an anti-socialist speech and repeatedly interrupted the speaker. The president ordered him to be seated and on his refusal declared him excluded from the session. Borchardt refused to withdraw and the session was suspended while a lieutenant and four policemen carried him violently struggling into the street. Later Borchardt returned and was again ejected.

ARRANGES DISTRIBUTION OF FIRE PROTECTION MONEY.

Madison, Wis., May 9.—The distribution of $127,000 among different cities of the state for fire protection will be completed in a few days by insurance commissioner Eklund. The amounts due the cities are now being apportioned and checks will be mailed the city treasurers some time next week.

FOUR LITTLE GIRLS CRUSHED IN SLIDE

Children Living Near Black Creek, Wis., Are Killed in Cave-In in a Gravel Pit.

Green Bay, May 9.—Four little girls living on a farm about four miles north of Black Creek, met death in a gravel pit last night. The children were sent out by their parents to bring home the cows. They stopped to play near a gravel pit and the pit caved in. Five feet of the gravel covered their bodies and they were killed almost instantly.

The bodies were removed from the pit by searching parties sent out after the children failed to return home. Their bodies were badly cut and bruised and bones were broken. The children were: Amanda Barth, aged 13; Augusta Barth, aged 11; and Katie Barth, aged 6, daughters of Frank Barth; and Gretchen Rosenburg, aged 9.

MILLIONAIRES' SONS IN TROUBLE AT SEA

College Men Who Went to Sea as Able Seamen Reported to Have Been Punished for Mutiny.

San Francisco, Cal., May 9.—Three millionaire tramps who left here several weeks ago on a trip around the world, came to grief between here and Honolulu, according to advices.

The millionaire tramps are George D. Little, A. R. Dupont and Sydney H. Francis, the last named being a son of the former governor of Missouri. They are all college boys. After coming here from Los Angeles in a box car the trio signed as able seamen on the four-masted schooner "Edward Sowell," bound for Philadelphia, via Cape Horn, with a cargo of sugar.

On the second day out the skipper had all hands on deck to handle some canvas. The college boys, responded but little and engaged in an argument with Captain Quick, whereupon the skipper is said to have used regular sea tactics in subduing the mutineers. Little, who is a lawyer, obtained his discharge at Honolulu and is said to have brought suit against the captain for $30,000.

TURKISH GOVERNOR IS HELD PRISONER

Advices Received at Rome Deny That Turkish Force Had Won Important Victory at Rhodes.

Rome, May 9.—An official note issued today declares that the Turkish dispatches received from the governor of Rhodes to the effect that the Turkish troops had won a great victory there and captured 1,000 Italians is false. On the contrary, it is stated the Turkish governor of Rhodes and his secretary are prisoners of the Italians and will be sent to Italy.

DISCUSS MANY PHASES OF RED CROSS ACTIVITY.

Consider Cuban Society's Suggestion That Workers Wear a Distinguishing Medal.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—Many phases of Red Cross activity were up for discussion at today's session of the International Red Cross Conference. The day's program included consideration of the Cuban society's suggestion that a medal or button be adopted to distinguish the Red Cross workers in all parts of the world and the establishment of regular methods of communication with headquarters on the battle field and a report of the French society on relief work among the French colonial and Legionary soldiers.

ART FEDERATION HONORS ARTIST FRANCIS MILLET

Tributes Paid To Victim Of Titanic Disaster At Opening Of Third Annual Convention.

Washington, D. C., May 9.—The order of business at the opening of the third annual convention of the American Federation of Arts here today was suspended, while officers and other leading members of the organization paid tribute to the memory of Francis Millet, the distinguished American artist who was among the victims of the Titanic disaster. Mr. Millet was the secretary of the organization and had prepared a lecture to be delivered at the present meeting.

Pin Your Faith To The Little Want Ads

The Want Ad page of this paper is just as important as the news pages to many Gazette readers.

Pin your faith then to little want ads in The Gazette, which can do more for you in a shorter time than any other medium of reaching people could do for you at an increased cost.

Gazette Want Ads will rent houses, sell property, find the lost, secure help, find positions, and do many other services for you at a very small cost.

Phone your ad, the bill will be sent later. Cost 10 per word when charged.

POLICE GUARD NEWS STANDS ABOUT CITY

Papers Sold in All Parts of Chicago Today and Strike Situation is Quieter.

Chicago, May 9.—Quiet reigned in the newspaper strike today and newspapers were sold under police guard in practically every part of the city. A number of stereotypes which went on a sympathetic strike after the pressmen walked out, applied for reinstatement on two afternoon newspapers and it is expected others will soon follow their example.

All the newspapers practically have full crews of pressmen and stereotypes at work and more editions were published today than at any time since the beginning of the strike.

INJUNCTION AGAINST STEEL TRUST DENIED

Attempt to Restrain Corporation From Destroying Books and Letters Proves Vain.

Trenton, N. J., May 9.—The appeal to the United States district court here for an injunction against the United States Steel corporation and a number of its subsidiaries from the destruction of books and letters which might be used as evidence in the suit of the government in the dissolution of the corporation was denied in per curiam opinion filed this morning by Judge Gray. Injunction and McPherson except as to the American Steel and Wire company one of the steel corporations subsidiary concerns.

NEW YORK BANKS USE FINGER-PRINT SYSTEM

Method of Identification and Protection for Depositors Being Widely Adopted.

New York, May 9.—The finger-print system of identification and protection of depositors is being rapidly adopted by the New York banks. A north side bank is the latest institution to adopt the finger-print system regarding which Secretary Arthur B. Hays said today: "It is not the biometric system used by the police, but was devised by an Englishman, F. Black, who for fifteen years was employed by the British government at Singapore. Instead of the thumb we take three fingers of the right hand—the index, the middle and last fingers. Depositors are provided with blanks on which they write their signature and leave a finger print. These we keep on file to have in cases where the genuineness of a signature may be questioned. We have yet to come across a depositor who objects to this."

COOM POTATOE GROWING IN MARINETTE COUNTY.

Large Acreage of Tubers Taken and Many New Warehouses Erected.

Marinette, Wis., May 9.—There will be a great boom in the potato growing industry in Marinette county this year. New warehouses are to be built at Crivitz, Wausaukee, Athol, Port Huron and Walsh and growers are taking all the acreage they can possibly secure. It has been bringing a large number of new settlers to this county and Marinette county can expect the biggest year in the history of the county.

TWO ARBITRATORS MEET TO NAME FIVE COLLEAGUES.

Will Complete Commission to Arbitrate Differences Between Engineers and Railroad.

New York, May 9.—Daniel Willard, President of the Baltimore & Ohio railway, the arbitrator chosen by the Eastern Railroad, and J. H. Morrissey, former president of the Brotherhood of Railway trainmen as arbitrator by the locomotive engineers, expect to meet today to appoint five other arbitrators to form with them a board of seven to consider the demands of the engineers.

FIVE DEAD AND MANY INJURED IN EXPLOSION.

Cleveland, O., May 9.—The number of victims of last night's explosion at the central blast furnace of the American Steel and Wire company was increased to five today, when Andrew Hittick, aged 28 and John Pollock, 31, died at a hospital. The other dead are John Zella, William Champin, and an unknown workman. Several of the 14 injured may die. Nine of these are not out of danger. The explosion was caused by gases which accumulated in the furnace.

CAPTIST ASSOCIATION TO MEET AT MARINETTE.

Marinette, Wis., May 9.—The sixty-third annual meeting of the Baptist Association will be held in Marinette June 4th. Delegates will attend from fifteen churches and a strong program is being prepared by the local people at work.

SLEEP WALKER KILLED IN FALL FROM WINDOW.

Chicago, May 9.—Otto Peterson, a somnambulist, was instantly killed early this morning when he stepped out of a second story window of his home and fell to the ground while asleep. He was dead when members of the family reached his side. He was 39.

MANY PETITIONS TO METHODIST SESSION

Protests Against Dancing and Card Playing Prohibition are Numerous—Result in Amendment.

Minneapolis, Minn., May 9.—A score of memorials have been poured in daily to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in session here and probably before the final adjournment will appear before the conference for final action.

For in the lead in these memorials and one which has been presented by the delegates for destruction in all parts of the United States, is that relating to the famous "26th" section which prohibits dancing and card playing and other kindred amusements. That this section will be amended at the present session to leave the "amusement" question to the "conscience" of the individual member is the belief of many of the delegates.

Another memorial which has appeared frequently in the church records is that of changing the name of "District Superintendent" back to that of "Presiding Elder." The latter name was used until the change was made at Baltimore four years ago and it is claimed by many that the new name has not proven satisfactory.

"That there is a 'sublime movement' in the church has been shown by the introduction of a memorial which asks that the women be licensed to preach. A number of years ago a rule was made forbidding that women be ordained as ministers but it probably will be discussed before the present session."

The advisability of amendment of the constitution of the M. E. church to provide for bishops for the negro race in the United States was recommended at the business session of the general conference today by the commission appointed to investigate the matter. The report of the committee was referred. In the action of the business session of the conference today a report upon loss or profit of different church papers was asked for. Resolved resolutions endorsing "every lawful endeavor to improve condition of workers and to secure a living wage" and approving child labor and long hours of women labor were included in the business session today as was an action to make the second Sunday in May henceforth the "Mother's Day" of the church.

The conference adopted a report condemning white slavery and commending the universal peace project and lauded Pres Taft for his part in the urging of world-wide peace. An investigation of alleged dancing and theater going in church schools, but the conference refused to consider it.

KING GEORGE BUSY WITH NAVY AFFAIRS

His Majesty Engaged at Weymouth Investigating Churchill's Naval Reorganization Plans.

Weymouth, Eng., May 9.—King George who is here seeking for himself the progress toward the reorganization of the home fleet as outlined by first lord of the admiralty Churchill, in introducing the naval estimate to parliament, has again taken up the life of a naval officer with remarkable gusto. His majesty already has added one item to his experience in naval work by going down in a submarine. He spent ten minutes below the surface of the water in one of the latest "D" type of boats.

EXPECT NEW TROUBLE AS TROOPS DISBAND

Thousands of Chinese Soldiers Return to Canton and Anarchical Conditions are Feared.

Hongkong, China, May 9.—Thousands of Chinese soldiers who have been stationed to the north of Canton in the province of Kwangtung are returning to Canton. It is feared labor troubles will follow the disbanding of the troops. A former governor of Canton has been made commander in chief of the armed forces and is proceeding to exterminate the pirates on the west river. Men caught stealing even trifling sums are shot daily. Hundreds of bodies can be seen floating near the banks of the west river.

Foreigners in south China expect a round up of the recent anarchical conditions. The British fleet has sailed for north China with thousands of Indian troops from Hongkong. Other detachments of the garrison here, it is reported, are awaiting orders to embark. Dr. Sun Yat Sen is retiring to Macao, the Portuguese dependency on the Canton river, where he plans to reside.

HILL INTERESTS PLAN TO MINE THEIR OWN ORE.

Duluth, Minn., May 9.—After the expiration of the United States corporation leases on the Hill Ore property in 1915 the Hill interests will mine their own ore and market them as independent producers, according to D. N. Philbin, manager of the Hill property.

GERMAN AMBASSADOR TO GREAT BRITAIN RESIGNS.

Berlin, May 9.—Count Paul Wolff-Meternich has resigned his office as German ambassador to Great Britain.

CORRUPT PRACTICE LAW DISCRIMINATES

New Candidates for Congress Find That Present Incumbents Have Advantage in Use of Frank.

Madison, Wis., May 9.—Candidates for congress who have to oppose men who are now incumbents of that office are finding that the government "frank" creates a discrimination against them, under the new Wisconsin corrupt practices law. In getting information to the voters. To limit the evils of money in swaying an election, the legislature passed this new law in 1911. By its provisions the amount that may be expended and the purposes for which it may be used are specified. Money can be spent only for personal hotel and traveling expenses, for postage, telegraph and telephone charges, for payments to the state, to campaign committees, for stationery, rentals, clerical assistance and advertising. The amount is also limited. The maximum that a candidate for congress may spend is $2,500.

Incumbents are finding it convenient to send speeches into their districts which cost them practically nothing but clerical help and does not run their expenditures up as high as their opponents back home, who must pay postal rates to get their material before the voters.

Most of the candidates are starting out into their campaigns in a somewhat timid fashion fearing that before the primaries their $2,500 limit will have been reached and their campaign floundered out in the last weeks because further expenditures are forbidden. One candidate is said to favor a law that will allow all candidates for congress to travel free to their voters wherever they choose. They desire to send because of the present law in Wisconsin this year will be more of a speaking campaign than otherwise, and in three districts extended automobile trips will be made by candidates to reach the people.

ATTACKS VERACITY OF THE WITNESSES

Solicitor McCabe of Department of Agriculture Attacks Credibility of Representative's Witnesses.

Washington, May 9.—Solicitor McCabe and the department of agriculture today attacked the credibility of witnesses called by Representative Nelson of Wisconsin, in a report of his resolution calling for an investigation of the meat inspection service before the house committee on agriculture in the department of agriculture.

Mr. Nelson had announced that his next important witness would be W. J. Hurwood, "a man who spent 7 years in the penitentiary for perjury and was released on his own record a month ago."

"Just put him on if you want to said Solicitor McCabe. 'What man was forced out of the service from borrowing money from packers?'"

"Yes, Mr. Chairman, that is the practice of the department," said Mr. Nelson.

Charges are denied by attacks on the reputation of others.

The house today voted 120 to 49 to abolish the U. S. court of commerce many republicans voting with the democrats.

ESSMANN ADDRESSES LETTER TO ALTERNATE DELEGATES

Desires To Know How Many of Twenty-Six Chosen To Republican Convention Will Serve.

Madison, Wis., May 9.—William E. Essmann, secretary of the republican state central committee, sent a letter to the twenty-six alternate delegates who have been selected to attend the republican national convention, asking if they intend to serve. He said that while he did not contemplate receiving any unfavorable replies, vacancies would be filled by the committee if any should occur.

LEGISLATIVE COUNSELS GIVEN LARGE SALARIES.

Madison, Wis., May 9.—The water power interests paid R. G. Goughs, of Grand Rapids, $268.50 and Thomas W. Bruzzone, of Grand Rapids, $122.14 for expenses as legislative counsel during the special session of the legislature according to the statements filed today.

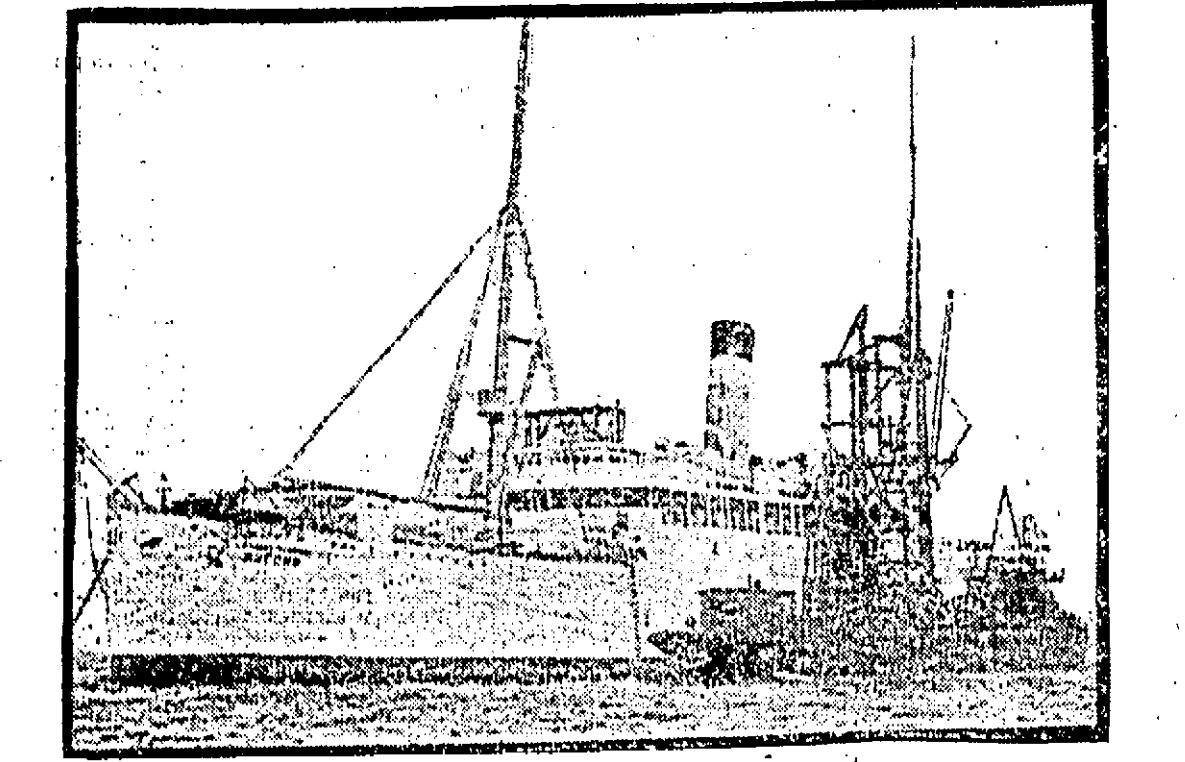

LIFE SENTENCE FOR KETCHER'S MURDERER.

Jefferson City, Mo., May 9.—Walter S. Dwyer, convicted of the murder of Stanley Ketcher middle-weight champion must serve his life sentence in the Missouri penitentiary according to a decision of the supreme court today.

Golden Smith serving a life term as an accessory of Dwyer was discharged from the penitentiary by the court which reversed the judgment against him. The court held the judgment was not sufficient to convict her.

FIRE INSURANCE COMMITTEE MEETS IN CHICAGO TUESDAY.

Madison, Wis., May 9.—The legislative fire insurance investigating committee will meet in Chicago next week, probably beginning Tuesday, and will consider among other things the problem of fire prevention and protection. The sessions of the National Fire Prevention association will be attended. Secretary L. L. Johnson is in Chicago to make arrangements for the committee hearings. Several witnesses will be heard. A next Wisconsin inquiry will be at La Crosse the last week in May, and later the committee will visit Superior.

U. S. Transport Ship Buford. MEXICO SEETHING WITH REVOLUTION; OROZCO AND OTHER REBEL LEADERS ENDANGER GOVERNMENT AND SAFETY OF AMERICAN S.

U. S. Transport Ship Buford. The situation in Mexico, becoming daily more active and serious, has made it impossible to secure to its people a foreigner any degree of safety. Americans, and especially American women and children, are rapidly leaving the country. Orozco, the rebel leader, has sent word to Washington that the interests of Americans in Mexico will not be imperiled by the revolutionists. But the rebels are a fiery and ignorant lot, and cannot be counted upon to obey their leaders at all times. Along the west coast of Mexico are many Americans and the U. S. transport ship Buford has left San Francisco for the purpose of gathering them up and bringing them home. It is believed the Buford would also pick up English and Spanish residents of the west coast who fear to remain in Mexico.

The above photograph of the Buford was taken in San Francisco just before the transport left on its mission to the south.

Fish of Value.
The British salmon is said to be worth $650 a ton.

TO CURE A COLD IN ONE DAY.
Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine Tablets.
Druggists refund money if it fails to cure.
W. W. GROVE'S signature is on each box.
15 cents.

This wonderful fruit laxative acts as a liver and bowel cleanser—tonic—not as an irritant. Its action is natural and gentle—no griping. It is delicious—no drugging. It is positive and prompt—no waiting.

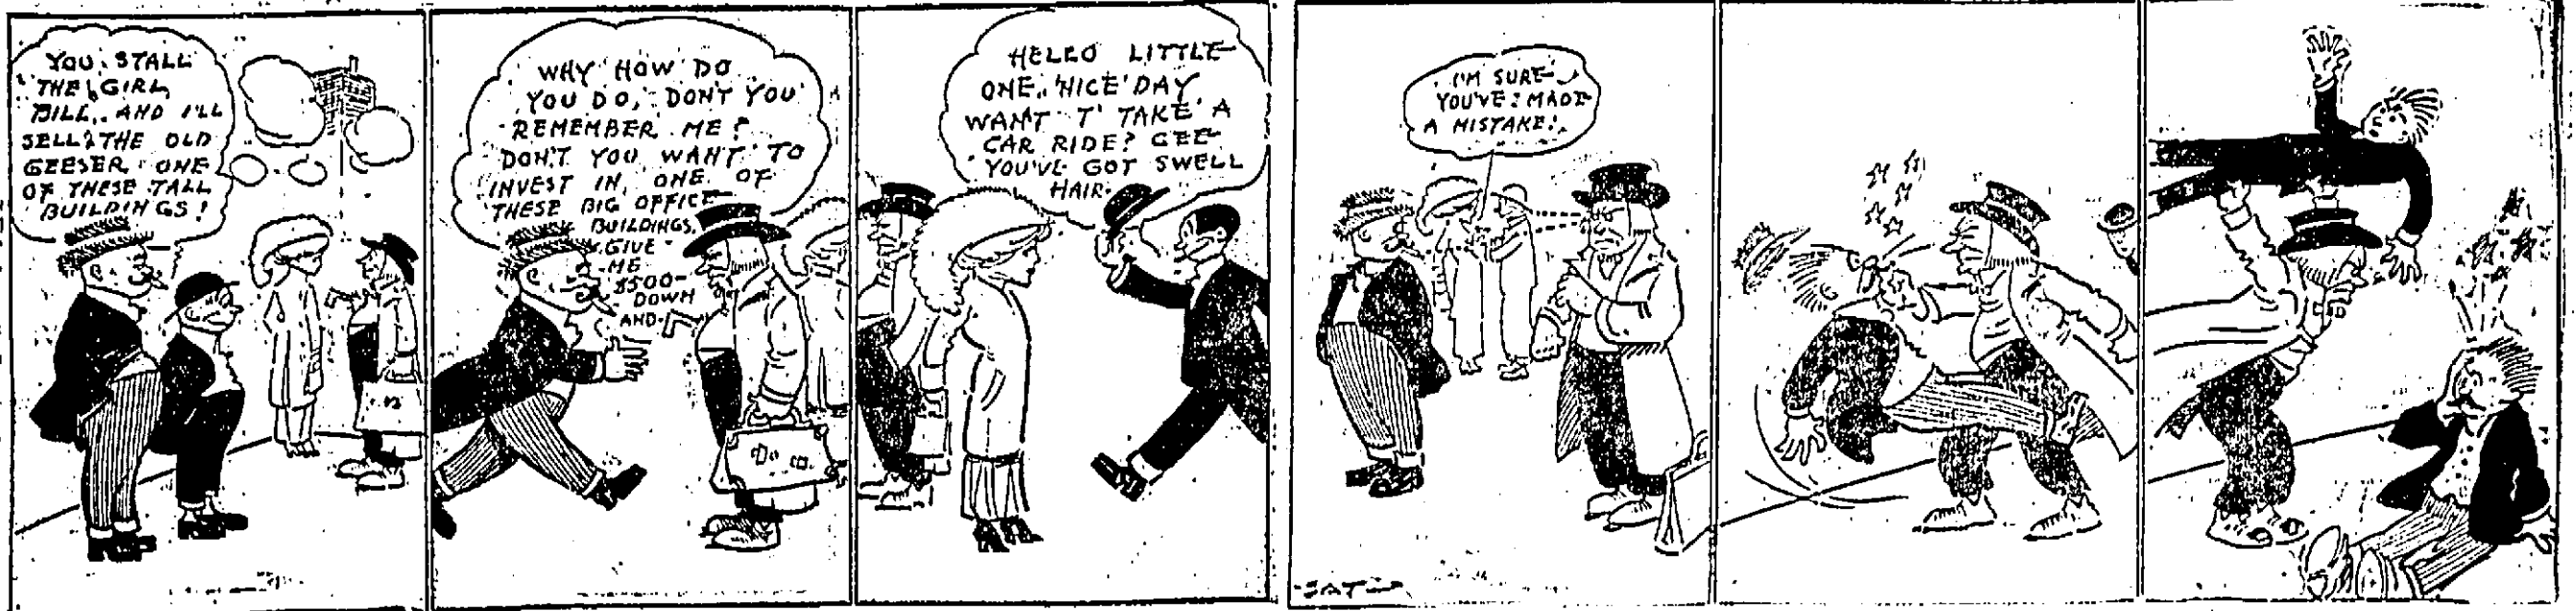

If your stomach is sour and filled with vile gases, your head aches, or you are bilious, nervous, dizzy, half-slept, your tongue coated, your thirty feet of bowels clogged with waste not properly carried off—don't wait. Surely take a teaspoonful of delicious Syrup of Figs tonight, and in the morning all constipated waste, sour bile, gases and poisons will move on and out of the system, gently but thoroughly—no griping—no nausea—no weakness. In the old days people let these matters run until they needed a large dose of physic, then they took something severe, like castor oil, salts or cathartics, that meant abuse to the bowels. These are the days of the gentle and natural—the days of Syrup of Figs. This way you are not drugging yourself. Syrup of Figs, being composed entirely of luscious figs, senna and aromatics, can not cause injury.

Ask your druggist for "Syrup of Figs and Elixir of Senna," and look for the same, California Fig Syrup Company on the label. This is the genuine—reliable. Any other so-called Fig Syrup is an imitation often meant to deceive you. Refuse such with contempt.

breweries here today have begun the delivery of beer with non-union drivers. It is expected the union bartenders will be added to the number of union men who are now on strike as a result of the walkout of the brewery wagon drivers. Another result of the strike is that the saloons have ceased serving "schooners" or large glasses.

115 N MAIN ST. HAY, FEED AND SEED.

THE SPOTTY GENTS PICKED OUT THE WRONG PARTY WHEN THEY TACKLED HEZ.

SPORT SNAP SHOTS

by DAN MCCARTY

The Chinese baseball players from the College of Hawaii are making a tremendous hit with the fans of the west on their tour of the United States. They bat a great deal better than the Japanese who were here last year, and as far as yapping is concerned, and the use of baseball slang, they are said to have it on our own American players.

The Chinese coaches use megaphones when they're at work on the ballfield. The other day at Chicago, when Houli, the Maroons' pitcher, was being touched up by the visitors, the Chinese players helped his assistant along by shouting in chorus through their megaphones: "Everybody's doing it now."

We've heard another one about that baseball league started among the convicts in the Ft. Leavenworth penitentiary.

They're going to bar home runs.

Eddie Collins, Connie Mack's young second basing phenom, picks the Washington team to cut quite a figure in the American league race. Eddie bases his guess on the fact that Walter Johnson has made such an auspicious start. One mighty pitcher, says Eddie, can keep even an ordinary club up in the race.

"Heretofore Johnson has been a hot weather workman," Collins goes on. "He has never been at his best until the season was well under way. The fact that he has started out this spring to establish a shutout record leads me to believe he will carry Griffith's team along at a pace that will land them higher in the standings."

GAMES FRIDAY.

National League.
New York at Chicago.
Philadelphia at Pittsburgh.
Brooklyn at Cincinnati.
Boston at St. Louis.
American League.
Chicago at Washington.
St. Louis at New York.
Detroit at Boston.
Cleveland at Philadelphia.

RESULTS YESTERDAY.

National League.
Chicago, 9; Boston, 8.
Cincinnati, 5; Philadelphia, 4.
New York, 11; St. Louis, 8.
Pittsburgh-Brooklyn (postponed; rain).
American League.
Chicago, 7; Washington, 6.
St. Louis-New York (postponed; rain).
Philadelphia-Cleveland (postponed; rain).
Boston-Detroit (postponed; rain).
American Association.
Kansas City, 6; Louisville, 3.
Toledo, 8; Minneapolis, 2.
Indianapolis, 17; Milwaukee, 0.
Columbus, 10; St. Paul, 0.
Wisconsin-Illinois League.
Appleton, 10; Racine, 4.
Madison, 10; Wausau, 0.
Rockford, 8; Green Bay, 0.
Aurora, 1; Oshkosh, 0.

STANDING OF THE CLUBS.

National League.
Clubs—	W.	L.	Pct.
Cincinnati	15	4	.789
New York	14	4	.778
Chicago	11	9	.550
Boston	8	11	.421
Pittsburgh	7	10	.412
Brooklyn	6	9	.400
Philadelphia	6	10	.375
St. Louis	5	15	.250
American League.
Clubs—	W.	L.	Pct.
Chicago	14	5	.732
Boston	11	7	.611
Washington	10	8	.556
Philadelphia	9	8	.529
Cleveland	8	9	.471
Detroit	9	12	.429
St. Louis	6	12	.333
New York	4	12	.250
American Association.
Clubs—	W.	L.	Pct.
Minneapolis	15	7	.682
Columbus	13	8	.610
Toledo	12	10	.545
St. Paul	12	12	.500
Kansas City	11	13	.458
Louisville	8	13	.381
Indianapolis	8	14	.361
Indianapolis	8	16	.333
Wisconsin-Illinois League.
Clubs—	W.	L.	Pct.
Aurora	4	2	.667
Oshkosh	5	3	.625
Rockford	5	3	.625
Racine	3	3	.500
Appleton	3	3	.500
Green Bay	3	4	.429
Madison	3	5	.375
Wausau	1	6	.143

Presuming that you're a fan, how would you like to root for a ball club that carried a pitcher who worked in the box sans shoes and sans stockings?

Montgomery of the Southern league had one last season. His name was Deacon Davis, and he was picked up somewhere in the bushes. In his first game he very carefully sat down, after shooting two or three fast ones wide of the plate, and removed his shoes and hosiery. When his teammates remonstrated with him he explained that he always pitched that way. They let him go to it, and he won his game, but the fans gave him a merry time of it, of course, and the poor fellow eventually had to go back to the jungles.

Ridding aside, though, the pennant race this season is likely to develop a better all-round battle than we've seen for quite a spell. Five clubs are a good deal stronger than they've been in three years. They are Boston, Chicago, Washington, Cleveland and St. Louis. The Athletics don't appear to be any better than they were in 1911, and if Jack Combs' injury turns out to be anything really serious, they don't be as good.

The five teams mentioned are going to show a lot of class once they get settled down to the race. It looks to me as if the Athletics are going to be a man on the sidelines as though Jimmy Callahan's White Sox were traveling at a little faster clip than they know how. Their pitchers are going well and the team is hitting at top speed. Such a fortunate combination of circumstances won't last forever. It never does.

BASEBALL NOTES.
Playing first base must agree with Larry Lajoie. The Nap star is leading the American league batters.

Dan Brown, an outfielder, has been released by the New York Americans to the Bridgeport Connecticut League team.

Not much chance for the Highlanders to start anything with Chase, Cross and Walter on the hospital list at the same time.

"Hickory" Johnson, the demon slinger of the Thrash league, has been sold to Omaha by the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Detroit team copped twenty of the first twenty-two games last season. Nothing like that in the Tiger family this year.

The player making the best showing in the New York State League will be presented with an automobile at the close of the season.

According to a Chicago scribble Ed Walsh, of the White Sox, has pitched fifty shutout victories since he broke into the American League.

Pitcher "Iron Man" Lange, of the White Sox, showed real class recently when he fanned the mighty Ty Cobb twice in one game.

Catcher Frank Bowerman, formerly of the Giants and the Kansas City Cowboys, has signed as manager of the London team in the Canadian League.

The Boston Red Sox seem to have a real pitcher in Bozell. The youngster has faced the World's Champions twice and got away with it.

With Cincinnati and New York running wild the Cubs and Pirates will have to start something pretty soon, if they expect to be heard from this season.

Columbus and Columbus, champs and runner-up respectively, of the South Atlantic League, got away to a bad start this spring. Both teams lost the first seven games.

Evansville has been added to the Pitty League circuit. The league will have teams in Paducah, Hopkinsville, and Henderson, Ky., Evansville, Ind., Cairo, Ill., and Clarksville, Tenn.

Third baseman Garfield, of Mobile, and Catcher LaPette, of New Orleans, started a rough house during a recent game and were not back fifty bucks in the Mobile police court the other day.

Jack Powell, the veteran pitcher of the Browns, may yet equal Cy Young's record for service in the big show. Jack is now forty-three years old and is now playing his eighteenth season.

WITH THE BOXERS.
K. O. Brown and Louie Cross will meet in Madison Square Garden, New York, May 17.

Jimmy Walsh will go to Chicago and try to hook up in a match with Johnny Coulton.

Abel Attell seems to be in bad for fair. Every time the little ex-champion appears in a boxing bout there is a cry of "frame-up."

Southern Golf Tournament.
Birmingham, Ala., May 9.—The ticipation of some of the foremost golf experts of the South assures interesting and keen competition in the annual invitation tournament which opened today on the links of the Birmingham Country Club. The tournament will continue through the remainder of the week.

BIG GAME PRESERVE FOR VILAS COUNTY

Elaborate Plans Made by State Forestry Board and State Fish and Game Department.

Elaborate plans for the creation of a ten thousand-acre game preserve by the state in the vicinity of Lakes Allouash and Big Muskegon in Vilas county have been worked out by the state forestry board and the state fish and game department. Undoubtedly the next legislature will be asked to sanction the plan, and to gain first-hand information Governor McGovern will make that section a visit next Saturday afternoon.

It is planned to raise moose and elk upon the preserve and to bring beaver, mink and otter and other "fur" animals into the preserve within these confines. The United States government has promised to furnish the elk and moose free from the large federal preserves at Jackson Hole, Mont., and the Boone and Crockett club of New York has agreed to furnish the other fur-bearing animals.

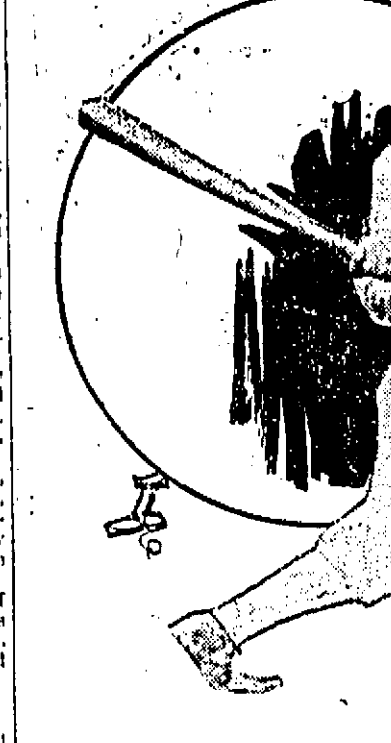

"Wisconsin propagates through its fish hatcheries many kinds of fish to stock the waters," said State Forester E. M. Griffith, "but so far the state has done nothing outside of enforcing the game laws towards maintaining or increasing the supply of wild game. Now that the state has a forest reserve, it would not be a great expense to enclose, say ten thousand acres within a game-proof wire fence, and authorize the state fish and game warden to use such funds as are available from time to time in stocking it. The area enclosed should have favorable conditions for raising such valuable fur-bearing animals as mink, beaver and otter, game birds such as partridges and pheasants, also white and blue-tailed deer, and possibly in time moose, caribou and elk. As the game increases it should be distributed in all parts of the forest reserve. It is hoped that the legislature will authorize the state fish and game warden and the state board of forestry to cooperate in establishing and gradually stocking a game preserve."

A few days ago State Forester Griffith received a letter from Mr. Wolf of Chicago, who said he intended to bring Chinese pheasants to Trout Lake, Vilas county, to be the nucleus of the game on the preserve when it is established.

Thoughtful Girl.
"Can you take a little care of that card of mine?" implored the innocent one girl to the office boy who was rapidly rolling it into a wad, "and bring it back to me so I can send it in somewhere else? Cards cost me a cent apiece."

Lack of Opportunity.
"Some people," said Uncle Eben, "pride themselves too much on being good on Sunday. Do truth be dat dar ah! enough business transacted on dat day to give 'em much chance to be tricky."

JACK POWELL, ST. LOUIS PITCHER, LESS 3RD.
POPULAR WITH FANS THAN GEO. STOVALL.

Jack Powell.

Jack Powell, the veteran pitcher of the St. Louis American league team as George Stovall is popular. Unless old Jack delivers the goods in wholesale packages, it is feared that he is done for in St. Louis.

In a recent game with Cleveland, with the score tied in the eighth, with the Naps at bat, one down and Lajoie on third, Powell's temper got the better of him and he uncorked a wild pitch. Larry came in with the winning run. Then Powell offered harsh words of advice to his "animators," especially Catcher Kritchell, who let the pitch get past him. The Missourians were mad. "Take him out," they yelled. But Manager Wallace did not heed their pleas.

LOCAL BOYS FORM MOTORCYCLE CLUB

Organization to Have Charge of Races on Decoration Day.—Prizes Amount to $125.

Janesville is to have a motorcycle club. This organization will be known under the name of The Janesville Motorcycle club and will have the charge of the races which are to be held here next Decoration day. A number of local owners have already signed up for membership and a large number more are expected to join within the next few days. No membership fees will be charged until the club gets into active running order and requires a treasury.

Entertainment for the guests of the club on the day of the races, care of the grounds and employees, will be taken upon itself and which is expected to add greatly to the interest of the races, which will be more easily handled by such an organization than by individuals.

Nothing definite has as yet been done with regard to the organization of such a club but the promoters are planning to have a meeting at which all matters with regard to the races will be arranged as far as possible and a beginning of activities made.

Arrangements for the Decoration day motorcycle races, which are to be held at the track of the Janesville Park Association at the Fair Grounds are progressing rapidly and will soon be completed and the entries made. Everything which will add to the entertainment of the spectators as well as will add to the safety of the riders is being planned and not only will there be a number of exciting races pulled off, $125 being offered in prizes for the eight events, but some exhibition work be done by specialists in that line and the fancy riding will be one of the features of the afternoon.

Races have been arranged, eight in all, to include all three classes of riders, private owners, trade riders and professional speedsters. Owing to the increased number of local riders over last year, many of whom are showing marked ability on the track, four events have been opened to novices who have never raced before. These will all be with 350 cc machines that is the prevailing type in use in this part of the country. Riders from many of the surrounding cities will probably be entered in one or more of these races and they promise to be very fast.

Besides these there will be three races for the 61-60 class, one of which will be open for all who wish to enter.

Further arrangements will also be made so that as little delay as possible will be caused during the races and nothing will be allowed to hinder in the running off of the events.

OPEN BASEBALL SEASON CENTRAL KANSAS LEAGUE.

Schedule of Ninety Games Will be Played, Season Ending August 8.—Strongest Clubs Embraced.

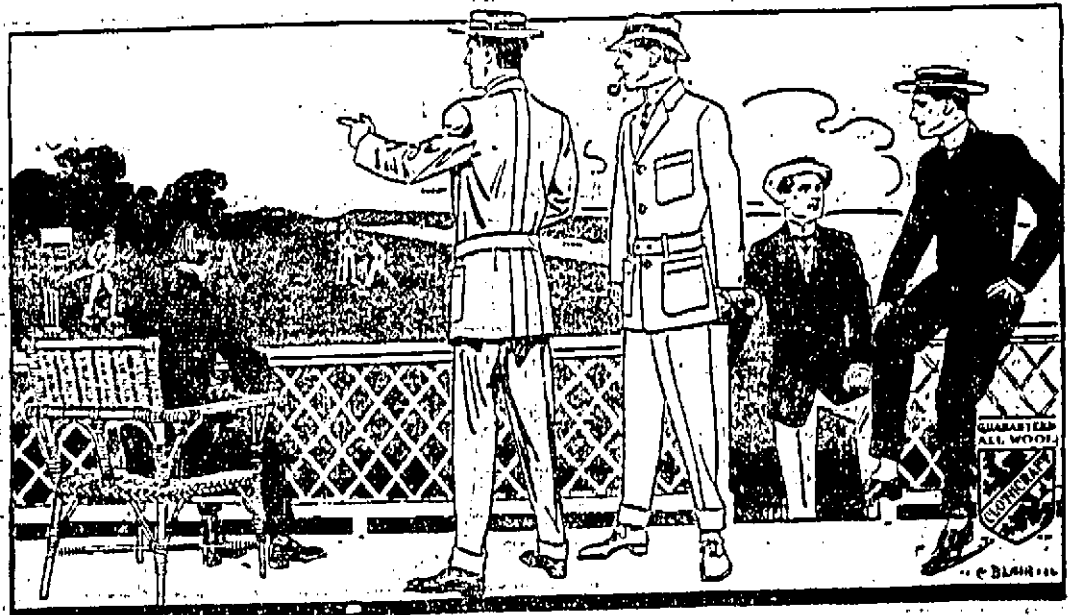

Newton, Kan., May 9.—The Central Kansas Baseball league began its season today, with the Ballou team playing at Great Bend, Manhattan at Lyons and Junction City at Newton. The club owners expect a successful season. The league this year is composed of the "strongest" clubs that were embraced in last year's circuit of the Kansas State league and the Central Kansas league. A schedule of 90 games will be played, the season ending August 8.

Fighters Who Meet Tonight.
Joe Mandot vs. Ray Temple, 20 rounds, at New Orleans.
Grover Hayes vs. Danny Goodman, 12 rounds, at Columbus, O.
Paddy McFarland vs. Martin Canole, 10 rounds, at Fall River.

Fashion Note for Men.
Then there are the new pajamas, with mother-of-pearl buttons and heading with any delicate shade of baby ribbon—pink being preferred by the ultra-exclusive ones.—Men's Fashion Notes.

Natural Curiosity.
Small Harold noticed that a stylish young man who was calling on his sister wore shoes that tapered to a point. "Say," queried the little fellow, "is your toes all cut off but one?"

Would Be Easier for the Camel.
"I wish," said the bachelor who was trying to thread a needle, "that there was a camel here. I'd tie this thread to his tail and drive him through."—Kansas City Times.

Hard to Believe--But Clothcraft

Clothes Cost You Only $10 to $20

SOME men come into our store with no intention of buying--simply to look around. We are mighty glad to have such men come in and get acquainted with Clothcraft Guaranteed All-Wool Clothes at $10 to $20.00.

The other day a man of this kind visited us, and asked to see a Clothcraft Suit. He had never before worn ready-to-wear clothes and was amazed at the tasteful, distinctive style, the good fit, the smooth-lying lapels, the clean, even stitching and hand-made buttonholes. He was so favorably impressed he bought the suit.

You, too, will quickly notice and like these good points about Clothcraft Clothes. Come in today or tomorrow sure and try on as many as you like. You don't have to buy.

We are proud to show you these guaranteed clothes.

All the newest weaves and colorings, made up in English, Norfolk and more conservative models, in beautiful shades of blues, greys, browns and fancy mixtures.

No matter what you pay, you'll be satisfied with your Clothcraft Suit. A signed guarantee of all-wool, lasting shape, satisfactory wear and service, goes with every suit. This guarantee is your protection against disappointment.

Just say 5130—if you want the best Blue Serge Suit, at $15, you ever saw

THE GOLDEN EAGLE
The Clothcraft Store

The Janesville Gazette

New Bldg., 200-204 E. Milwaukee St.

ENTERED AT THE POSTOFFICE AT JANESVILLE, WIS., AS SECOND CLASS MAIL MATTER.

GAZETTE BRANCH OFFICE, J. P. BAKER AND SON 1800 STONE, CORNER MILWAUKEE AND FRANKLIN STS., BOTH PHONES NUMBER TEN.

MEMBER OF ASSOCIATED PRESS.

BUSINESS OFFICE OPEN SATURDAY EVENING.

WEATHER FORECAST.
Fair tonight and Friday, probably becoming sunnier by Friday night. Warner tonight.

TERMS OF SUBSCRIPTION.

One Month, Daily Edition by Carrier, $5.00
One Year, Daily Edition by Carrier, $50.00
One Year, Daily Edition by Mail, $45.00
One Year, Rural Delivery in Rock Co., $40.00
Six Months, Rural Delivery in Rock Co., $25.00
Six Months, Rural Delivery in Rock Co., $25.00
Six Months, Rural Delivery in Rock Co., $25.00

Editorial Rooms, Rock Co., $2.00
Business Office, Rock Co., $2.00
Printing Department, Rock Co., $2.00
Rock County News, can be interchanged for all departments.

GAZETTE PRINTING CO.

GAZETTE APRIL CIRCULATION.
Sworn circulation statement of The Daily and Semi-Weekly Gazette circulation for April.

DAILY

Days	Copies	Copies
1.....	6010/15.....	6014
2.....	6010/16.....	6009
3.....	6010/17.....	6009
4.....	6010/18.....	6009
5.....	6010/19.....	6009
6.....	6010/20.....	6009
7.....	6010/21.....	6009
8.....	6010/22.....	6012
9.....	6010/23.....	6012
10.....	6010/24.....	6012
11.....	6010/25.....	6008
12.....	6010/26.....	6008
13.....	6010/27.....	6008
14.....	6010/28.....	6008
15.....	6010/29.....	6008
16.....	6010/30.....	6008

SEMI-WEEKLY

Days	Copies	Copies
1.....	1694/19.....	1684
2.....	1694/20.....	1683
3.....	1694/21.....	1683
4.....	1694/22.....	1683
5.....	1694/23.....	1684
6.....	1694/24.....	1684
7.....	1694/25.....	1684
8.....	1694/26.....	1684
9.....	1694/27.....	1684
10.....	1694/28.....	1684
11.....	1694/29.....	1684
12.....	1694/30.....	1684

Total.....15,192

15,192 divided by 5, total number of issues, 3038.4, Semi-Weekly average.

This is a correct report of the circulation of The Janesville Daily and Semi-Weekly Gazette for April, 1912, and represents the actual number of papers printed and circulated.

H. H. BLISS, Jr.,

Notary Public.

My commission expires July 12, 1914.

Subscribed and sworn to before me this 1st day of May, 1912.

OLIVE M. HAYWARD,

Notary Public.

My commission expires July 12, 1914.

THE BEST GOVERNMENT ON EARTH.

Here is an extract from a little speech that President Taft made to the school children of Chillicothe, Ohio, last Monday. It is so out of the ordinary, during these days of hot political warfare that it is well worth reading and considering.

"You ought to thank God that you are Americans, and that you live in this country under this government. Don't let people fool you about your being 'oppressed' and that sort of thing. Don't be discouraged because there is a boy around the corner who has more money and a more comfortable time. The probability is that comfort will prevent him making as much of an effort as you make. You have an equality of opportunity here. If you will only improve it, that will make you happy men and women. Do not let anybody mislead you to think that this is a bad government. Of course you are in favor of improving that government, as we all are, but remember that what you ought to do is to help and support that government, and let nobody fool you into the idea that it is a bad government. It is the best government on the face of the earth, under the Constitution that our forefathers gave us. So all the time rejoice that you are Americans; that you live under the American flag."

"The loyal sentiment expressed rings true and is characteristic of the great man who provides over the destinies of the nation, and who is just now engaged in the humiliating task of defending his administration. President Taft is imbued with the spirit of Americanism. The light that has been forced upon him by the man whom he regarded as his friend, is distasteful to him. He is honest in his convictions as to what policy should be pursued for the best welfare of the nation, but he is also broad enough to recognize the fact that America is the best governed country on earth, and will continue to hold this supremacy regardless of men or administrations."

The spirit expressed is in sharp contrast to the man who opposes him, for while he might endorse the sentiment expressed, he is inspired with the notion that the best interests of the country demand that he be placed in executive control. To his distorted vision the man is greater than the nation. That's the spirit of insurgency, expressed in another way by the following paragraph from Senator La Follette in a recent magazine article. He said:

"In twenty-five years of political struggle, I have found the one great issue overshadowing and including all others—the encroachment of the powerful few on the rights of the many. All the issues of today are but phases of this one great question. How shall the individual, the farmer, the worker, and all those who pay tribute, be set free from the unjust exactions of the tariff, the railroads, the money power, and other forms of oppression by special interests?"

"The combinations have unlawfully taken possession of the whole country. They control transportation, manufacturing, mining, capital and credit, the market price of everything the farmer sells, the market price of everything the consumer must buy. They have achieved this control—except as to a few of the older trusts—almost entirely under the last two administrations, notwithstanding the prosecutions for which so much has been claimed."

This sort of twaddle has been the keynote of insurgency. It incites class hatred and insurrection. The "powerful few" referred to has come to include all classes of men with money until capital is regarded as an enemy, and the man who possesses it, as an "undesirable citizen."

The senator, like the colonel, has an exalted opinion of himself. He saved his own state from machine rule and installed a bull-bearing vehicle that resurrects the dead and does his bidding at a wave of the hand. What he accomplished for Wisconsin he aspires to accomplish for the nation. He would like to be the Moses to lead the people out of the wilderness.

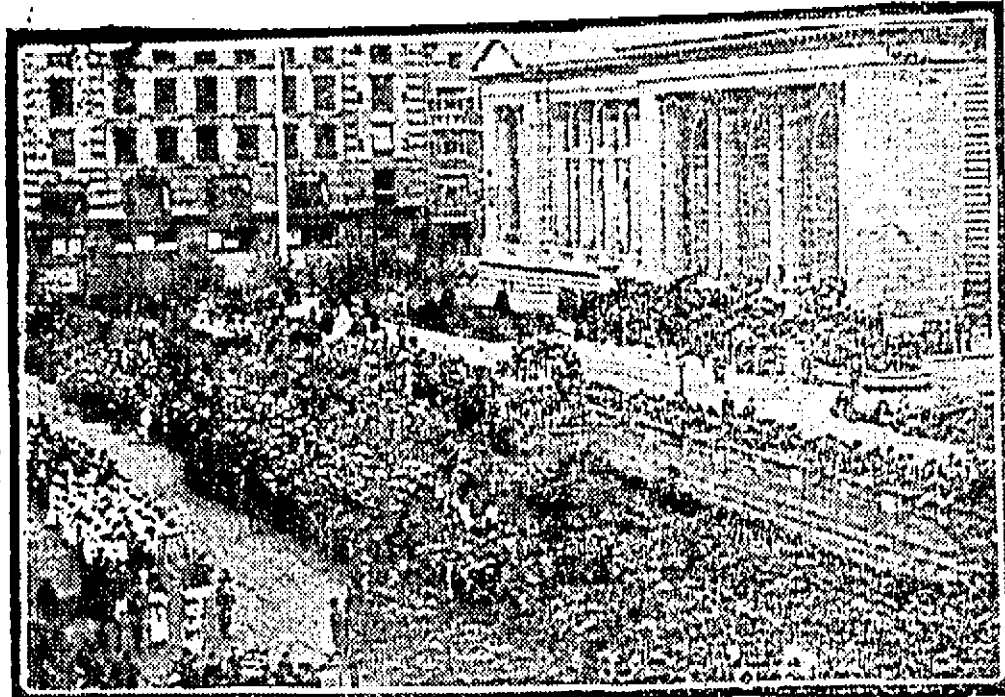

President Taft is cast in a different mold from either the colonel or the senator. His ambition to succeed himself is natural and commendable, but it is free from egotism, and should he be defeated his confidence in the onward march of the best nation on earth, will not be shaken.

If the income tax is made the issue in the state campaign, any sort of a party that favors its repeal will win. The people who have gone daffy on reform have seen a vision, and many of them will discover that many things have happened, during their hypnotic slumber, which need attention. The state treasurer needs $11,000,000 for state expenses, and his emissaries have been instructed to go out and get the money. This sort of practical instruction would not have been tolerated a few years ago, but "representative government" comes high and the state university and forty commissions must be taken care of.

With Maryland and Washington lined up for Roosevelt, the colonel is again inspired with confidence, and the campaign in Ohio will be waged with renewed vigor. Should Taft win with a narrow margin, in the national convention, it will be interesting to watch the maneuvers of his impulsive rival. He will claim of course that he is the people's choice and would have been nominated if the presidential primary had prevailed in all the states. Will he bolt the party and become an independent candidate, or will he be loyal in defeat?

Nature is not disturbed by the political game, which just now is as such absorbing interest, and the crop reports coming in present an encouraging outlook. This is especially true of the South, where every fruit tree promises an abundant yield. While the acreage of winter wheat is less than in 1911, the stand is good and a bumper crop will be harvested. Everything looks well except a lot of

FIFTEEN THOUSAND MARCH IN MONSTER SUFFRAGE PARADE IN NEW YORK CITY; MISS MARIE STUART, EQUESTRIENNES' LEADER.

Infantry Parade Passing New Public Library and Marie Stuart, Parade Leader.

Fifteen thousand suffragists paraded the streets of New York on the afternoon of Saturday, May 4. Marching up Fifth Avenue between the throngs of spectators who crowded the sidewalks, the women marchers presented an impressive spectacle. The slogan, "Votes for Women" was everywhere in evidence.

As the paraders passed the New York Public Library, more than 5,000 persons were massed in front of the building. No feature of the parade attracted more attention than Miss Marie Stuart, who led one division. Attired as Joan of Arc, Miss Stuart showed herself an expert horsewoman by her skillful handling of her spirited mount.

political candidates whose ambition will be blighted by an early frost.

The anthracite coal strike continues, and not a ton has been mined since the first of April. Stock on hand is running low and there will be a shortage after the first of June. Bituminous coal is being substituted in many places for steam purposes but many cities are unable to use it on account of smoke ordinances. This is the case of New York City and the harbor where coal smoke is never seen. The city is as clean as a country village and anthracite coal is the only fuel used by the great fleet of boats which throng the waterway.

ON THE SPUR OF THE MOMENT

By Roy K. Moulton.

The Latest Wonder.
I've seen the wireless telegraph.
It's wonderful, I ween.
I've also heard the phonograph
And seen a submarine.
I've seen an airship make its flight
And other wonders rare.
But one I'll mention is quite Beyond power to compare.
It is, the oddest looking thing
That every mortal eye
Has rested on, I think, by Jingo.
In earth or sea or sky.
It doesn't look like any bird
Or beast that roams the earth.
I was dumfounded when I heard
How much the thing was worth.
The English language fails to draw
A picture of it right.
The blindest thing I ever saw,
A weird and gruesome sight.
It isn't got no regular shape
So far as I can see.
There's naught like it from Good Hope Cape.

Clear to the Zuyder Zee,
This wild and grotesque work of art
That I'm alluding at, You've surely guessed, right from the start,
Is my wife's summer hat.

A Few Nature Fakes.
It's great to be a mermaid
This is no idle whim.
Her style is never passe;
She's always in the swim.

The elephant is lucky.
No sheriff has the spunk
When closing up a circus
To levy on his trunk.

The owl is no high flyer.
But still is stylish quite
He should join the Four Hundred
For he stays out all night.

The rhino's never thirsty.
He can acquire a "stew."
In dry states he is never Without a horn or two.

The giraffe may be homely.

The effort to clean up the city and

The precinct in which Mr. Bryan lived, at Lincoln, Nebraska, and thirty-two democratic votes at the primary election, the other day. Mr. Bryan was so anxious to establish his reputation as a "non-partisan candidate" that he made a personal canvass and persuaded the voters to break even on Clark and Underwood, the two presidential candidates, whose names appeared on the ballot. Foxey Bryant! Watch his maneuvers at Baltimore next month.

The home rule bill passed at the special session of the legislature, is most commendable because it removes from city government the ban of politics which has so long been a menace. If the law had further provided for the election of all candidates at large, nothing would be left to be desired. A city at its best is free from boundary lines and ward entanglements, and politics has no place in city government.

But he's content, by heck,
The race of life he always
Can win out by a neck.

The hon is no pitcher
But reputation serves
To make it mighty risky
To get next to his curves.

The hornet is a cynic,
A pessimistic thing;
His style of conversation
Is never without a sting.

The mountain goat is foxy.
No deer cuts his,
He carries his own butter
Around with him, you see.

These gags are all historic,
We'd not write them first.
We're not the guilty faker,
Let T. R. do his worst.

Keeping Warm in the Spring!

You have doubtless read of the manner in which ship's furniture and cabin woodwork have been burned to keep the fires in desperate weather. That's nothing compared to what has been going on around our place.

The coke gave out last Wednesday. Thursday we sacrificed two step-ladders, three washbasins, and four tin and the lawnmower handle. The stormhouse which we had taken down, kept us going Friday and Friday was a cheerful day. Saturday saw the last of the carpet sweeper, three brooms, five suit cases and three old-fashioned trunks, while we kept warm Sunday on the kitchen table. Webster's unabridged dictionary, Kipling's "Plain Tales From the Hills," and the lex box. We went visiting Monday, and Tuesday we had a last adieu to the snowshovel, the old hall clock, one folding bed and a complete set of Dickens' works.

Help. We have nothing left but the dining room furniture and that about half belongs to the installment house.

Dead Died-Happy.

Osaculation kills thousands, some Cincinnati woman says. Maybe, also it has delighted billions.—Pittsburg Post.

A Man's Work.

When a man begins to do his work merely for the sake of getting it done he may as well give up hope that his salary will ever be increased.

WOMEN WASHINGTON

Mrs. J. L. Ellerbe.

Mrs. J. L. Ellerbe, wife of Congressman Ellerbe of South Carolina, is a popular member of the Southern congressional set. She was married in 1887, and has given birth to five children, three of whom are living. She has been a familiar figure at the capital for many years. Mr. Ellerbe having served his district as congressman since 1903.

Tip for Farmers.

Percy Noodles says he knew a man who sent two dollars to Augusta, Me., for a recipe "How to make a hen lay two eggs per day," and got an answer advising him to sprinkle her tail with blood squeezed out of a turnip.—Dallas News.

At Fountains & Elsewhere Ask for "HORLICK'S"

The Original and Genuine Malted Milk

The Food-drink for All Ages.

At restaurants, hotels, and fountains. Delicious, invigorating and sustaining. Keep it on your sideboard at home.

Don't travel without it.

A quick lunch prepared in a minute. Take no imitation. Just say "HORLICK'S."

Not in Any Milk Trust

Allen's

56 S. Main St.

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

Lace Curtains For May Buyers:

We have made great preparations for the usual large demand which always comes at just this time of the year, when moving and general re-furnishing are in vogue. From the very inexpensive grades to the more elaborate parlor curtains we show an almost unlimited variety and for equal values our low prices cannot be duplicated. The distinctly new and effective character of these curtains will be pleasing to all thrifty and tasteful housekeepers. There's a good deal of information that you'd perhaps like to know in our ad on page 8 tonight.

Chocolate, Strawberry, Vanilla Ice Cream HERE ALWAYS.

Pappas Candy Palace

The Income Tax

Get the latest and most complete work on the subject, viz.,

INCOME TAXATION

Methods and Results in Various Countries

By ROSSUTH KENT KENNAN

now bound in buckram, metal covers, gilt top

Price, net $3.50

Sent boxed and prepaid, $3.75

Burdick & Allen, Publishers

MILWAUKEE, WIS.

Going West

Then let us quote you cheap rates on household goods.

C. W. Schwartz

Offices Smith's Pharmacy

and Room 3 Phoenix Block.

OAT SMUT

Treat your oats, barley and potatoes.

We sell the genuine 40% solution of Formaldehyde.

Badger Drug Co., corner W. Milwaukee and River streets.

Myers Theatre

PETER L. MYERS, MANAGER.

1870—42nd YEAR—1912

The Leading and Safest Theatre in 20 Exits—80, Wisconsin—20 Exits

Sunday May 12th

MATINEE AND EVENING.

Dougherty's Famous Scenic Production of

-FAUST-

Special Scenery and Electrical Effects.

Prices: Night—10c, 20c, 30c, 50c.

Prices: Matinee—Children, 15c; Adults, 25c.

Sents on sale Saturday at 9 A. M.

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

Allen's

My Way of Serving My Patrons

Stakes them enthusiastic over my painless work. They go away and send others and they others, so that it is an endless chain. Join this chain yourself, and do away with all future fears of the Dentist's chair.

DR. F. T. RICHARDS
Office over Hall & Bayles.

ESTABLISHED 1855.

The First National Bank

Safe Investments

OUR CERTIFICATES OF DEPOSIT ARE PAYABLE ON DEMAND AND CAN BE USED AT ANY TIME AT THEIR FULL VALUE. THEY DRAW INTEREST AT THE RATE OF 2 PER CENT IF LEFT FOUR MONTHS AND 3 PER CENT IF LEFT SIX MONTHS.

We have made great strides in Dentistry.

Big discount for cash.
CHAS. T. PEIRCE, DENTIST.

Paid advertisement; amount paid 25c each insertion.
FOR SHERIFF OF ROCK CO.

I hereby announce my candidacy and respectfully solicit your support at the September primary.
ALVA D. MAXFIELD.

W. H. Blair

Architect
424 Hayes Block, Janesville, Wis.

ORFORDVILLE CREAM-ERY BUTTER 33c LB.
SWIFT'S JERSEY BUTTER 15c LB.
3 1-LB. PKGS. RAISINS 25c.
HAND PICKED NAVY BEANS 6c LB.
FINE EATING POTATOES $1.20 BUSHEL.
10-LB. SK. FINE TABLE SALT 10c.
3 PKGS. RED CROSS MACARONI 25c.
COOKING APPLES 50c.
E. R. WINSLOW

TOO LATE TO CLASSIFY.

LOST—Pocket book containing small amount of money, between Bostwick's store and Milwaukee road to Martin Paulson's farm in Harmony. Reward if returned to Gazette.

LOST—Hindale Scotch Terrier puppy, reward. Alex. Buchanan. Bell phone 1170.

WANTED—Married man with small family to work on farm by year, R. W. Lamb, Janesville Rte. 1, New Phone.

FOR SALE—Forty bushels seed corn, Germination 98%. Martin Paulson, Harmony.

WANTED—Girl to operate power sewing machines, Janesville Shirt & Overall Co., N. Franklin St.

CARD OF THANKS.
We desire to thank our kind friends and neighbors for their kindness during our recent bereavement and also for the beautiful floral offerings.

FRANTIC SEARCH TO LOCATE LOST CHILD

Robert Roeding, Aged 2, Found by Police on Down Town Streets, While Parents Hunted Anxiously For Him.

After a search of an hour and a half, during which time the parents became almost frantic at the absence of their son, Robert, the two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Roeding, was found when a telephone call was sent to the police station, where the child had been taken by Officer John Brown. The child, which had been playing about the store, disappeared about five o'clock, and the father immediately sent out searchers in automobiles and on bicycles to look for him. A search was made along the river through four that the child might have gone that way and fallen into the water. Finally when the search seemed hopeless and the parents were frantic that the child had been lost, a telephone call was sent to the police station, and Mr. and Mrs. Roeding, happy once more, came and claimed the youngster, who is just learning to walk, had wandered up town, and was found by Officer Brown at the corner of Main and Milwaukee streets.

TALENTED AUTHORSHIP VISITS JANEVILLE FRIENDS TODAY

Janet Jennings of Monroe Talks of Her Writings—Know Clara Barton Personally.
Janet Jennings of Monroe, author of the "Blue and the Gray," and "Abraham Lincoln, the Greatest American," visited Janesville today. These two little volumes, published in 1909 and 1910, are used in many schools throughout the state. The author has added to a special hundred volume edition of the "Blue and the Gray" a picture of Clara Barton, taken just after the close of the Civil war, and which she liked best of all. Members of the G. A. R. and others interested in historical sketches have pronounced the volumes most complete.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Two From Deloit: Two prisoners were brought up from Deloit this afternoon—Daniel Madden and Fred Carlson. Both will serve ten day terms for drunkenness.

Marriage License: A marriage license was issued at the office of the county clerk today to LaVern S. Mayland of Monroe and Phoebe J. Miller of Hanover.

Mushroom Harvest: Lovers of mushrooms have had a feast these past few days, the delicate "pinkies" coming up in all parts of the city in profusion, particularly so in the Court House park. Several families have picked large bags full several times this past week without apparently diminishing the supply.

Laying Concrete Wall: The front wall of the basement of the new Kennerly garage, which was washed out by the storm last Sunday morning, is being rebuilt, this time to be reinforced concrete and peck.

Made Big Jewelry Hunt: Martin J. Hyland, superintendent of police at Indianapolis, Ind., has informed Chief of Police J. J. Murphy of the robbery of the jewelry store of W. Sussman on West Washington street, that city, on May 6. Large quantities of set and unset diamonds were taken, nearly a hundred gold silver rings, seventy-five hunting case gold watches, and a lot of Smith & Wesson revolvers.

Base Ball Meeting: There will be a meeting of the managers of the different members of the Commercial League at the Y. M. C. A. tomorrow night at seven o'clock at which the plans for the season will be made. The League will probably be in operation within the next two weeks.

Woodmen to Entertain: The members of Florence Camp, M. W. A., of this city, are planning a social dancing affair to be given in their hall next Monday night. The Royal Neighbors, auxiliary of the M. W. A., will be entertained at that time by the Woodmen. A committee of arrangements is now making preparations and will decorate the hall for the occasion. The party is to be a private one for Modern Woodmen and Royal Neighbors only. Plans are also being made for the annual memorial exercises of the Woodmen which will be held on Sunday, June 2.

Save a dollar—Two.

BREACH OF CONTRACT SUIT IS WON BY PLAINTIFF.

Advance Thrasher Company Awarded $281.25 and Costs Against P. A. Sagan.

Judgment for $281.25 and costs was awarded the plaintiffs in the case of the Advance Thrasher Company vs. P. A. Sagan by Judge George Grimm in the circuit court today. A breach of contract was the grounds for the action. Judge Grimm left this evening for Monroe, where he will be engaged for the remainder of the week, trying several criminal actions. He will spend next week here disposing of cases in the May calendar.

BRIEF LOCAL NEWS.

Always something new in novelty advertisements. Holm's Store.
Circle No. 8 will meet with Mrs. Allen, North High street, Friday afternoon, 2:30. A full attendance is desired. Mrs. Robt. president.

A regular meeting of the Triumph Camp, No. 481, I. O. O. F., will be held in their hall this evening.

The Philomathian club will meet tomorrow at three o'clock at the home of Mrs. Carrie Roberts, Court street.

A snappy lot of Children's Dresses, received daily from New York Holm's Store.

Leimel and Lewis garage, Albany, Wis., bargains in second-hand cars. Ford, Overlands and Oldsmobiles. Ed. Reichenbach of Jefferson, Wis., is doing farm drainage work in Rock county now. He has two steam ditchers and twenty men. Interested farmers should write him without delay.

Save a dollar—Two.

PERSONAL MENTION.

The Janesville Art League will hold their regular meeting Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock at Library hall.

Miss Gladys Heddles of Chicago, who was here last evening for the wedding of Miss Maybelle Charlton and Lloyd B. Ashton.

W. V. Wheelock has gone to Grand Rapids, Mich., on a business trip. M. G. Jeffers has departed on a ten days' trip to the Pacific coast.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Jeffers have returned from a trip in the south.

Mrs. M. A. Heath has returned from a visit in Chicago.

Miss Frances Seales of Evansville, visited in the city yesterday.

Mrs. F. L. Gilbert, who has been the guest of Mrs. A. P. Lovejoy, has returned to her home in Duluth.

Edward Hall of Milton Junction, was in the city yesterday.

Richard Valentine was in Milwaukee yesterday.

Rev. O. J. Kynia of Orfordville, was a visitor in the city yesterday.

A. P. Lovejoy left today for Syracuse, N. Y., on a short business trip.

Victor Anderson was in the city last evening from Chicago to attend the Charlton-Ashton wedding.

G. H. Russell was in Madison yesterday on business.

Mrs. David Lippman of Edgerton, visited in the city yesterday.

Rev. and Mrs. C. W. Boag of Waterville, Wis., were here to attend the Charlton-Ashton nuptials last evening.

William R. McNeil was in Milwaukee yesterday.

Mrs. Arthur Stockman and Mrs. John Seaman of Milton Junction were visitors here today.

E. H. Libby and C. D. Barnard of Evansville, transacted business in the city yesterday.

The Messadames Pyffe, Mason and Peyton of Highland Park, Ill., who have been guests of Mrs. Josephine Carlo Baird, have returned to their homes.

Mrs. G. W. Squires was a Deloit visitor today.

Rev. and Mrs. Salisbury of Orfordville, visited in the city yesterday.

Mrs. John Cunningham returned yesterday from a short visit with Mrs. S. C. Chambers at Milton Junction.

E. O. Smith was in Milwaukee today on business.

R. P. Nichols of Madison, transacted business in the city yesterday.

George Thomas was in Chicago yesterday.

Edgar Crissey was in Brookfield yesterday.

Mert Sherman of Delavan, spent yesterday in the city.

Dr. E. H. Dudley was a Chicago visitor yesterday.

T. E. Tollefson of Orfordville, was in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Case have moved from their former residence on Linn street to the La Vista flats.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence M. Robinson of Oshkosh, Mr. and Mrs. William Milligan of Evansville, and George Milligan of Dixon, Ill., were here yesterday to attend the funeral of Cornelius W. Robinson.

Horatio Nelson was a Chicago visitor on Tuesday.

CARLOAD OF TOBACCO BURNED IN TRANSIT

Was Packed by Sanford Soverhill at Calfax for Shipment to This City—Fire Discovered At Brooklyn.

A carload of tobacco, packed by Sanford Soverhill at Calfax and shipped a week ago Tuesday, was almost entirely destroyed by fire while in transit yesterday. The fire was discovered by the trainman at Brooklyn and the car set out on a siding after which holes were cut in it and the fire extinguished. The car reached this city yesterday. The ceiling and walls were badly charred and but little tobacco was left. Mr. Soverhill values the tobacco destroyed at from $4500 to $5000. It was made up of fancy leaf which he bought early last fall, soon after the harvest was completed. The car when loaded was filled as full as it could be packed. Not twenty pounds more could have been put in. The cause of the fire is unknown but may have been caused by a hot cinder from the locomotive.

YOUNG LADIES ENJOY REAL JUVENILE PARTY.

Baptist Girls' Classes Hold Pleasant Affair in Church Parlors Last Evening.

The members of the Mrs. Mount's and the Philanthropic classes of the Baptist church enjoyed a most enjoyable evening in the church parlors last night at a juvenile party. Humorous costumes representing all nationalities and characters added to the pleasure of the occasion while the program and refreshments were juvenile in every sense of the word. The program consisted of duets, recitations, piano selections and solos after which all-day suckers, tea cream in the shape of animals, candy whistles, animal crackers, stick candy and everything else which would delight the heart of a child were served to the young ladies.

GENERAL YOUNG RECEIVES COMMAND OF VETERANS.

(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Macon, Ga., May 8.—General Bennett H. Young of Louisville, Ky., commander of the army of Tennessee, was elected commander-in-chief of the United Confederate veterans today.

Save a dollar—Two.

Semi-Annual Lecture on Christian Science Tomorrow Night at Opera House

The semi-annual lecture on Christian Science under the auspices of the local church will be given at the Myers Opera House tomorrow (Friday) evening by Judge Clifford P. Smith, C. S. B., of Brookline, Mass., member of the Board of Lectureship of this denomination.

The purpose of the lecture is to enlighten the thought of the community with a more accurate knowledge of Christian Science and to bear testimony to the facts regarding the life and work of its discoverer and founder, Mary Baker Eddy. Lecture is free. All persons interested are cordially invited. Lecture commences at eight o'clock.

If you are out of a job, the Gazette will do one for you, FREE, through its want columns.

Halibut Steak

STRICTLY FRESH CAUGHT, LAKE SUPERIOR, DRESSED
WHITEFISH.

Very fancy No. 1 Lake Trout.

We can recommend any of them.

Order early and secure the variety you prefer.

Elsie Cheese

Just in—The genuine Elsie at 25c lb.

10 lbs. Black Twig Apples only 50c.

Baking Potatoes, $1.25 bu.

Dedrick Bros.

New Janesville Meat Market

The reason we sell more meat than any market in town is because we have the best meat at the lowest prices. — A. G. Metzinger

Cor. Jackson and Milw. Sts.
New phone 56; Old, 436.

We deliver to any part of the city free of charge.

WATCH FOR OUR BIG SPECIAL SALE AD TOMORROW.

Municipal Bonds

BONDS OF CITIES, VILLAGES AND SCHOOL DISTRICTS ARE THE SAFEST FORM OF INVESTMENT, THEY PAY 50% MORE THAN THE BANKS, AND ARE READILY SALABLE WHEN THE MONEY IS NEEDED.

WE BUY AND SELL BONDS OF THIS CHARACTER.

Rock County National Bank

BLAIR & BLAIR

Insurance, Real Estate, Surety Bonds.
W. H. BLAIR, ARCHITECT.
424 Hayes Block.

Fresh Fish

For Friday

Fresh Caught Trout

Fresh Caught Bull Heads

Fresh Halibut Steak

3 Smoked Bloaters, 10c.

3 Spiced Herring, 10c.

Dressed Herring, 18c lb.

Genuine Georgia Bank, Coddish Middles, 18c lb.

Full supply of the very finest canned fish.

PLEASE ORDER EARLY.

TAYLOR BROS.

415-417 W. Milw., St.

Both Phones.

Skinned Bullheads

10c

Fresh Caught Trout, lb. 15c

Fresh Lake Herring, lb. 12 1/2c

Smoked Whitefish, lb. 10c

2 Black Diamond Sardines 25c

4 Mustard Sardines 25c

Clubhouse Shrimp, can 15c

All grades of Salmon, 15c, 18c, 20c and 25c.

Fresh Pineapples and Strawberries.

Home Grown Asparagus, large bunch 12 1/2c

Yellow Wax Beans, lb. 18c

Cucumbers, each 5c to 8c

Small round Radishes, beh. 5c

Lettuce, Green Onions and Plant.

Baldwin Apples, lb. 5c

Tomato and Cabbage Plants, dozen 10c

We will have Potted Plants tomorrow morning.

Mex. O-Ja Coffee, lb. 30c

Mex. O-Ja Coffee demonstration at our store Friday and Saturday.

ROESLING BROS.

GROCERIES AND MEATS

6 PHONES, ALL 128.

Read the Want Ads, tonight.

DON'T DESTROY THE PACKAGE

Put Shurtleff's Purity Butter, package and all, into your refrigerator. Always put it away in the package and you will remark a new butter experience — the last bit will taste just as good as the first.

Shurtleff's Purity Butter is made from the finest flavor is so delicate and delicious, that we carefully pack every pound in our special germ-proof, moisture-proof package to preserve this goodness till you get it, and afterward from the possible taint of fruits or fish or cheese in your own ice chest.

Your grocer sells Shurtleff's Purity Butter or will get it for you. Insist on Shurtleff's.

THE SHURTLEFF CO.

BOTH PHONES.

NASH

Fresh Fish, order early.

Halibut Steak 12 1/2c lb.

Halibut cheaper than beef.

Lake Superior Trout 15c lb.

Smoked Whitefish.

Our Halibut fresh caught.

3 cans Golden Eagle Salmon 50c

Golden Eagle Salmon 18c.

Boss Mustard Sardines 10c.

Domestic Oil Sardines 5c.

Norwegian Oil Sardines 10c.

Billets Oil Sardines 20c.

Dupont's Boneless Half Sardines 25c.

Canned Fresh Mackerel 18c.

King Oscar Mackerel 18c lb.

Thick Red Salt Salmon 15c lb.

Full Fat Nordland Herring 10c.

4 Janesville Corn 25c.

Fancy Canned Tomatoes 10c.

3 cans Pumpkin 25c.

3 cans String Beans 25c.

2 Eagle Blueberries 25c.

3 Monarch Gallon Apples $1.00

4 lbs. Bulk Macaroni 25c.

3 Red Cross Macaroni 25c.

2 Imported Macaroni 25c.

Hotel Mushrooms 20c.

Oranges and Lemons.

Figs and Dates.

Antoninis Olive Oil.

Cucumbers 10c and 15c.

Lettuce and Spinach.

Home Grown Asparagus.

Home Grown Plant 5c.

Pretzels 8c lb.

Fresh Graham Crackers 10c lb.

Fresh Salted Wafers 15c lb.

Fancy Apples 5c lb.

3 large Dill Pickles 5c.

Heinz large Sweet Pickles 12c doz.

Sour Pickles 25c gallon.

3 Kingsford's Corn Starch 25c.

3 Silver Gloss Starch 25c.

6 lbs. Bulk Starch 25c.

Home Made Sunshine Cake.

Home Made Cookies, Doughnuts, Bread, Rolls, Coffee and Cup Cakes.

New Silver Skin Onions.

New Potatoes 7c lb.

2 Bun Onions 5c.

GROCERIES AND MEATS.

NASH

Fair Store

Special Sale of Shoes and Oxfords

Second Floor. WOMEN'S SHOES.

2 strap black velvet pumps, at $1.95.

2 strap tan calf skin pumps, at $1.95.

LINK AND PIN

C. M. & St. Paul.

The express is very quiet on the St. Paul road today and the shipments of freight seem to be falling off all the time, until there is almost none left just now. No extra have been sent out for several days and only the regular trains have been running.

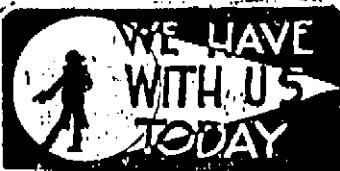

The Gollmar Bros. circus train which was sent to Brodhead yesterday came back this morning and engine 226 with Engineer Swartz in charge took out at 4 o'clock on its way to Burlington. Engineer McCarthy on 175 and Engineer Marker on 763 double headed the train in here this morning.

ENGINEERS WERE HERE TO MAKE NEW SURVEY FOR MILWAUKEE ROAD

Evident intention of Placing Dispatcher's Office in This City Is Apparent.

Surveyors in the employ of the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul railroad were in the city yesterday surveying the plot of land just east of the depot, and from this move on the part of the officials of the road, it is to be supposed that the proposed addition to the depot for use as a dispatcher's office for the three divisions of the railway which make Janesville a junction point, has been decided upon. Local representatives of the road, however, can volunteer no information on the matter, as they state they have received no information from the company as to its purpose. This is the second visit the surveyors have made to this city, and it would seem to indicate that the railroad company has reached a decision with regard to erecting such a building. It is installed the new dispatcher's office will displace trains between here and Roundout on the Chicago & Milwaukee division; between here and Mineral Point on the Chicago & Milwaukee division; and between here and Davis Junction on the Racine & Southwestern division.

It is rumored that the company is planning a new arrangement for the trains in the morning between 10:15 and 10:50. With five trains arriving and departing from the local station in that space of time, and with but three tracks on which to place them, it is rather inconvenient for the company and for passengers. A new arrangement of trains was tried one day this week, the Milwaukee and Mineral Point train, No. 21 being sent down below the Academy street crossing to give the Chicago-Madison train the third track, was tried, but did not prove satisfactory, and has been discontinued.

Eugene N. Posa.

By capturing the eight delegates-at-large in Massachusetts Governor Eugene N. Posa has broken into the list of presidential possibilities. Had he lost the delegates-at-large he would, of course, have been eliminated. Governor Posa is a progressive Democrat and won out in the governorship race in a rock-ribbed Republican state because his ideas on tariff revision downward were pleasing to the popular mind. Congressman Posa, who is the Governor's brother, is an Illinois Republican.

Creature of Habit.

"Man," didactically began Professor Twigg during a recent session of the Soc Et Tu Um club, "is a creature of habit." "Eh-yah!" granted Old Collier. "Tonnys, my nephew, Canuto J. Hanson, seems to be. He has been run over by the same automobile twice. But then Canuto always comes home down the same lane at about the same hour in the evening, after he has partaken of about the same amount of hard elder."—Puck.

Possible Derivation.

"Words are terribly funny things, aren't they," said Mrs. Jones. "Take the word gargle—how on earth do you suppose they ever got that?" "Very simple, my dear," said Mr. Jones. "Just look at yourself in the glass sometime when you gargle, and then look at a garryole, and you'll see."—Harper's Weekly.

Influence of Feminine Dress.

Few men realize the influence that dress has upon them. Alan, thinks that he is an unbiased being, open to conviction, in sound logic, to unimpeachable argument. Fond delusion! He is open to nothing, except to the eloquence of a few yards of silk and to the persuasion of soft faces.—London Graphic.

Read the Want ads and profit

FAMOUS AMERICAN INDIANS

ALBERT PAYSON TERNUM

JOSEPH BRANT.

A handsome middle-aged Indian, swarthy of skin, but with the dress and manner of a man of fashion, called at Van Cortlandt manor house, New York, one day in the latter part of the eighteenth century. He had come to meet his former foe, Col. Van Cortlandt of the Revolutionary army.

"It is not the first time I have been honored by the sight of you," he observed courteously. "I saw you when we ambushed your regiment. I pointed you out to one of my braves with orders to kill you. He fired and missed. I wished at the time that I had done the shooting myself. But in that case I would have been robbed of the pleasure of this interview."

The speaker who thus mingled courtesy and savagery was Joseph Brant, one of the greatest of Mohawk sachems. His native name was Thavendanegea (meaning "strength"). He was the son of a Mohawk sub-chief and was born on the Ohio river in 1742. His father died when he was a child. Joseph and pretty little sister Molly were brought by their mother to the Mohawk valley in New York.

The "Excellent Youth's" Atrocities. Sir William Johnson—formerly a poor Irish boy and at that time one of the richest landowners in America—was master of vast tracts of Mohawk valley territory and lived there like a feudal lord. He was one of the few colonists whom the fierce Iroquois confederacy loved and trusted. Johnson strengthened his hold over the Indians by marrying Molly Brant—according to Iroquois ceremonials—and by educating her brother, Joseph. The latter's schoolmaster once wrote of Brant: "Joseph is indeed an excellent youth."

The "excellent youth" was destined to become the scourge of the whole countryside. But in his younger years there was no hint of this tendency. As a youth he was already a splendid warrior and wily diplomat. It is true; but he also did much missionary work among the Indians and his influence seemed all for good. He fought gallantly on the side of the English colonies in the French and Indian wars, was later secretary to the Indian superintendent and in 1770 went to England on a diplomatic errand. In London he was a universal favorite and was received with almost royal honors.

Then came the Revolution. The English planned to stir up the murderous Iroquois against the patriots. Sir William Johnson stoutly opposed so treacherous and bloodthirsty a course. But Johnson died at the very outset of the Revolution, and his sons, aided by Brant, persuaded the Iroquois to take the warpath in behalf of Great Britain.

Brant—with the rank of British colonel—led his ferocious braves up and down the Mohawk in a series of atrocious massacres—at Cherry Valley, Minisink and elsewhere—in which neither women nor children were spared. Brant's admirers claim that he was not responsible for the bloodiest of these crimes, but that he was unable to control his men. (It is a matter of record, however, that he was easily able to control them in all other matters.) He commanded the Indians in the battle of Oriskany, August 6, 1779, where gallant General Herkimer was slain and where Brant's craftiness lured the patriot militia into a death trap. The horrors of the Wyoming valley massacre have also—truthfully or not—been laid to the sachem's account. Yet several instances are recorded where he went out of his way to save women, children and defenseless men from the stake or the tomahawk. He was an odd mixture throughout of savage and man of culture.

End of a Strange Career.

When the Revolution was over Brant threw all his energies into the task of calming the Indians and placing them on friendly terms with the government. Crossing to Canada, he secured a tract of land as a home for himself and his people. There for years he ruled the Mohawks with wisdom and justice. He returned to his old plan of doing missionary work among the savages, translating the prayer book and part of the Scriptures into their language and building for them the first church ever erected in Upper Canada.

In 1807, at the age of sixty-five, Joseph Brant died at Wellington square, Canada. "Pretty Theodosia," daughter of Aaron Burr, who once entertained the sachem during a visit to New York, wrote thus quaintly of him: "After all, he was a most Christian and civilized guest in his manners!" (Copyright.)

Wires Saved His Life.

To be suspended head downward for over an hour, 45 feet above a light and power plant was the uncomfortable experience which recently befell a Pittsburgh painter, Abraham Motley. However, he did not grumble at the experience as it probably saved him from death. He was painting a 40-foot stack when the accident happened. While working near the top, he used a little sawing to support himself. Holding his paint bucket on one foot he started to shift his position, but as he turned around, he lost his balance and plunged down head foremost. His body passed through the network of wires of the power plant, but his feet became entangled in them. He was held in this position for an hour before engineers could rescue him.

Oil in Orange River Colony.

Oil discoveries in Orange River colony, Africa, seem important. A broad oil belt stretches across the colony.

MILITANT ENGLISH SUFFRAGETTE IS IN THE HANDS OF FRIENDLY ADVOCATE

Mr. and Mrs. Pechwick Lawrence.

Among the many radiant militant suffragettes in England, Mrs. Pechwick Lawrence stands next to Mrs. Pankhurst as a leader and martyr. She has served her share of time in English prisons, and is famed wherever equal rights are discussed. In her fight she is loyally assisted by her husband. This above was taken as they were leaving an English court. Mr. Lawrence, who is an advocate, was in this case successful in getting his wife off with a light sentence.

GERMAN BALLOONIST NEARLY READY FOR START UPON HIS TRANSATLANTIC VOYAGE.

Dr. Paul Gans.

Dr. Paul Gans, the German aeronaut, is planning to start within a week or two in his dirigible airship, named, on his transatlantic voyage. He will start from the Canary Islands and expects to land somewhere in the West Indies, probably on the island of Barbados. Joseph Trucker, editor of a Chicago German paper, will accompany him.

UNCLE SAM MEETING WITH SUCCESS IN EFFORT TO CIVILIZE THE PHILIPINOS

Igorot Savage before and after entering Philippine Constabulary

Governor Cameron Forbes of the Philippine Islands is now on his way to America to tell of the great work the United States is doing in way to America to tell of the great work the United States is doing in civilizing the Philippine Islands. The above photograph is a remarkable instance of the civilization that has taken place. It shows a Bontoc Igorot, a member of a savage head-hunting tribe, photographed when making application to join the Philippine Constabulary. The other picture shows the "savage" as a member of the Constabulary and one of its most efficient members, one year later.

BRODHEAD

Brodhead, May 9.—Mr. J. B. Oliver went to Janesville Wednesday to attend the funeral of an uncle, Mr. Geddon.

Miss Cora Clarke of Milton, was the guest of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. H. P. Clarke, returned home on Wednesday.

Lois Adams went to Janesville on Wednesday.

E. M. Castator is in Janesville, to attend a meeting of assessors with the income tax assessor.

Mr. and Mrs. P. K. Vance and Mrs. E. M. Lyons went to Janesville Wednesday afternoon to attend the wedding of Miss Mabel Charlton.

Fred Snyder of Footville, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Gifford and daughters, Alice and Florence of Monroe, were in Brodhead Wednesday to attend the funeral of Mr. L. H. Howard.

Clarence Rice is a Janesville visitor. There was no school in Brodhead on Wednesday, on account of Gollmar Bros.' show.

A postponed meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Saturday at the home of Mrs. E. M. Sherman.

Miss Veylan McCart of Evanston, has been spending the past week in Brodhead the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wright.

E. T. Farmer of Janesville, spent Wednesday in Brodhead.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Hoderlak and Messrs. P. Northcraft and J. H. Miller of Juda, were in Brodhead Wednesday.

W. L. Gehr spent Wednesday forenoon in Monroe.

L. W. Perry has just returned from a business trip to Noland, North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. John Busch are planning to leave on a trip to South Dakota soon, on a prospecting tour. They may decide to locate in the west.

Frank Green of Oshkosh, has been in Brodhead the past few days.

Simpson's GARMENT-STORE

Misses and Junior Dresses

You'll find here now a special lot of 100 Sample Dresses from the Junior Dress Co., New York, one of the largest manufacturers in the East. Every garment is finely made and you are assured of perfection of fit and finish. Your taste can be satisfied as to style and price from this assortment. Dresses in Linen, Ratine, Pique and Voiles. Very specially priced at $3.50 to $25.00.

$5.00 Wool Dress Sale

60 Wool Dresses in White and all colors, finely made and finished, formerly priced at $12.50, now offered for quick clearance at $5.00.

Children's Percale and Gingham Dresses

Ages 4 to 15, just the thing for summer wear, cool and comfortable, well made, serviceable and very neat. 50c. to $3.00.

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO MAIL ORDERS.

T. P. BURNS
DRY GOODS & CARPETS
SUITS - COATS - MILLINERY

SPECIAL ATTENTION GIVEN TO MAIL ORDERS.

Dainty New Undermuslins CHIC NEW STYLES FOR SUMMER

GREAT QUANTITIES of fresh, new undermuslins, enough to fill all needs and in a range of styles wide enough to suit all tastes. Practical desirable garments daintily trimmed in styles as pretty as you will want.

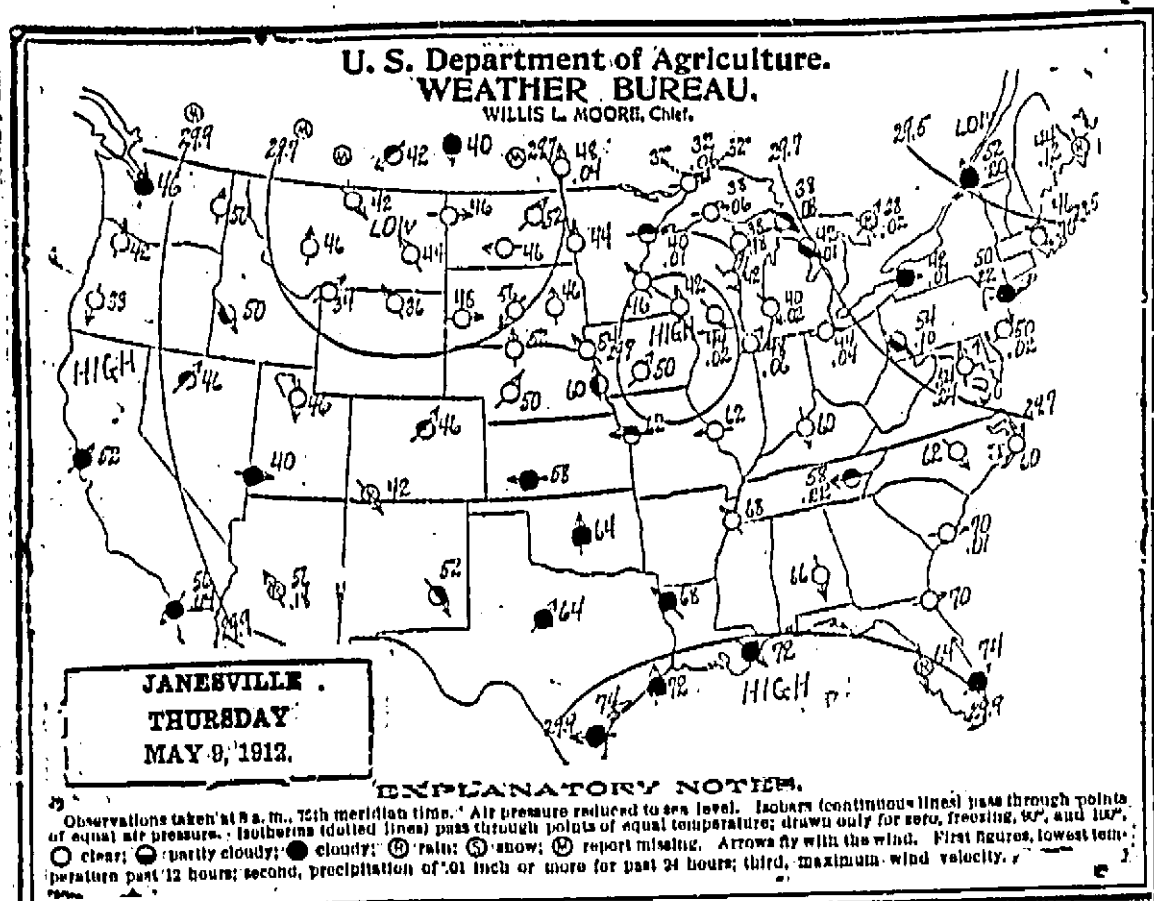

Nicely trimmed, good quality Muslin Drawers, 20c and up
Handsomely trimmed Muslin Gowns, 39c up

Corset Covers, neatly trimmed, 17c and up
Choice line of Princess Slips, $1.00 to $3.50
Muslin Skirts, 50c to $5.00

UNDERWEAR FOR WOMEN DAINY BUT SERVICEABLE

Comfort is always one requirement in Summer Underwear. But here you get more than that. You get style and quality at the same time and best of all at moderate prices. We are showing, without a doubt, the best values in Ladies' Ribbed Underwear, ever offered in Janesville, at 10c, 12 1-2c, 15c, 20c, and 25c, high or low neck, no-sleeve, short sleeve, long sleeve styles.

If interested in Summer Underwear don't fail to see what great values you can get at this store. It's value-giving that counts.

The barometric depression that was passing over Lake Superior yesterday morning is now approaching the Gulf of St. Lawrence. It has continued to be attended by cloudiness and local showers in the East.

A slight ridge of high atmospheric pressure occupies the Central and Southern states, and is accompanied by fair weather today, with slightly lower temperatures.

The barometer is low in the Northwest, and this atmospheric disturbance, while clear in its center, is attended by cloudiness and light local rains in the Southwest. It will probably advance eastward and cause increasing cloudiness and warmer weather Friday, and showery conditions may be expected by Saturday.

NEW PASTOR CALLED TO MILTON CHURCH

Rev. Wm. A. Leighton of Chicago accepts call to become pastor of Congregational Church.

Milton, May 9.—A meeting of the congregation and society of the Congregational church was held on Sunday after the service when a vote was taken regarding a new pastor. The result was that a unanimous call was extended to Rev. William Alexander Leighton of Chicago. A meeting of the trustees was held at the residence of J. C. Goodrich on Monday afternoon, the trustees present being Henry Bowers, Wm. Waterman and J. C. Goodrich. Rev. Leighton was also present and after the trustees had trusted the unanimous decision of the congregation, he resolved to accept the charge.

Mr. Leighton recently secured the nomination of the Anti-Saloon League's candidate for senator in the 29th district in Illinois. He has been prominent in Y. M. C. A. work and held various positions in that organization and others doing work with young men and boys. Organizing Bible classes, clubs, etc., for young men and boys has been a specialty with him.

Imperial Quartet Coming.
The annual commencement concert this year will be given by the Imperial Male Quartet of Chicago, assisted by Alexander J. Spiegel, cellist. These artists are very highly recommended, and we are fortunate indeed in securing them for this concert.

The program will consist of quartets and solos and will be a very attractive one.

Personal Mention.
A. M. Van Horst has sold his meat and grocery business to Harry H. Crandall, who is now in possession.

Miss Ruth Rasmussen has gone to Mayo brothers' hospital at Rochester, Minn., for an operation for colitis. Her mother accompanied her.

Chas. A. Hurnink, an aged veteran residing here, purchased his coffin of Undertaker Kelly yesterday and had it delivered at his home.

Dr. Larson of Madison was the guest of Hon. P. M. Green yesterday. W. L. Crandall has been sick this week.

Miss Alberta Crandall spent yesterday in Chicago.

W. C. T. U. meets with Mrs. H. R. Osborn, Tuesday.

S. D. B. Church.

"That they all may be one." The unity of the followers of Christ. What is it, and how is it secured and maintained? This will be the topic of the Friday night meeting. On Sabbath morning Rev. W. D. Cox, who has been acting superintendent of the Wisconsin Anti-Saloon League for the past few months, will speak.

Richeson's Fiancee in Bowery Mission

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

OHIO CON-CON IS VERY PROGRESSIVE

Miss Violet Edmonds.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

When When Clarence V. T. Richeson, the slayer of Avis Linnell, was condemned to death, it was reported that his fiancée, Violet Edmonds, intended to take a settlement worth $10,000 in some of the more congested districts of New York City. It is now declared, on what seems good authority, that Miss Edmonds has become a worker in the city's Provision House, in Broome street—a Bowery Mission.

FRESHMEN SHOULD REFUSE TO WEAR THE GREEN CAPS

University Professor Gives Advice and States Freshmen Coercion Will Be Abolished.

Madison, May 9.—"You freshmen ought to refuse to wear the green caps altogether. I hope next year's class will abolish the so-called 'tradition,'" said Prof. Louis Kuhlberg of the University of Wisconsin, to his class of five hundred freshmen and sophomores in chemistry today. "All coercion of freshmen will eventually be abolished in the institution," he continued. "We are coming closer to it every year."

OHIO CON-CON IS VERY PROGRESSIVE

Rev. Herbert Bigelow.

The Ohio Constitutional convention, presided over by Rev. Herbert Bigelow of Cincinnati, promises to draft a fundamental law for the state quite as radical as anything that has ever been put up to the people of any middle western state. Mr. Bigelow, who is a believer in direct primaries, the initiative, referendum and recall and women suffrage, is hopeful that all the measures which he favors will be put to a popular vote.

GIRL ROSEN ADMIRER SNAPPED AT CAPITAL

Miss Gladys Hinckley.

Miss Gladys Hinckley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hinckley, of Washington, is the girl who was made famous by the former Russian Ambassador Baron Rosen when he pronounced her the most beautiful girl he had ever seen in America. The above picture of Miss Hinckley was snapped while she was enjoying the horse show, held recently at Washington.

Fine Language.
As a rule the educated native of West Africa, like his Indian brother, loves highbrow language. A clerk some time ago sent a report complaining that the carlines of the police at his station often mislaid; this is how he put it: "It is ridiculous to report that the firearms of the police, when pointed at the firmament, refuse to give explosive sound."—London Saturday Review.

One Instance in His Mind.
She—And you say that you have always avoided blaming me. I'd like to have you mention one instance. He—With pleasure. Remember, right after we were married, I ate a pie you baked, and when the doctor came I told him it was clams.

G. A. R. Veterans at Anaconda.
Anaconda, Mont., May 9.—Anaconda is gayly decorated in the national colors in honor of the annual encampment of the G. A. R., department of Montana, which assembled here today for a three days' session. In connection with the encampment of the veterans will be held the annual meetings of the state organization of Spanish War veterans, the Women's Relief Corps, Ladies of the G. A. R., and other affiliated bodies.

Oklahoma Elks in Session.
Mustang, Okla., May 9.—Members of the order of Elks from every nook and corner of Oklahoma were on hand here today at the opening of the annual convention of their state association. Distinguished representatives of the order in Kansas and Texas also are present as special guests of the convention, which will be in session two days. Arrangements will be made for an unusually large representation from the three states at the national convention to be held in Portland this summer.

EDGERTON ABSESSSED FOR STREET IMPROVEMENTS.
Fulton, Swift and Henry Streets Will be Paved and New Curbing Installed Soon.

(Special to the Gazette.)
Edgerton, May 9.—The street assessment committee has by official publication, made today, notified property owners on Fulton, Swift, and Henry streets that the plans for improving said streets by putting an asphalt filled macadam and cement curbs and gutters have been accepted, the assessment made and that the same are on file in the city clerk's office for inspection. The committee will meet on Tuesday, May 21, in Woodman hall to hear all objections there may be to the proposed improvement. This looks now as though the long looked-for street improvement was coming at last.

News Notes.
Mrs. M. J. Schmidt went to Deloit this morning to spend the day with relatives.

Fred Strasburg and J. M. Richardson are Madison visitors today.

Attorney G. W. Blanchard returned last night from a business trip of a week or more at different points in Montana.

Mrs. John Conn left this morning for her home in Albany, having spent the winter here with her son, J. W. Conn and family.

sliding in the third ward, welcome the arrival of a son into their family circle here Tuesday.

Oscar Hanson and C. E. Wilber of Cambridge, were here yesterday on business making the trip by auto.

Mr. and Mrs. Westman Dickinson left today for Rochester, Minn., where Mrs. Dickinson will consult the Dr. Mayo regarding her ailment.

Rev. O. J. Kvale of Orfordville, Rev. L. B. J. Reus of De Forest, and Rev. J. Linnwood of this city, who conducted the board of visitors of Al-bion academy, visited that institute yesterday.

Mrs. George McElfin and daughter, Lucille of Richland Center are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. B. Lampman.

The Red Wing Work Shoe

will stand rough work. It's the only one guaranteed to stand barn yard wear.

SCHMIDT SHOE STORE

EDGERTON, WIS.

YOU well dressed men who want and can afford to have the best in clothes, hats, haberdashery, really enjoy a great advantage in having, conveniently at hand, such a store and such a stock of merchandise as this.

WE are specialists in high grade merchandise; we deal in no other kind; the smallest, lowest priced article we sell, is so far as it goes, as high grade as the costliest; and we want every man to feel that everything that comes from this store is as good as can be had anywhere at that price.

WITH such a standard of quality in merchandising honestly maintained, our guarantee of satisfaction isn't a favor done to you; it's a necessity to us. We could hardly expect you to believe in our merchandise in this unreserved way if we didn't believe absolutely in it ourselves.

Kuppenheimer's A Young Man's Store

SUPERLATIVE values at $20 and $25. The remarkable values we get into these suits at $20 and $25 is really surprising to men who know most about clothes; the better you are posted the greater will be your surprise. We'd be glad to have the whole store judged by these values. All sizes, long, short, stout, thin, all taken care of. The best tailoring and finest weaves possible at $20 and $25. It'll pay you to know 'em.

A SHOP for young men; styles you won't see anywhere else; materials not to be had outside this store. The shapes are carefully studied, the measurements and lines planned for the free, athletic movements of the stalwart young figure. Shoulders, chest, waist, hips, back, these clothes are anatomy developers and exponents; constructed in accordance with your own ideas. $15, $18, $20 and $25.

Boys' Indian Suits

JUST the thing the boy wants; and just the thing he ought to have. They're made of strong khaki or brown duck built to wear against hard service. Ideal summer costumes. $1 each. Policeman and fireman suits, $1.50. Cowboy chaps, $1.50

R. M. Bostwick & Son

Merchants of Fine Clothes.

Main Street at No. 16 South

TODAY'S EVANSVILLE NEWS

Evansville, May 8.—Mr. and Mrs. Peasall, Mr. and Mrs. Grabb, E. A. Baker and wife, Professors E. O. Evans and Waddell, and the Misses Wallace, Jacobson, Hatch and Waddell attended the performance of Madame Cindak at Deloit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lemmel have gone to First Lake to put their cottages into condition for camping later on. Mr. Lemmel will put down a well and put a soft water supply tank into the larger of the cottages.

Chas. Doellittle made a business trip to Chicago, Wednesday.

Miss Maud Weaver visited Miss Esther Nordman's school in Dist. No. 7, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Levier, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. George Pullen, has returned to her home in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Pullen, Miss Dulcie Spencer and Mrs. Gertrude Enger went to Chicago, Wednesday, for a couple of days' visit.

Mrs. Chas. Weaver seems to be in a little more hopeful condition today. Her sister, Mrs. B. J. Dennis of New York, is expected to arrive here tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Davis attended the funeral of Mrs. Julia Drummond at Janesville, Tuesday. Mrs. Drummond died Sunday morning at one o'clock. She had relatives and acquaintances in this city.

Willie Dacker and Wm. Benson made a trip to Milwaukee the last of the week.

J. P. Porter was a Madison visitor on Wednesday.

Miss Ella Butte is clerking in the grocery department of the Grand store.

Mr. and Mrs. Grabb, E. A. Baker and wife, Professors E. O. Evans and Waddell, and the Misses Wallace, Jacobson, Hatch and Waddell attended the performance of Madame Cindak at Deloit.

Mr. and Mrs. John Lemmel have gone to First Lake to put their cottages into condition for camping later on. Mr. Lemmel will put down a well and put a soft water supply tank into the larger of the cottages.

Chas. Doellittle made a business trip to Chicago, Wednesday.

Miss Maud Weaver visited Miss Esther Nordman's school in Dist. No. 7, on Wednesday.

Mrs. Levier, who has been the guest of her cousin, Mrs. George Pullen, has returned to her home in Milwaukee.

Mrs. Pullen, Miss Dulcie Spencer and Mrs. Gertrude Enger went to Chicago, Wednesday, for a couple of days' visit.

Mrs. Chas. Weaver seems to be in a little more hopeful condition today. Her sister, Mrs. B. J. Dennis of New York, is expected to arrive here tonight.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Davis attended the funeral of Mrs. Julia Drummond at Janesville, Tuesday. Mrs. Drummond died Sunday morning at one o'clock. She had relatives and acquaintances in this city.

Willie Dacker and Wm. Benson made a trip to Milwaukee the last of the week.

J. P. Porter was a Madison visitor on Wednesday.

Miss Ella Butte is clerking in the grocery department of the Grand store.

Frank Gardner finished his engagement with the Evansville Mercantile association, Wednesday.

Maud Weaver and Esther Nordman expect to go to Janesville Friday evening to attend a lecture.

Mrs. David Dixon has gone to Aus-

CRYSTAL THEATRE

Evansville, Wis.

TONIGHT, MAY 9th.

Two big western features, "The Justice of the Sage," "The Signal Code."

Big comedy, "Come for Two."

8c and 10c.

LIVE STOCK MARKET GENERALLY STEADY

Few Changes Noted in Price Quotations on Chicago Market This Morning.

Chicago, May 9.—There was little change in the livestock market this morning, most of the offerings selling at yesterday's average of prices. Cattle were steady with receipts at 2,500. The hog market had a tendency toward weakness, while sheep were in better demand. The price list is as follows:

Cattle.
Cattle receipts—2,500.
Market—Steady.
Beef—1.00@1.05.
Texas steers—5.40@7.25.
Western steers—5.75@7.50.
Stockers and feeders—4.20@6.00.
Cows and heifers—2.75@7.75.
Calves—5.00@7.75.
Hogs.
Hog receipts—16,000.
Market—Steady, at yesterday's prices.
Light—7.50@7.80.
Mixed—7.40@7.90.
Heavy—7.40@7.95.
Bunch—7.40@7.50.
Pigs—5.00@7.05.
Bulk of sales—7.55@7.85.
Sheep.
Sheep receipts—9,000.
Market—Steady; strong.
Native—4.45@7.50.
Western—5.00@7.55.
Yearlings—6.00@8.30.
Lamb, native—5.90@9.00.
Lamb, western—6.25@9.05.

Butter.
Butter—Steady.
Creamery—20@25.
Dairy—23@27.
Eggs.
Eggs—Steady.
Receipts—25,507 cases.
Canned at market, cases included 17½.
First, ordinary—16½.
First, prime—18.
Cheese.
Cheese—Steady.
Daisies—15½.
Twins—15½.
Young Americans—15½.
Long Horns—15½.
Potatoes.
Potatoes—Firm.
Receipts—52 cars.
Wisconsin potatoes—120@125.
Minnesota potatoes—125@128.
Michigan potatoes—125@128.
Poultry, live—Steady.

Poultry.
Poultry, live—Steady.
Turkeys—12.
Chickens—11.
Veal.
Veal—Steady.
50 to 60 lb. wt.—7@12.

CHICAGO GRAIN MARKET

Wheat.
May—Opening 118; high 118; low 117½; closing 118.
July—Opening 113½; high 114½; low 113½; closing 114½.
Corn.
May—Opening 80¾; high 81½; low 80¾; closing 81½.
July—Opening 77½; high 78½; low 77½; closing 77½.
Oats.
May—Opening 58; high 58½; low 58; closing 58.
July—Opening 54½; high 54½; low 54½; closing 54½.
Rye.
Rye—56½.
Barley.
Barley—75@132.

JANESVILLE WHOLESALE MARKETS.
Janesville, Wis., May 9, 1912.
Feed.
Oil meal—$2.10@2.25 per 100 lbs.
Oats, Hay, Straw.
Straw—$7.50@8.00.
Dried and Loose Hay—$18@24.
Hay—00 lbs., 90c.
Barley—60 lbs., 90c@1.00.
Horn—$1.40@1.45.
Middlings—$1.45@1.55.
Oats—00c bushel.
Corn—$18@24.
Poultry Markets.
Turkeys—15c lb.
Hens—10c lb.
Springers—10c lb.
Old Roosters—8c lb.
Ducks—11c lb.
Hogs.
Different grades—$5.50@6.00.
Steers and Cows.
Veal—$8.50@9.00.
Beef—$3.50@3.50.
Sheep.
Mutton—$4.00@4.50.
Lamb, light—$4.00.
Butter and Eggs.
Creamery—41c.
Dairy—24c@29c.
Eggs—10c@17c.
Vegetables.
Potatoes—$1.00 bushel.
Carrots—7c lb.
Parsnips—60c bushel.
Beets—60c bushel.
Rutabagas—60c bushel.
Purple Top Turnips—60c bushel.

Fresh Carrots—5c bunch.
Parsnips—2c lb.
Potatoes—$1.20@1.35 bushel.
New Potatoes—7c lb.
Sweet Potatoes—7c lb.
Squash—15c.
Brussels Sprouts—3c lb.
Cauliflower—12c@20c.
Sugar Leaf Cabbage—8c lb.
Lettuce—5c bunch.
Head Lettuce—7c@10c head.
Celery—5c, 8c bunch.
Parsley—5c bunch.
Rutabagas—2c lb.
Radishes—Round, 5c; long white, 6c.
Long Radishes—5c bunch.
Turnips—5c bunch.
Yellow String Beans—15c lb.
Green String Beans—18c lb.
Chives—5c bunch.
Endives—8c each.
Kohl Rabi—10c.
Brussels Sprouts—22c box.
Cucumbers—5c, 13c, 2 for 25c.
Fresh Tomatoes—15c lb.
H. G. Pie Plant—5c bunch.
Fresh Spinach—13c, 2 for 25c.
Green Onions—2 bunches 5c.
Shallots—10c bunch.
Spanish Onions—8c@10c.
Green Peppers—5c each.
Vegetable Onions—5c bunch.
H. G. Watercress—5c bunch.
Green Peas—10c lb.

Fresh Fruit.
Apples—Hudson, 5c@6c lb.; Ben Davis, 5c lb.; Black Twig, 7c lb.; Whinsaps, 5c, 6 for 25c.
Apples, box—$1.75@2.75.
Cranberries—12c@16c lb.
Lemons, doz.—10c@20c.
Red Currants—30c dozen.
Imported Malaga—20c lb.
Lemons, doz.—30c.
Grape Fruit—10c, 15c.
Naval Oranges—25c@45c dozen.
Pineapples—15c@25c.
Florida Oranges—15c@45c dozen, large size 5c each, 50c doz.
Florida Navel—45c doz.
Strawberries—10c box.
Butter and Eggs.
Creamery—41c.
Dairy—29c@32c.
Eggs—18c@20c.
Butterline—18c@21c.
Flour, Nuts and Popcorn.
Flour, per sack—$1.45@1.70.
Rye Flour—30c@70c per sack.
Popcorn, shelled—7c lb., 4 for 25c.
Popcorn on cob—5c lb., 6 lbs, 25c.
Corn meal—10 lb. sk., 25c, 30c, 35c; 12 lb. sack, 55c; 6 lb. sack whole wheat, 30c.
Hickory Nuts—5c@7c lb., 50c pk.
English Walnuts—20c lb.
Black Walnuts—30c@35c pk., $1.00 bushel.
Chestnuts—15c@23c lb.
Brazil—15c lb.
Almonds—20c lb.
Pistachios—20c lb.
Pecans—15c@18c.
Popcorn—5c lb.
Honey, comb—22c.
Honey, strained—quarts, 50c; pint, 30c; six-ounce, 15c.

ELGIN BUTTER QUOTED AT THIRTY CENTS TODAY.
(BY ASSOCIATED PRESS.)
Elgin, Ill., May 8.—Butter firm, thirty cents.

GOVERNOR WILSON HAS YOUNG MANAGER
William F. McCombs, the youngest man who ever managed a national campaign, is heading the movement to win the Democratic presidential nomination for Governor Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey. After graduating from Princeton University and Harvard Law school, Mr. McCombs entered political work in New York City and has since gained a national reputation as a lawyer and as a member of the National Democratic club. Mr. McCombs' faith in Wilson's cause is so strong that, for the present, he has put his law practice aside and is giving his entire time to the management of the campaign he has inaugurated.

Nothing in a Name.
Mrs. Nowed—"John, dear, that grocer at the corner swindled me." Nowed—"How was that?" Mrs. Nowed—"I bought some bacon of him this morning, and it wouldn't bake at all."

See value of Publicity.
Various means of securing publicity are being employed to a greater and greater extent in New York by the preachers who wish to secure larger audiences.

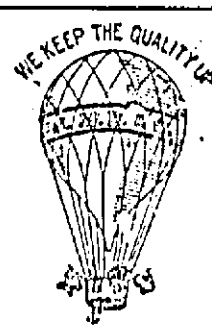

E. M. Markham, 521 W. Mill St., Winona, Minn., was cured of a severe case of kidney trouble and says: "My kidney action was too frequent, and I lost much sleep by it. I could not even carry a small load. I took Foley Kidney Pills and they first gave great relief and then cured me. I gladly recommend them for what they did for me." Badger Drug Co.

HARNESS
Buy your harness direct from the manufacturer and save the middleman's profit.
T. R. COSTIGAN
Corn Exchange.

FRESH VEGETABLES DOMINATE MARKETS
Large Quantities of Both Home-grown and Shipped-in Vegetables Are Offered Today.

Fresh vegetables of different kinds still dominate the local markets and hold the principal place in the display windows of the dealers. Fresh spinach sells at 12c a pound today, and two pounds for 25c. Mushrooms have been offered in various quantities at the different stores for a week or so at numerous prices. The home-grown asparagus has entirely displaced the imported, being of much better quality, although slightly higher in price. Fine lots of oranges and bananas are shown on the fruit markets, grapefruit having almost disappeared and the trade in it having about stopped. Today's markets are as follows:

Vegetables.
Asparagus, H. G.—10c; white 10c.
Carrots—2c lb.

Quality considered
you pay less.
Bostwick since 1856.

Our great Daylight
Carpet and Curtain department covers the entire second floor.

J.M. BOSTWICK & SONS.

Visit our second floor. We can save you money on your Curtain and Carpet purchases.

Quality considered
you pay less.
Bostwick since 1856.

FRIDAY MORNING, MAY 10th

We Inaugurate a

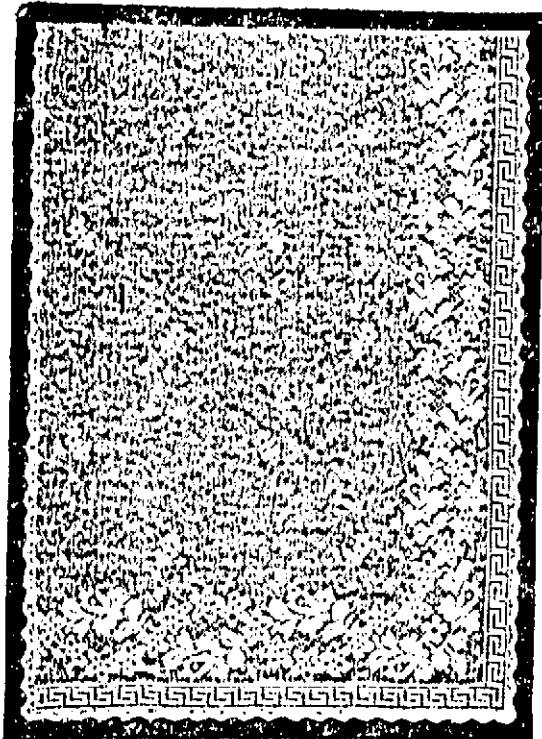

Big Sale of Rugs and Curtains

SALE TO CONTINUE UNTIL MAY 18th

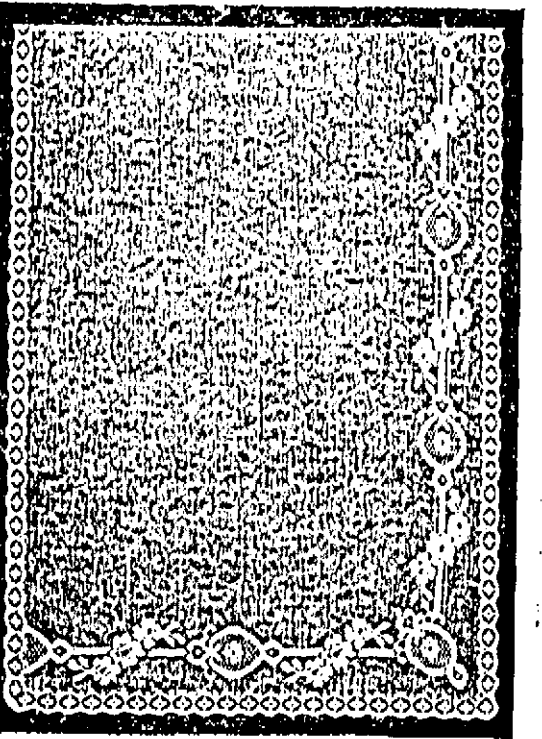

NO. 807 A.

This handsome bordered Lace Curtain with plain center, is a wonderful curtain at a remarkably low price; comes in Arabian color; 40 inches wide, 2½ yds. long, pair 68c.

NO. 817.

One of the biggest values ever offered in Nottingham Lace Curtains; made of strong yarns, is full 50 inches wide and 3 yards long, makes a very pretty and attractive curtain; comes in white only; pair 89c.

NO. 818 A.

Note the unusually attractive design in this curtain, the net is well made and very strong, and would be considered very cheap in most stores at 50c; more than we ask, 40 inches wide and 2½ yards long, comes in Arabian color; pair $1.00.

Lace Curtains and Nets at Wholesale Prices

We have assembled for our spring trade, the greatest showing of special values ever offered in this city. It is a golden opportunity for housekeepers to buy the newest 1912 spring styles at a great saving over regular retail prices. All the best markets have been searched to bring together the best values, most durable qualities and the latest designs for your selection. Every picture shown here is an exact photograph of the curtain and if you are unable to come to the store, you can order by number and be sure of getting exactly the same curtain as you selected.

Curtain Nets

ONE LOT, 45-inch nets, made of strong Scotch yarns, comes in white and Arabian colors, actually worth 25c yard; special for, yard 15c.

CURTAIN NETS, in the new ivory, two tone and Arabian colors, comes in beautiful imported designs, that would dress the windows of any home; comes 45 inches wide; price, yd. 29c.

CURTAIN SCRIMS in handsome designs in all the new colors, launder well and are reversible; 40 inches wide; values up to 25c qualities; yard 19c.

CURTAIN VOILES, a very fine curtain scrim called voile, in the latest colors; these materials are sold everywhere 35c to 40c yard; special, yard 29c.

Tapestry Brussels Rugs

9x12 Heavy Tapestry Brussels, seamed and seamless, full 9 wires are included, come in Oriental, floral and conventional designs, big selection to choose from; each $10.40.

HEAVIEST BRUSSELS RUGS—SEAMLESS.

The heaviest Tapestry Brussels Rugs manufactured in the new 1912 patterns, handsome colorings, an extraordinary value at the regular price of $20.00; special for $16.85.

Axminster Rugs

9x12 size, $20.00 value, for $14.75.

AXMINSTER RUGS—The best quality Axminster Rugs from the foremost makers; a rug noted for its wear and rich, permanent colors; regular price $25.00; size 9x12; $19.75.

AXMINSTER RUGS—200 Axminster Rugs, in 10 different patterns, size 27x54, take your pick at, each $1.59.

Seamless Velvet Rugs

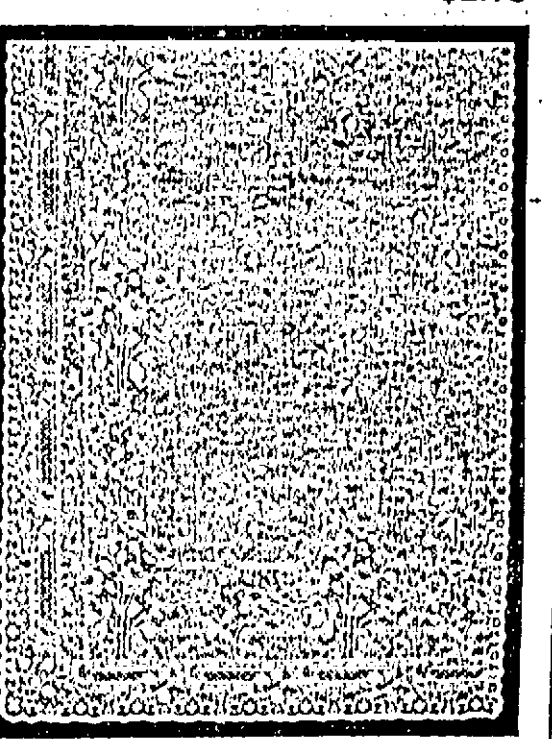

Extra heavy Seamless Velvet Rugs, all new designs, an unusual bargain for Friday and Saturday only $14.75. Size, 9x12.

Some people do realize while others have not come to a full realization of what a Great Room The Big Store devotes to the Carpet and Curtain Departments. It compares favorably with the BEST in the entire state. Such excellent light.

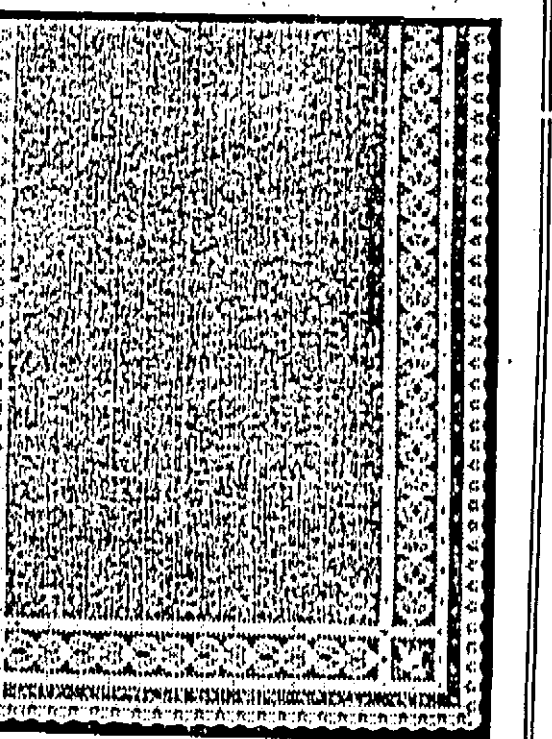

NO. 833.

This Lace Curtain actually shows more for the money than any other lace curtain on the market, and must be seen to be appreciated. For style and finish it is hard to equal; 52 inches wide and 3 yards long; comes in white; pair $1.78.

NO. 840 I.

Lay down $3.50 in any store in the country and you won't be able to buy a pair of Scotch Net Curtains superior to these. We stake our reputation on the value of these curtains and they easily defy all competition; 52 inches wide and 3 yds. long; comes in the new ivory tint; price, pair $2.38.

NO. 852.

This extra fine Madras Weave Lace Curtain is made very attractive by the special weaving, bringing out the fine qualities of the Egyptian yarns; the net is woven very close, to insure durability, comes in the new ivory color, 52 inches wide and 3 yards long; special price pair $3.25.

WOMAN'S PAGE

HEART AND HOME TALKS
BY BARBARA BOYD

Seeing With the Maid's Eyes

HERE are portents that the solution of the servant girl problem is on the way.

Here and there all over the country, one hears of college girls who after graduation, instead of leading the butterfly life of the society girl, take up some of the social work of the day. One of these, the daughter of a millionaire, has been going out as cook and scrub-woman, and doing various other work of this kind, in order to get the maid's point of view. She has done the actual work, too. Her mother has been mere superficial observation. She cooked and scrubbed floors and washed dishes, and she knows how long it takes to do such work, how taxing it is upon the strength, how dreary and monotonous, if kept at continuously. She is prominent in club work. Her mother is president of a suffrage society, and the report of this girl will be listened to by women who are active in the forward work of the day, and who are accomplishing things.

In one of the largest girls' colleges, a number of the girls have taken complete charge of one of the large halls in which the students live, and are running it on the co-operative plan. The girls are doing all the work themselves, and after a year of these household tasks, they will go forth very well fitted to know what should be expected of a maid, to understand the monotony of the work, if unrelieved in any way, and to undertake the solution of the domestic service problem from a trained and sensible and humanitarian standpoint.

And when forces like these tackle it, the solution of it will not be far off. For once it is put on a business-like basis, business-like women will come into the work. But now with all sorts of hours of work, all sorts of conditions under which to work, and no escape from being at the mercy of the whims of the mistress, and perhaps of the master and children of the household, women of ability will have none of it.

But when trained, intelligent and broad-minded women take hold of the problem, and work it out, not from a groundwork of mere theory, but from actual experience of what such work is, what it requires, what its drawbacks are, it will immediately be put on a different plane. It will be systematized. It will be lightened as much as possible. The value of labor-saving helps will be seen. All that science has brought to aid in this field of labor will be utilized. It will become a different proposition from start to finish. And as such it will appeal to a very different class of workers from what it does today.

We all know the reasons that are given by the very class of workers we want for not working in the home,—long and uncertain hours, uncomfortable rooms, loss of social prestige, no place to entertain friends, and so on. These are all good and valid reasons. Yet we do nothing to overcome them. Here and there, a mistress will do so, but this does not remove the objections from the work as a whole. It is still under a cloud.

But these college graduates who are coming out with practical experience of what domestic service means, these other women all over the country who are working out social problems, will take hold of this question from a very different viewpoint from what it has ever been studied before. And the signs are hopeful that it will be quickly and satisfactorily solved.

Barbara Boyd.

HOUSEHOLD TALKS
by Henrietta
D. Grauel

Vegetable foods include the cereals, legumes and tubers, roots and bulbs, green vegetation and vegetable fruits and flowers. Of the whole list the cereals are the most valuable, including as they do the grains from which the bread of nearly all the world is made, but rice and corn are the cereals not commonly referred to in lists of vegetables.

Legumes all belong to the pulse family and the edible portion is in the shape of a good pod usually and though there are many thousand species only a few kinds are used on the table, beans, peas and lentils being the ones most in use. All legumes are rich in nitrogenous matter and if properly cooked and consumed in reasonable quantities may to some extent replace a portion of meat in the daily diet. There is scarcely any fat in the leguminous foods, so oil or some fat is wisely added.

When green beans, peas and tender legumes have been removed from their pods they should be cooked gently in simmering water, but when the pods and all are used they should be boiled rapidly.

When green peas and beans, etc., have grown a little old, but must be cooked, a tiny pinch of soda will make them tender if added to the water they are boiled in and it helps to retain their bright green color.

All green vegetables should be cooked in uncovered pans. Vegetables are blanched when cooking to remove the strong acid taste; this process is sometimes called "parboiling." With very old, strong flavored tubers, vegetables the water is often changed several times in the cooking process.

To boil cabbage or cauliflower, select small heads of these vegetables, rather than large ones, as they will be more delicately flavored. The cabbage should be cut in quarters and soaked for an hour in salt water. Put in the cabbage and cook briskly without covering from thirty to forty minutes, according to the age of the cabbage. When cooking open the kitchen windows at the top and there will be no noticeable odor. Drain and chop the cabbage and to every pint of the cooked vegetable add a tablespoon of butter and add more salt if it requires it and pepper to suit taste. Cooked thus, cabbage will be tender and full of flavor and will not longer be considered a coarse vegetable.

When pork is to be cooked with cabbage put the meat to cook first and when it is commencing to grow tender add the cabbage. All the above applies to cauliflower except the latter is never quartered when put to cook and its flavor is so delicate that the water need not be changed during cooking. The time of cooking this lovely vegetable should never exceed thirty minutes. It may be served with a very rich white sauce or with only drawn butter.

THE PROOF OF THE PUDDING
BY DOROTHY DALL

A mother wished to know why men instinctively consider women inferior. She decided her nine-year-old son would probably give a less childlike but more enlightening answer than her husband.

"Why wouldn't you like to be a girl?" she asked.

"Girls can't box and take care of themselves," came the prompt answer.

"But they could if they would learn," said the mother.

"But they don't," came back decidedly.

"The small boy hit the nail on the head. There wouldn't be so many toughs an' thuggerers and 'hold-up' men if the boys wasn't so easy. This was shown by a young woman recently graduated from Bryn Mawr when a taxicab driver became insolent last week.

The young woman, Mrs. W. A. Beckingham, Chicago, called a taxicab to drive her to the theatre. The driver took $3.50 from the five-dollar bill she offered instead of $2.50 due. Mrs. Beckingham remarked to the driver, "You are started to drive off. Then a pair of slender, white-gloved hands shut off his power, grabbed him by the collar and jerked him to the pavement where they held him till a policeman came. All of which goes to indicate that one bold-up man will have more respect in future for that half of humanity that wears six button gloves instead of one buttoned ones.

Did you ever think of your unfairness in giving your boy encouragement and chance to take care of himself while withholding it from your daughter, who may need it more? No (she is so protected that she may always be safe from harm. An incident at Vassar College where the grounds are carefully patrolled by plain clothes men shows how great her need of courage and physical strength behind it can be.

A student was hurrying alone through one of the sheltered pine walks in the dusk near the dinner hour. Suddenly a man stepped out from the shadows and accosted her. No one was in sight. But instead of lauding the training she happened to have had made him battle like a champion. She succeeded in beating her assailant off.

Students at the chapel later were told of the struggle. And as they went out with that "Only her physical ability and strength saved your fellow student from harm" speech, ringing in their ears, there wasn't a girl who didn't want to make full use of gymnastics, boxing and swimming tank to develop the muscles of her legs and arms as well as of her arms and her torso to strengthen the fibres in her erector spinae.

All girls can develop by very simple means a strength that is surprising. They are no more barred from becoming expert physically than small men. Jimmy Michael is a good example. His leg muscles drove the wheels of a bicycle faster than any man in the world, yet he weighed under one hundred pounds. Kid McCoy, pugilist, is another example. He could accomplish with his agility what heavier fighters would have been glad to do.

The Japanese are of the finest people in the world. The thousands of the blessed, Manchuria went to the strongest.

It was just as the little boy said, it's not that the girls can't box and take care of themselves. It's that they do not. At least exceptions are so rare that when one does defend her self it's considered the twentieth century miracle.

The KITCHEN CABINET

WISDOM in the man, patience in the wife, being peace in the house.

Change is the sauce that sharpens appetite.

SOME DESSERTS TO TRY.

A delicious and simple dessert, not expensive, is—

Apple Snow.—Peel and grate two large sour apples, sprinkling over it a cup of powdered sugar as you grate it, to keep the apple from turning dark. Break into this the whites of two eggs and beat for thirty minutes. This will fill a large dish. Serve with a custard poured around it.

Custard.—Cook together until thick a cup of sugar and the juice of cold water, cool and add a cup of cold water. Pour this over a few prunes, a banana and an orange or two. Any combination of fruit liked may be used.

Fruit Pudding.—Dissolve three-fourths of a box of gelatin in half a pint of cold water, then add one-half pint of boiling water, the juice of two lemons and two cups of sugar. Strain and let stand until it begins to thicken. Stir in two bananas, two oranges, six figs and ten walnut meats. Put into a mold to harden.

Pineapple Whip.—Add one-half cup of powdered sugar and the juice of half a lemon to one can of grated pineapple. Beat the whites of two eggs stiff and add to the first mixture. Fold in a cup of whipped cream. Chill and serve.

Strawberry Ice Cream.—Mash a quart of clean, fresh strawberries, add a cup of sugar, squeeze through a cloth, add a pint of cream, a pinch of salt, and freeze.

Fig Dessert.—Take a pound of figs, add water and simmer slowly until very tender, sweeten to taste and add a little lemon juice to lighten the flavor and serve when cold with whipped cream.

Nellie Maxwell.

Origin of Common Word.

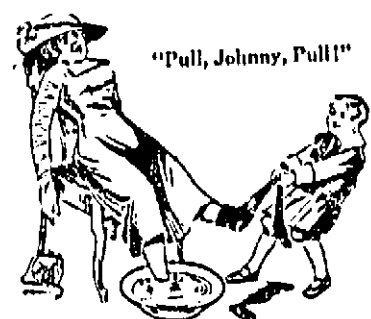

"Wool" is a contraction of "wool not," and the only form in which "wool" for "will" still survives. Shakespeare, however, could make Hamlet say: "Woe't drink up evil, eat a crocodile?"—and most of the contemporary audience must have known that "wool" represented "wool."

So Tired of Tired

Feet! Use TIZ

Gets the "Tired" Out in a Few Minutes. Makes Your Feet Sore-Proof.

"So tired! It's awful how tired feet make you feel tired all over—so dead tired. Then, when you've got a new feeling, and a better one, and a few minutes, and your feet are terribly swollen, you don't care if you've got a million dollars—you're tired, that's all. A million dollars can't help you, any more than 25 cents will. A quarter buys a box of TIZ—a wonder for tired, sore, tender, chafed, corned, swollen, aching, stinging feet, corns, calluses and bunions. Rub it on, and you'll get a relief, and then you'll smile. There's nothing as good as TIZ, so don't accept any attempted imitation. TIZ draws out all the poisonous excretions that make feet trouble.

TIZ, 25 cents a box, sold everywhere, or sent direct, on receipt of price, by Walter Lathrop Dodge & Co., Chicago, Ill. Recommended by all Druggists, Department and general stores.

The Evening Chit-Chat
BY RUTH CAMERON

ONE WAY TO MAKE A BOY TIDY.
TWO MOTHERS were comparing notes on the habits of their two sons.

Said one mother with a sigh: "Oh, I do wish Philip were as tidy as your boy. I never saw anything neater than your boy's room. And those dainty curtains and that nice rug. I shouldn't any more dare have things like that in Philip's room. They'd be ruined in no time. Why Philip—"

For several minutes the other mother listened to a catalog of Philip's sins of untidiness—how he tracked mud into his room, put his feet upon the chairs, kept his bureau perpetually littered, his shoes scattered about the room and his clothes draped over the furniture. Finally, at a slight pause, she murmured to put in, "Mark used to be just like that."

"Why I thought he was naturally orderly," "Oh, certainly he was. His room used to be as neat as a pin. I thought I'd lecture him at least every day, but it didn't do the slightest good."

Well, what on earth did you do then?" Mark's mother smiled. "You know you just spoke of the dainty curtains and nice rug in the secret room," she said. "Well, they are part of the secret. You thought I put them there because Mark was neat and careful. As a matter of fact, it's more the other way around. He is neat and careful because they are there."

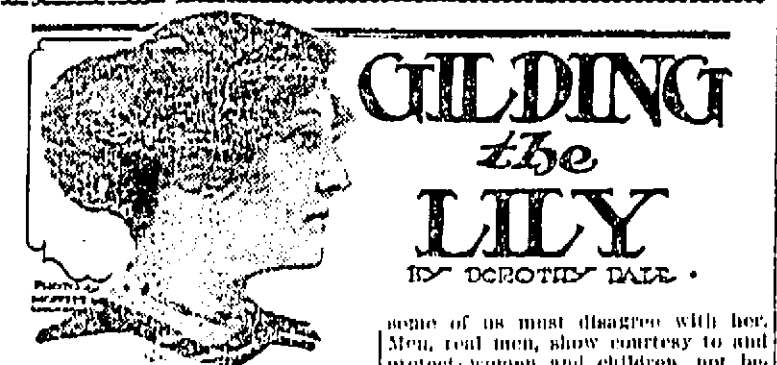

"You see, I went up into my boy's room one morning in such a state of disorder that I was really discouraged. He ought to live in the bureau instead of the house," I said to myself. And then, as I cleaned it, somehow I got to thinking, and I looked around the room and realized it wasn't so unlike a barn either. I had had the girls' room papered twice since his was done because I thought a boy didn't care. And yet, that paper was dirty and faded and altogether hideous. Instead of the pretty hangings like the rest of the house, I had put cheap sack curtains in his room. The carpet was threadbare, the furniture was cheap and old. In fact, I realized that there was really nothing to inspire the boy with a desire to keep the place neat and tidy."

"My husband and I had a conference that night, and the next day I started to make Mark's room as pretty as the girls'. And positively it hurt me to see how pleased he was. You see, I had always been foolish enough to think that boys didn't care. Well, to make a long story short, Mark lives up to his room now just as he lived down to it before. Of course the change didn't come all at once—that was four years ago—but you can see it's pretty complete now."

"Yes, I've certainly learned that the best way to develop responsibility and pride in children is to give them something to be responsible and proud about. It is no more work than fretting and scolding all the time, and it is certainly a more pleasant method and one that brings more results."

"I wonder," said Philip's mother dubiously, "if that would ever work with Philip?"

"There's one very good way to find out," said the wiser lady briskly.

GILDING the LILY
BY DOROTHY DALL

Sometimes we want justice so badly that we don't realize how far we are tipping the scales in our own direction. Isn't there a good deal of unfair tilting now that women are beginning to get some of their human rights?

Dr. Anna Shaw, a leading suffragist, has been arguing in Boston against the old law of the sea, "Women and children first." "While the men acted from the loftiest motives in the Titanic disaster and no word of praise is too great for their sacrifice women do not want a standard which sets her apart," she said.

With all respect for Dr. Anna Shaw, some of us must disagree with her. Men, real men, show courtesy to and protect women and children, not because of any "standard," but because it's a part of their natures. And women accept that courtesy and protection and look for it because it is a part of their natures to look for it. One of the arguments everlastingly being brought up is whether a man should give his seat in a car to a woman. Men argue "Equal disadvantages with equal rights" for women. But they are going right on giving up their seats when every state gives women a vote just as they do now. provided anybody has to stand. The chances are that then no one will have to stand because women, who naturally look after details more than men do, will compel the use of enough

Heart and Home Problems
by
MRS. ELIZABETH THOMPSON

Dear Mrs. Thompson: I am running an elevator. If a man is in the elevator and a lady gets on, is it proper for the man to remove his hat? SLM JIM.

It is not only proper, but courteous, for men to remove their hats in elevators when ladies are present. Unfortunately the custom is not much followed outside of hotels.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: (1. If a girl is in high school, is it proper for her to write notes to boys? How should salutations be worded in writing to a boy friend? (2) Is it a boy's place, or a girl's, to speak first? (3) If a girl meets a boy on the street and he stops to talk with her, but does not attempt to walk in her direction, should the girl invite him to walk home with her? S. H. H. S.

(1)—High school girls should have little occasion to write to boys, and should send notes only in reply to invitations to boys and girl gatherings, and for similar reasons. The salutation might well be "Dear friend John." (2)—The girl should be first to speak. (3)—If the boy and girl are school friends and well acquainted, the latter might suggest their walking together for a little way. It would hardly be necessary or appropriate to ask the boy to walk all the way home with her.

Dear Mrs. Thompson: My husband is a travelling man, and is often away six or eight weeks at a time. He almost always writes to me, three or four times a week, but lately he has not been so regular. It is now ten days since I have heard from him. Neighbors tell me I had better keep an eye on him. I am very much worried, and would like your advice. KATE.

Don't pay too much attention to what the neighbors say. At the same time, it might be well to take your husband to task when he comes home again. Don't be hysterical or unreasonable, but let him understand that you are not to be imposed upon. Perhaps he has been too busy to write.

New York Medical Societies. There are 45 medical societies in New York city.

Men may be strong as steel. But women are as strong as attraction. And there isn't any steel cable that anybody knows of strong enough to pull the vectors of the earth as simple attraction does. Why want to change?

Voting is simply a human right for the adult. No one can read anything more into it or out of it. It cannot change men and women, but it can put them to work, and there's a lot to do.

Suppose a woman can go out and earn as much as her husband. Many can. But does that make her like him? Or will it make her take on the work of providing for their family and deprive him of the pleasure of doing it?

Just watch the woman who has supported her child and see. She knows the thrill a little voice asking for "ballooning skates," or "Doll's hair that really curls," sweet with the confidence that she can manage anything, gives. She'd be the last person in the world to take that from a father.

All this trying to make men and women allies is the veriest nonsense. Men aren't alike. When Martin Luther, the volcanic, stirred up the fires of the Reformation it was his friend Melancthon, the gentle, who soothed and smoothed the way and saved the university seeds that helped reform as much as any wars.

and what a disappointment it is to find that though you are young, your hair is beginning to turn gray—that you are surely going to look old before your time.

Don't wait for any more gray hairs to come—get a bottle of HAY'S HAIR HEALTH today. Start in now and use it regularly.

Those gray hairs will soon disappear—be restored to their natural color and stay so. HAY'S HAIR HEALTH will keep you looking young.

$1.00 and 50c at Drug Stores or direct upon receipt of price and dealers name. Send the for trial bottle. Philo Hay Spec. Co., Newark, N. J. SMITH DRUG CO., McGEE & BURS, BAKER, SHERER, BACDER, DRUG CO., PEOPLE'S DRUG CO.

Demonstration of Pillsbury's Best Flour

Baking done in an electric oven.

Get a sack of Pillsbury's Best Flour, a cook book and a pin cushion.

ALL FREE.

DO NOT MISS IT

A. C. CAMPBELL,

309 PARK AVENUE,

FRIDAY, MAY 10th

Bake Your Bread In Union Cookery Bags

OF COURSE you make good bread—the best that can be made in the ordinary way, with just a pan in the oven. And the more you can make your bread, the more you are pleased with it. The things you desire in your loaves of bread are all over the firm, consistent, yet light and porous inside of the loaf, and that quality which keeps the bread fresh the longest time after it is baked.

Now just think a minute. If the bread dries out too much in baking it becomes stale quickly. What will prevent the loaf from drying out too much in the oven? Why, Union Cookery Bags, certainly! The moisture cannot escape but is all kept in the loaf—when a Union Cookery Bag is slipped over the pan and its contents before putting into the oven.

The intense heat thrown from the inside of the bag upon the bread, makes the crust before the moisture has time to escape. Just as when you make French-fried potatoes! You drop the slices of raw potato quickly into the boiling grease. The surface becomes hot and crisply brown all over in scarcely more than a moment. And the inside of the potato cooks thoroughly—soft and delicious without losing any of the nutriment or flavor.

The same way with bread baked in Union Cookery Bags. Prepare your bread in the usual way. Then put the pan holding the dough into the bag, seal the end of the bag with wire clips or pins and bake the length of time given in the Free Book of Directions. You will have the finest loaf that ever came out of an oven.

A Free Book— with many recipes, written from the experiences of expert chefs in Europe and America—has just been published, telling you everything you want to know and exactly how to do it. These books are on free distribution at the office of this paper. Call and get your copy—just ask for the Paper Bag Cookery Book. Be sure to get this valuable Free Book.

Then go to your grocer, meat shop, hardware or stationery store—and ask for Union Cookery Bags. The cost is only a matter for a package of liberally assorted sizes. If no one of these dealers near you has Union Cookery Bags, insist that the one you trade with must shall get them for you immediately from his wholesale house.

Cook in Union Cookery Bags—save money, time and work—and enjoy the new wholesomeness and tastefulness of foods, so cooked that they retain all their rich flavor and nutriment. Order a package of Union Cookery Bags of your dealer today.

These Union Cookery Bags are the same that have been demonstrated under the auspices of this newspaper. Thousands of loaves of bread have been baked in them and the result was the most perfect loaf ever made. Call at this office for a Free Copy of the Paper Bag Cookery Book.

MILTON JUNCTION

Milton Junction, May 9.—Miss Mary McInnis of Janesville spent Wednesday evening with Mrs. Elbert Marsh.

Wm. Williams of Beloit was in call in town yesterday.

E. F. Neeger is seriously ill. Dr. and Mrs. King of Williamsburg, Va., who have been visiting at Frank Morris's, left yesterday for their home via Canada and New York.

John McCulloch of New Auburn is here for a short visit with relatives.

Mrs. Cottrell was a Janesville caller Wednesday.

Dr. Woods of Janesville made a professional call here yesterday.

Elizabeth Hylkech went yesterday morning to Waukesha where she has accepted a position.

J. H. Owen is able to be out again. Mrs. A. S. Maxson has been spending a few days in Madison.

Mr. Webb of Janesville was a business caller in town Tuesday.

Mrs. A. M. Hull is sick.

SURELY SETTLES UPSET STOMACH

Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn and Dyspepsia Go Five Minutes After Taking Pope's Diaphepsin.

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pope's Diaphepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief.

This harmless preparation will digest anything you eat and overcome a sour, gassy or out-of-order stomach five minutes afterwards.

If your meals don't sit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a 50-cent case of Pope's Diaphepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach. Nausea, debilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and, besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with noxious odors.

Pope's Diaphepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large 50-cent cases contain more than sufficient to thoroughly cure almost any case of Dyspepsia, Indigestion or any other stomach disorder.

MISS CHARLTON AND LLOYD ASHTON WED

Miss Maybelle Charlton Became Bride of Chicago Young Man at Parents' Home Last Evening.

Miss Maybelle L. Charlton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George D. Charlton, was united in marriage to Lloyd H. Ashton of Chicago, at the bride's home, 121 South High street, at half past eight o'clock last evening.

The marriage service was read by Dr. David Beaton of the Congregational church in the presence of seventy-five guests. Miss Charlotte Charlton, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Romney Ashton, brother of the groom, was groomsmen.

The members of the bridal party took their places before a bank of roses and ferns in the parlor where the ceremony was performed. The bride was attired in an elaborate gown of white brocaded satin and wore a wedding veil, fastened with orange blossoms. She carried an arm bouquet of white sweet peas and lilies of the valley. The maid of honor was charmingly gowned in white chiffon over blue and carried an arm bouquet of pink roses.

The bridesmaids were: Misses Constance Lombor, Jessie Owen, Cora Zinkgraf and Anna Smith. They wore gowns of pink messaline and carried pink roses.

Al. Kniff's orchestra played the wedding march and furnished the music during the serving of the buffet luncheon after the marriage ceremony. The bride received a number of beautiful wedding gifts and messages of best wishes from a host of friends. She is very popular in local society circles and her charming manner and gracious ways have won the admiration of many friends.

Mr. Ashton is a talented young man with brilliant prospects in the business world. After a wedding trip through northern Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Ashton will live at home at 1211 Winnebec avenue, Chicago.

Guests from out of the city were here for the wedding were: Mrs. Sarah Ashton, mother of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Ashton, Victor Anderson, Misses Gladys and Anne Smith of Chicago; Mrs. T. E. Yates, Miss Mildred Yates and Miss Susan of Nappanee, Ind.; Mrs. Young, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Vance and E. M. Lyons of Brookfield; Miss Cora Zinkgraf of Oconomowoc; Ray and Mrs. W. C. Bang of Watertown, Wis.; Miss Jessie Owen of Milton Junction, and Mr. and Mrs. Fay Edgington of Rockford.

Ray and Ruby Ward and Leslie Stokes attended a May party at D. A. Albrecht's last Saturday.

Mrs. Grandall, from the north, is visiting her sister, Mrs. Braec.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krause visited their son Carl, who is working in Edgerton, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Baetehor of Janesville spent Sunday at James Pongybrook's.

Nettie Thomson is staying at the home of George Baetehor of Rock Prairie this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grunzel were remembered on May day by a little daughter who came to gladden their home on that day.

Herb Abbott and Charles Schoonover are shearing sheep in this neighborhood.

Mr. and Mrs. Sturk entertained Mr. and Mrs. Klinker and Mrs. Young of Edgerton and Mrs. George Knott Sunday.

Church services were held at the U. B. church Sunday afternoon. Rev. De Haven returned from the East and will be there to conduct the services at 8:00 p. m. on Sunday.

Walter Sommerfelt and John Thompson are writing of the diploma questions in Janesville today.

Chris Lohry returned to Toledo, Iowa, Saturday.

SOUTH MAGNOLIA

South Magnolia, May 9.—Mrs. Sleepman is visiting in Madison.

Mrs. Julius Pratt of Whitewater, spent Thursday night and Friday with her mother.

Merle Allen expects to begin work for Mr. Fritz Wednesday for the summer.

Mr. Tibbatts of Illinois, was a caller in this vicinity Monday.

Mr. Koch of Milwaukee, has hired out to O. W. Bennett for the balance of the year and will bring his family later.

The scholars in the Palmer district had their pictures taken Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Will Chamberlain visited her mother Tuesday.

Wesley McMillen of Whitewater, has been building fences for O. W. Bennett this week.

William Horvack is painting his tenant house this week.

Miss Fanning is enjoying a trip through the West.

Chas. Branks has been doing painting for Mrs. Gould in Lima this week.

Miss Katie Fanning entertained a lady friend the latter part of the week.

County Line, May 9.—Mark Nichols of Stoughton, spent Friday at Jerry Armstrong's.

Emil Schlichting was the guest of his parents at Edgerton, on Sunday.

Lester Tracy and Leslie Casey were seen on our streets Saturday.

David Anderson of Stoughton, is assisting Knud Foss with his spring work.

Mr. Foss does not recover from his attack of rheumatism as fast as his friends would wish.

Otto Olson called at Knud Foss' on Thursday.

Elia Parberg was a Sunday visitor at the home of her sister, Mrs. C. F. McCarthy.

Lima, May 8.—Jessie Stillman spent the week end with her sister at Lu Grange. Mrs. Will Dixon is on the sick list. Mrs. Hodson and Guy left on Wednesday for their new home in Lone Rock.

Mr. Clark McMullin of Prairie du Chien takes Mr. Dugan's place at the creamery.

Rev. De Haven preached in the A. B. church on Sunday. The hour has been changed to 10 a. m. again.

Mr. Gleason's many friends are glad he is able to be out again. Mrs. O. A. Roe is home from Parkersburg, Kan., where she has been spending some time with her daughter.

Amos Gould and wife were out from Milwaukee the first of the week. The store owned by Mr. Peuro was closed Tuesday.

Miss Irene Hodson spent Tuesday and Wednesday with her school mates here before going to her new home in Lone Rock. Her many friends are glad she is improving in health.

Mr. and Mrs. Morstorf are entertaining relatives from Ohio. H. J. Dixon was in Janesville on Wednesday.

SIDEWALK SKETCHES.

BARNUM.

By Howard L. Hann

P. T. BARNUM, inventor of the Circut giant, and patroness of the circus lionade, died at Bridgeport, Conn., Tuesday, twenty-one years ago this month. Barnum had a very touching career. He touched the American people for more than a century than any other showman of the period, and he also touched off a number of scientific scraps in the circus line. Barnum's first popular hit was Joyce Keith, a negro, who had nursed the infant George Washington through the terrible period and who was retained on the billboards as 161 years old. She gave a lot of first-hand information about the father of our country which pleased people who had longed for a bright halo around his bust, and Barnum finally replaced her with the sacred white elephant of Balm. It cost Barnum a good deal to keep this animal in condition for the parade, as it was liable at any moment to turn around and lick off square yards of white enamel paint. Barnum then introduced the Wild Man from Borneo, which is still in circulation, owing to the limitations of the copyright law. A little later Barnum made the acquaintance of a parkly barkeep and filled him as the earliest man.

Children used to stand in front of this celebrity and run him like a pin through his biceps, causing him to resemble the front elevation of a cribbage board. While rummaging around Barnum one day in a Panama hat and a palm leaf fan, Barnum discovered the Chinese twins. These were a pair of bachelors who were firmly attached to each other by means of what is known in history as the Gordian knot. Barnum made a great deal of money out of these twins, who lived to a ripe old age without getting married. General Tom Thumb was one of Barnum's strongest cards. This gentleman had been set upon by a pig driver in early youth and had been considerably stunted. He was used to open the concert, in company with the African behemoth, the albino girl and the human skeleton. Barnum was the first man in this country to learn the value of printer's ink, and gave away more money than he took in. He stood without a rival until Doc Cook got into the game, and if Barnum had lived he would undoubtedly have had the North Pole in his collection.

Vaccination Long Practiced. In some oriental countries, vaccination has been practiced for over a thousand years.

REAL ESTATE TRANSFERS. Annie Pixley to John Timmons and wife, $100, Sec. 28-4-13.

Mrs. Louisa Hull to S. C. Chambers $300.00. Lots 7 and 8 Bk 2 Chambers Add. Milton Jet.

The Evansville Telephone Exchange to Wisconsin Telephone Company $1. Benjamin Nattling and wife to Clara Miller $250.00. Lots 10 and 11 Bk 2 Edgerton 2nd Add. Beloit.

John C. Noll and wife to E. E. Romie $4000.00. Lots 2, 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 10, 17, 18, Bk 1 Twin Oaks Add. Beloit.

College Education Doubles Earnings. Compilation of Figures by Charles L. Harper Shows That It Pays One Hundred Per Cent.

A university education pays dividends of over 100 percent. This is the showing made from a compilation of figures gathered from authoritative sources by Charles L. Harper, chief clerk in the office of the state superintendent of public instruction. The reports show that the average laborer earns $1.50 per day. The average university graduate, or professionally trained man earns $3.50 per day. The average laborer, considered as capital would be valued at $9,125 to the state. A professionally trained man upon the same basis would be valued at $21,800. In both cases the value is determined by considering the earning capacity of the man as a five per cent return upon the investment.

Mr. Harper's figures show that the earning capacity of the individual increases with the extent of his education. From a mass of data he has ascertained that an unskilled laborer at the age of 22, who might be employed as a ditch-digger or some other menial occupation, earns $10 per week. At 32 years his earning capacity has increased to only $10.20 per week. Considering the average earning lifetime of an unskilled laborer as forty years, he will have earned $2,400. A boy at 22 years of age who has had some slight training in shop practices earns on the average $13.50 per week, and at 32 years his weekly earning capacity has increased to $15.80. In a working life time of forty years, he will have earned $31,200. A boy who has had a trade school education, however, begins at 22 years with a salary of $17 per week, and at 32 his salary has increased to $25, with an aggregate earning capacity of $52,000 for forty years' service. But the boy who has taken considerable training in a technical school is earning $15 later his salary has increased to $43 per week, his aggregate earnings for two score years of service being $85,140.

Mr. Harper asserts that money spent in education is the greatest investment that a man can make. While the average untrained man is in the meantime earning $3.50 per day, or more than twice that of the unskilled worker. His figures show further that there are $5,436 Wisconsin laborers included in the $1.50 class, employed in 1,513 establishments, representing 62 different industries, and that the average salary per year for an individual in this class is $171.30. The college-trained man, and there are 15,000 in this table, earn an average salary of $4,090 per year. In forty years the laborer will have earned $18,905, and the college man $163,600.

TO ATTEND ANNUAL K. OF C. MEETING. W. H. Dougherty and W. T. Dooley Will Represent Carroll Council at Green Bay Convention.

W. H. Dougherty and W. T. Dooley will be the delegates of Carroll Council No. 596, Knights of Columbus, to the eleventh annual convention of the state lodge at Green Bay, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. W. T. Dougherty, who was elected one of the delegates by the local council, will be unable to attend, and his alternate, Mr. Dooley, will be the other representative. J. S. Doran is the alternate for Mr. Dougherty.

Elaborate plans have been arranged by the Green Bay lodge and business men for the entertainment of the 120 delegates expected. The program calls for the assembling of delegates at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Elks' hall. At 9 o'clock the delegates will attend solemn high mass at St. Willibrord's church and at 10:30 o'clock will organize the convention. A business session is scheduled for 1:30 o'clock p. m., and at 3:30 the delegates will be taken to the ball game between the Rockford and Green Bay teams of the Wisconsin-Illinois league.

The banquet in the evening at the Bennett hotel will be the entertainment feature of the meeting. John F. Martin of Green Bay has been selected to preside as toastmaster during the banquet and the program consists of three toasts, some musical selections by Hoeyner's orchestra and solos by J. A. Stacey and Alfred Doney, also readings by Mary Anne Doyle of Marinette. The toasts will be as follows: "Our Order's Future," by Dr. T. L. Herwigton of Milwaukee, who holds the office of state deputy supreme knight; "American Citizenship," by John F. Doherty of La Crosse; "The Ladies," by Gustav Keller of Appleton.

On Wednesday afternoon an automobile ride over the city will be given the visitors and they will be taken to another ball game. The convention will close with a smoker, with an informal program in the evening.

SODALITY MINSTREL SHOW LAST EVENING. Young Ladies' Order of St. Patrick's Church Gave Performance at Theater—Girls Taking Blackface Parts.

In the way of novelty for the theatergoers of Janesville, the minstrel show given last evening at the Myers' Theater by the members of the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's church, not only proved to be an original affair, but demonstrated that the young ladies are quite as capable as the members of the sterner sex in blackface parts. About fifty young women took part in the show, and their puns and jokes kept the audience laughing a good share of the time. The musical numbers were especially well sung and received many encores. Miss Helen Vlyman was interlocutor and the Misses Rose Dixon, Loretta Connell, Margaret Roberts, Nora Marshall, Rose Britt, and E. Josephine Fitzgerald had the end parts, causing a great deal of merriment with their comical quips and jokes.

After the opening melody, Miss Florence Weber sang "Alexander's Rag-time Band," a chorus accompanying her with the chorists. Their ludicrous mimicry of a band brought them hearty applause and they responded several times to encores. Miss Elida Hammarlund's singing of "I'd Like to Live in Loveland With a Girl Like You," was very popular with the audience and she was recalled a number of times. A duet, highly pleasing to the audience, was sung by the Misses Pearl Barry and Clara Hall, who sang, "If You Talk in Your Sleep, Don't Mention My Name." The song, "Dreams, Just Dreams," as sung by Miss Della Fitzpatrick, was a very popular selection. The Misses Marie Solman and Marie Schmidley received well deserved applause for their selection, "Oh, You Beautiful Doll." Miss Clara Hall gave a delightful rendition of "Sugar Moon." The Misses Gertrude Cassidy and Marie Danahue, who sang "You Can't Expect Kisses From Me," and the chorus accompanying them with the refrain were called back several times, and in responding to their encores, threw candy kisses into the audience. Little Miss Franklin, with her dancing, scored a hit with the audience and was encored three times. The grand finale ended the part of the Janesville young ladies in last evening's entertainment.

The second part of the program was given over to fancy dancing by Miss Franklin, who was called upon to repeat her act. The Metropolitan Quartette, composed of outside talent, gave the third part of the program, a comic sketch entitled, "The German Schoolmaster." The part of the schoolmaster provided the occasion for German comedy acting. The numerous songs sung by the quartette won hearty applause and frequent calls for encores.

Next Saturday evening there will be a leap year social at the hall, under the auspices of the Y. P. C. U. The boys are requested to bring boxes. John Sherman spent Tuesday at Janesville, and from there planned to go to Lima to see Mr. Gleason in regard to County bridge building.

Mrs. Whitney is not so well this week.

Miss Bates goes to Fulton Thursday and Friday to assist in conducting diploma examinations. There will be no school here those two days. Howard Richardson, Harold Kreuger, Herman Knoll and Charles Brown will write on diploma examinations this week.

What Texans Admire. Is hearty, vigorous life, according to Hugh Tallman, of San Antonio. "We find," he writes, "that Dr. Ding's New Life Pills surely put new life and energy into a person. Wife and I believe they are the best made." Be careful for stomach, liver or kidney troubles. 25 cts. at People's Drug Co.

Why Should You or Any One on Earth Pay a Dollar for Eighty Cents' Worth of Anything if You Know It? You know now that—

Marvel Flour makes one-fifth more bread or twenty per cent more on every dollar's worth of flour, than any other fancy patent flour made. Go as far as you like on fancy prices for luxuries, but the foundation of life is bread and contentment. Marvel Flour goes further toward both than anything on earth. Seeing is believing, but if you buy one 49-pound sack of Marvel Flour, use it to the last tablespoonful, you will thereafter place a high estimate on your own good judgment. There are coupons for valuable premiums; one with every package—save them.

LISTMAN MILL COMPANY LA CROSSE, WIS. Millers of MARVEL, the World's Best Flour

For Sale at All Grocery Stores.

COLLEGE EDUCATION DOUBLES EARNINGS

Compilation of Figures by Charles L. Harper Shows That It Pays One Hundred Per Cent.

A university education pays dividends of over 100 percent. This is the showing made from a compilation of figures gathered from authoritative sources by Charles L. Harper, chief clerk in the office of the state superintendent of public instruction. The reports show that the average laborer earns $1.50 per day. The average university graduate, or professionally trained man earns $3.50 per day. The average laborer, considered as capital would be valued at $9,125 to the state. A professionally trained man upon the same basis would be valued at $21,800. In both cases the value is determined by considering the earning capacity of the man as a five per cent return upon the investment.

Mr. Harper's figures show that the earning capacity of the individual increases with the extent of his education. From a mass of data he has ascertained that an unskilled laborer at the age of 22, who might be employed as a ditch-digger or some other menial occupation, earns $10 per week. At 32 years his earning capacity has increased to only $10.20 per week. Considering the average earning lifetime of an unskilled laborer as forty years, he will have earned $2,400. A boy at 22 years of age who has had some slight training in shop practices earns on the average $13.50 per week, and at 32 years his weekly earning capacity has increased to $15.80. In a working life time of forty years, he will have earned $31,200. A boy who has had a trade school education, however, begins at 22 years with a salary of $17 per week, and at 32 his salary has increased to $25, with an aggregate earning capacity of $52,000 for forty years' service. But the boy who has taken considerable training in a technical school is earning $15 later his salary has increased to $43 per week, his aggregate earnings for two score years of service being $85,140.

Mr. Harper asserts that money spent in education is the greatest investment that a man can make. While the average untrained man is in the meantime earning $3.50 per day, or more than twice that of the unskilled worker. His figures show further that there are $5,436 Wisconsin laborers included in the $1.50 class, employed in 1,513 establishments, representing 62 different industries, and that the average salary per year for an individual in this class is $171.30. The college-trained man, and there are 15,000 in this table, earn an average salary of $4,090 per year. In forty years the laborer will have earned $18,905, and the college man $163,600.

TO ATTEND ANNUAL K. OF C. MEETING. W. H. Dougherty and W. T. Dooley Will Represent Carroll Council at Green Bay Convention.

W. H. Dougherty and W. T. Dooley will be the delegates of Carroll Council No. 596, Knights of Columbus, to the eleventh annual convention of the state lodge at Green Bay, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. W. T. Dougherty, who was elected one of the delegates by the local council, will be unable to attend, and his alternate, Mr. Dooley, will be the other representative. J. S. Doran is the alternate for Mr. Dougherty.

Elaborate plans have been arranged by the Green Bay lodge and business men for the entertainment of the 120 delegates expected. The program calls for the assembling of delegates at 8:30 o'clock Tuesday morning at the Elks' hall. At 9 o'clock the delegates will attend solemn high mass at St. Willibrord's church and at 10:30 o'clock will organize the convention. A business session is scheduled for 1:30 o'clock p. m., and at 3:30 the delegates will be taken to the ball game between the Rockford and Green Bay teams of the Wisconsin-Illinois league.

The banquet in the evening at the Bennett hotel will be the entertainment feature of the meeting. John F. Martin of Green Bay has been selected to preside as toastmaster during the banquet and the program consists of three toasts, some musical selections by Hoeyner's orchestra and solos by J. A. Stacey and Alfred Doney, also readings by Mary Anne Doyle of Marinette. The toasts will be as follows: "Our Order's Future," by Dr. T. L. Herwigton of Milwaukee, who holds the office of state deputy supreme knight; "American Citizenship," by John F. Doherty of La Crosse; "The Ladies," by Gustav Keller of Appleton.

On Wednesday afternoon an automobile ride over the city will be given the visitors and they will be taken to another ball game. The convention will close with a smoker, with an informal program in the evening.

SODALITY MINSTREL SHOW LAST EVENING. Young Ladies' Order of St. Patrick's Church Gave Performance at Theater—Girls Taking Blackface Parts.

In the way of novelty for the theatergoers of Janesville, the minstrel show given last evening at the Myers' Theater by the members of the Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Patrick's church, not only proved to be an original affair, but demonstrated that the young ladies are quite as capable as the members of the sterner sex in blackface parts. About fifty young women took part in the show, and their puns and jokes kept the audience laughing a good share of the time. The musical numbers were especially well sung and received many encores. Miss Helen Vlyman was interlocutor and the Misses Rose Dixon, Loretta Connell, Margaret Roberts, Nora Marshall, Rose Britt, and E. Josephine Fitzgerald had the end parts, causing a great deal of merriment with their comical quips and jokes.

After the opening melody, Miss Florence Weber sang "Alexander's Rag-time Band," a chorus accompanying her with the chorists. Their ludicrous mimicry of a band brought them hearty applause and they responded several times to encores. Miss Elida Hammarlund's singing of "I'd Like to Live in Loveland With a Girl Like You," was very popular with the audience and she was recalled a number of times. A duet, highly pleasing to the audience, was sung by the Misses Pearl Barry and Clara Hall, who sang, "If You Talk in Your Sleep, Don't Mention My Name." The song, "Dreams, Just Dreams," as sung by Miss Della Fitzpatrick, was a very popular selection. The Misses Marie Solman and Marie Schmidley received well deserved applause for their selection, "Oh, You Beautiful Doll." Miss Clara Hall gave a delightful rendition of "Sugar Moon." The Misses Gertrude Cassidy and Marie Danahue, who sang "You Can't Expect Kisses From Me," and the chorus accompanying them with the refrain were called back several times, and in responding to their encores, threw candy kisses into the audience. Little Miss Franklin, with her dancing, scored a hit with the audience and was encored three times. The grand finale ended the part of the Janesville young ladies in last evening's entertainment.

The second part of the program was given over to fancy dancing by Miss Franklin, who was called upon to repeat her act. The Metropolitan Quartette, composed of outside talent, gave the third part of the program, a comic sketch entitled, "The German Schoolmaster." The part of the schoolmaster provided the occasion for German comedy acting. The numerous songs sung by the quartette won hearty applause and frequent calls for encores.

Next Saturday evening there will be a leap year social at the hall, under the auspices of the Y. P. C. U. The boys are requested to bring boxes. John Sherman spent Tuesday at Janesville, and from there planned to go to Lima to see Mr. Gleason in regard to County bridge building.

Mrs. Whitney is not so well this week.

Miss Bates goes to Fulton Thursday and Friday to assist in conducting diploma examinations. There will be no school here those two days. Howard Richardson, Harold Kreuger, Herman Knoll and Charles Brown will write on diploma examinations this week.

What Texans Admire. Is hearty, vigorous life, according to Hugh Tallman, of San Antonio. "We find," he writes, "that Dr. Ding's New Life Pills surely put new life and energy into a person. Wife and I believe they are the best made." Be careful for stomach, liver or kidney troubles. 25 cts. at People's Drug Co.

Why Should You or Any One on Earth Pay a Dollar for Eighty Cents' Worth of Anything if You Know It? You know now that—

Marvel Flour makes one-fifth more bread or twenty per cent more on every dollar's worth of flour, than any other fancy patent flour made. Go as far as you like on fancy prices for luxuries, but the foundation of life is bread and contentment. Marvel Flour goes further toward both than anything on earth. Seeing is believing, but if you buy one 49-pound sack of Marvel Flour, use it to the last tablespoonful, you will thereafter place a high estimate on your own good judgment. There are coupons for valuable premiums; one with every package—save them.

LISTMAN MILL COMPANY LA CROSSE, WIS. Millers of MARVEL, the World's Best Flour

For Sale at All Grocery Stores.

Children Thrive and Study Better When they have Grape-Nuts and cream regularly for breakfast.

This pure food, made from choice wheat and barley, supplies the very food elements needed for building sound bodies and bright brains.

TO SOLVE PROBLEM OF SUMMER FORAGE

Suggestions Made to Farmers Who Find That Alfalfa and Clover Have Been Killed Out.

(By Prof. R. A. Moore.)

Owing to the fact that the eastern portion of Wisconsin suffered quite severely from drought during some of the winter months much of the clover and alfalfa was entirely smothered. The farmers looking for forage to carry over their stock and some may be at a loss to know what should be done to bring the best returns. Usually where a good clean alfalfa field has been smothered during the winter the best plan is to plow same and seed back to alfalfa. If the land is clean and can be seeded quite early one hay crop can be secured the same season of seeding. The alfalfa, however, should not be cut out after the first week in September as it should have sufficient growing weather to get nicely established before going into the winter.

Where alfalfa has been crowded by clover and blue grass to quite an extent and is somewhat woody it is altogether best to plow the land and plant to corn. This will give a good supply of forage. Some can be used for selling purposes during the summer if necessary and the silage can be replenished and the remainder used as good fodder corn. Perhaps no greater supply of feed can be secured on land where clover and alfalfa have been killed than from corn. However, in the absence of seed corn or the fact that arrangements have been made upon the farm for sufficient supply of corn, millet can be sown even as late as June 20 or July 1. Good Hungarian or German millet makes exceedingly fine hay. This should be sown at the rate of one bushel per acre and should be cut when in blossom. Usually from one and one-half to two tons per acre can be secured. The millet can be taken from the ground sufficiently early so it can be plowed and seeded down to winter rye. If this is done quite early in the year a good late fall pasture can be secured or the rye crop plowed under in the spring and the ground seeded to corn or some other small cereal.

For summer pasture peas and oats could immediately be put in using two bushels of oats and one bushel of peas per acre. This can be pastured when the oats begin to joint. If the desire should be to have hay instead of pasture the crop can be cut when the oats are nicely headed out and made into hay. Hay made from this crop is considered very fine.

STATE ODD FELLOWS GATHER AT MADISON

Large Delegations From Local Lodges Will Attend Four Days' Session June 3, 4, 5 and 6.

There will be a large delegation of Janesville Odd Fellows in attendance at the sixty-sixth annual session of the Grand Lodge of Wisconsin, I. O. O. F. which will be held in Madison, June 3, 4, 5 and 6. The meetings will be held in the assembly chamber and in the Odd Fellows hall. It is expected that fully 1,500 visitors will be at Madison during the convention days. Elaborate preparations are being made for the entertainment of the guests by the Madison members of the order. Men high in the ranks of Odd Fellowship will be present and address the meetings. The program is arranged as follows:

Monday Evening, June 3.
Entertainment for those arriving Monday.

In the evening the contesting teams will exemplify the work in the First Degree.

The Rebekahs will hold a reception at Odd Fellows hall, 308 West Main street, Conforming of Assembly Degree during evening.

Tuesday, June 4.
10 o'clock a. m.—Opening session of the Grand Lodge in assembly chamber at capitol.

9 o'clock a. m.—Opening session of the Rebekah assembly at Odd Fellows hall.

2 o'clock p. m.—Session of the Grand lodge and Rebekah Assembly at above places.

8 o'clock p. m.—Address by grand officers in assembly chamber. All Odd Fellows and their families are invited.

Tuesday Evening.
Devotion—Mandolin club.

Remarks by chairman of the Grand Lodge committee.

Address of welcome on behalf of the order—Charles Whelan.

Song—Mozart club.

Response to welcome—Grand Master John W. Luschinger.

Song—Mozart club.

Response to welcome—President Rebekah Assembly, Emory Perry.

Reading—Mrs. P. Oliver Day.

Wednesday, June 5.
9 a. m.—Session of the Grand lodge and Rebekah assembly.

2 p. m.—Session of the Grand lodge and Rebekah assembly.

8 p. m.—Dancing at University armory. Music by the Imperial orchestra.

Thursday, June 6.
Installation of officers and closing ceremonies.

DR. HARPER TO ATTEND
INTERNATIONAL CONGRESS

Secretary of State Board of Health to Es Present at Conference on Sanitation and Hygiene.

(Continued from page 10.)

Madison, Wis., May 9.—Dr. C. A. Harper, secretary of the state board of health, will attend the International Congress on Hygiene and Demography at Washington, D. C., Sept. 23-28, under the auspices of the United States government. One of the principal topics will be the high cost of living in its relation to the "cost of high living," and particularly it will be shown that the physique, mind, and even the character of a child may be moulded very largely by the food which it receives. For all the walks of life it will be scientifically established that each article of diet has its own particular utility.

BIG FIGHT PROMISED IN SUIT AGAINST THE HARVESTER TRUST; MAY LAST YEARS

At the left, Judge Hook; upper right, Attorney General Wickersham; lower right, U. H. Gary.

The government's dissolution suit against the International Harvester Company promises to be a titanic struggle. The Bureau of Corporations has gathered evidence tending to show the trust a monopoly, for at least five years. Attorney General Wickersham will act for the government and the trust will select the best legal talent that can be found. It may several years, however, before the matter is finally disposed of by the Supreme Court.

Judge E. H. Gary, who is a director both in the Harvester Company and in the United States Steel corporation will figure prominently in the trial. The case will be heard before Judge Hook, Sanborn, Adams and Smith, who sit in the eighth district.

Four Judges Hook, Sanborn, Adams and Smith, who sit in the eighth district.

STATUE OF UNIVERSITY FOUNDER IS UNVEILED WITH IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES

Chief Justice White and Statue of Rev. John Carroll.

Amid impressive ceremonies, the statue erected to the memory of Rev. John Carroll, founder of Georgetown University, was unveiled at Georgetown on Saturday, May 4. Chief Justice White, of the U. S. Supreme Court, presented the statue on behalf of the United States. President Taft, Cardinal Gibbons, Speaker Champ Clark and Baron Hengelmüller, the Austro-Hungarian ambassador, made addresses.

SEN. TILLMAN WANTS TO DIE IN HARNESS

Sen. Tillman.

Informed by his physicians that an attempt to stomp the state might be attended by serious results Senator Tillman T. Tillman, of South Carolina, who comes before the voters for reelection in the Democratic primary this summer and is already opposed by two candidates, has given out a statement in which he says that he will make no speeches, but he appeals to the people to send him back to Washington on his record. Senator Tillman has twice been stricken with paralysis. He says he wants to die in the harness.

Houston Greets Travelers.
Houston, Texas, May 9.—Splendidly decorated for the occasion, Houston today cordially welcomed the delegates to the annual convention of the Texas division of the Travelers' Protective Association. The reception of the visitors and a preliminary meeting of the board of directors occupied the day. The regular business sessions will begin tomorrow morning and continue until Saturday. Luncheons, banquets, automobile rides and a visit to the San Jacinto battlefield are features of the entertainment program provided for the visitors.

DIET AND HEALTH HINTS

By DR. T. J. ALLEN
Food Specialist

WHEAT, BEST BALANCED FOOD.

Wheat is generally regarded by dietitians as being the best balanced food for the adult, occupying the place in the adult dietary that milk does in the infant. According to the accepted standards, it is deficient in fat, but fat is produced from starch in the system. The addition of butter makes a complete ration of bread, if it be made from the entire wheat, which, however, it rarely is. Recent accepted standards have placed the protein element required for the adult as low as 10 per cent, so that there is sufficient flesh forming material in good bread, without meat, cheese or eggs, and the entire wheat grain contains all the mineral elements, some of which are, however, largely or entirely eliminated in the fine white flour of commerce. When entire wheat is ground into flour it spoils easily, and this is the chief reason why real whole wheat flour is seldom found in the larger cities. The best way to get the entire wheat in the home is to buy wheat, wash and prepare it, either whole or ground into flour as needed in a small home grinder similar to the coffee mill. Wheat will keep much longer without being ground.

(Copyright, 1911, by Joseph B. Bowles.)

Our Best Seller.
We are selling more of Meritol Eczema Remedy than all the others put together. This large sale is due to the fact that it is a preparation of unusual merit, made expressly for one purpose, to cure eczema in its various forms. If you are afflicted with this loathsome disease do not delay using Meritol Eczema Remedy. Reliable Drug Co.

LEGAL NOTICES

NOTICE OF HEARING.

STATE OF WISCONSIN—
County Court for Rock County.
In Probate.
Notice is hereby given that at a Special Term of the County Court to be held in and for said County at the Court House in the City of Janesville, in said County, on the third Tuesday, being the 21st day of May, 1912, at nine o'clock a. m., the following matter will be heard and considered:
The application of Fred L. Brockway for the adjustment and allowance of his account as Guardian of Alice Comerford, and for the assignment of the residue of said estate, to such other persons as are by law entitled thereto.
Dated April 24, 1912.
By the Court,
J. W. SALLS,
County Judge.
L. D. McGowan,
Attorney for Petitioner.
Thurs-apr-24-12wks-cwkw.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
STATE OF WISCONSIN—
County Court for Rock County.
In Probate.
Notice is hereby given that at a Regular Term of the County Court to be held in and for said County at the Court House in the City of Janesville, in said County, on the first Tuesday of November, A. D. 1912, being November 5, 1912, at 10 o'clock a. m., the following matters will be heard, considered and adjusted:
All claims against James Harris, late of the City of Janesville, in said County, deceased.
All claims must be presented for allowance to said Court, at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on or before the 2nd day of October, A. D. 1912, or be barred.
Dated April 3rd, 1912.
By the Court,
J. W. SALLS, County Judge.
Carpenter & Carpenter,
Attorneys for Creditors.
Janesville, Rock Co., Wis.
Thurs-apr-3-12wks-cwkw

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.
STATE OF WISCONSIN—
ROCK COUNTY.
In Probate.
Notice is hereby given that at a Regular Term of the County Court to be held in and for said County at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on the first Tuesday of November, A. D. 1912, being November 5, 1912, at 10 o'clock a. m., the following matters will be heard, considered and adjusted:
All claims against Hannan Severance, late of the City of Janesville in said County, deceased.
All claims must be presented for allowance to said Court, at the Court House, in the City of Janesville, in said County, on or before the 5th day of October, A. D. 1912, or be barred.
Dated April 18th, 1912.
By the Court,
J. W. SALLS, County Judge.
Carpenter & Carpenter,
Attorneys for Creditors.
Janesville, Rock Co., Wis.
Thurs-apr-18-12wks-cwkw

FARMERS

Here's a Chance For You To Make Some Money

I will sell you Shelled Corn and Corn Meal mixed, salvage, from my recent fire, just what you want for hogs, at $6.00 a load, all you can put on your wagon. Do not overlook this as it is a great bargain.

I also have a stock of

Bran, Middlings, Alfalfa, Hay and Straw

fresh, clean and bright. Give me a call and I will give you satisfaction.

E. P. DOTY

AT THE FOOT OF DODGE STREET.

JANESVILLE SUGAR SWEETENS TOBACCO?

Carload of Sugar a Day Furnished by a Wisconsin Sugar Factory to a Chewing Tobacco Concern.

One of the little known uses for Wisconsin agricultural products is cited by B. G. Parker, commissioner of Immigration for Wisconsin, in a statement in which he shows that last year one Wisconsin beet sugar factory furnished a carload of beet sugar a day during its run to a large Chicago concern for the purpose of sweetening chewing tobacco. It is claimed that $100,000,000 worth of sugar is used annually in the manufacture of candies. Approximately 30,000 acres in Wisconsin are devoted to sugar beet culture, and the records of the manufacturers indicate that Wisconsin farmers received in 1911 over $2,000,000 for their crop and that the acreage is continually increasing. Valuable experiments are being conducted by the state agricultural college to secure seed strains superior to the exported product.

Crime and Criminal Law, Chicago, Ill., May 9.—The first annual meeting of the Illinois Society

Want ads bring results.

NOTICE.

Bids for the work of building such cement bridges and culverts as are necessary during the current year, and which are under the jurisdiction of the Highway Commissioners of Rock County, will be opened at the office of the county clerk May 20, at 1:30 P. M. Bids will be received at the office of the county clerk until that date. For plans and specifications for the work under consideration, address

S. S. JONES, Clinton, Wis.

Biggest Touring Car Bargain Ever Offered

A 50 h. p. seven passenger car, guaranteed in perfect order. Factory price, $4,000. Will be sold at a big sacrifice. Come and see for yourself. Don't let this opportunity pass by.

Monitor Automobile Works Janesville, Wis.

To See The PEDALMOBILE Is To Want One

Boys are already planning trips and races with the Pedalmobiles they are going to secure in this subscription race. Active work to earn one of these coveted pleasure vehicles has started and some of the hustlers have a considerable showing to their credit. Any boy or girl with a fair amount of energy and "sand in the back-bone" can make good in this proposition. Sign the attached blank and bring or send it to the Gazette office.

APPLICATION BLANK

PEDALMOBILE DEPARTMENT, THE GAZETTE,
JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.

I am interested in your free Pedalmobile offer, and am determined to win one if my application is accepted. Please send particulars.

Name

Street

Postoffice Address

Detailed Description of the Wonderful Car

Length of body 66 inches, wheel base 50 inches, 16-inch steel wheels with 24-inch rubber tires, tread of wheels 2 1/2 inches; best material that can be bought used throughout; a body made of steel and second-growth ash, giving at once "spring" and strength. It is a real vehicle—not a toy—and will hold a grown man's weight. The big racing hood is sheet steel, has slanting racing seat, giving driver real racing position; has real automobile steering wheel of wood and white metal. One Big Feature is the knuckle steering gear. The front wheels turn in response to the steering wheel just as do the front wheels of a real automobile, the axle being stationary. This eliminates danger of upsetting on curves.

FORTY YEARS AGO

Janesville Gazette, May 9, 1872—It Pays Well Enough—H. S. Kipper of Fulton, of whom we made mention a couple of weeks ago, has sold the balance of his excellent tobacco crop. From the acre of the wood he has realized $1,922 in money. The balance of his one hundred and sixty acres was devoted to the ordinary crops, but from the entire yield of the farm, aside from the tobacco crop, he has not received enough to pay the $475 his help cost him during the season. Tobacco is bound to be king in this country.

Base Ball—The Hotel College club will visit this city Saturday afternoon to try conclusions with our boys for the first time this season. As the Hotel boys are a crack nine, and our boys are a cracked nine, the game will no doubt be a good one.

Trifolium—A load of choice wheat sold at $1.50 today. Regular quotation $1.48.

Farmers have nearly finished sowing, and are preparing their corn ground. The city assessors are vigorously at work. A fifth ward girl resented an insult offered by a graceless scamp, on the street, the other night, by a slap on his face, which made a Dolly Varden of one cheek. He went away in a hurried manner looking frustrated. Some twenty-five hundred cases of tobacco have been packed by Janesville dealers this spring.

Lighting Fixtures—Charles Hall, assistant secretary of state, has resigned his resignation having been called for by Secretary Blah. The house has passed the supplemental appropriation bill, giving additional representatives to the states of New Hampshire, Vermont, New York, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Alabama, Tennessee, Louisiana, and Florida, increasing the representation from 283 to 291.

The Democratic National Committee has issued a call for a convention to meet in Baltimore on the 9th day of July next.

last year I show a scientist who left a pamphlet at my door explaining that I am to blame when a human being dies because I didn't swallow the game and don't exterminate the flies. A hard can take his type and sing with emphasis the fiery zeal, concerning harmonies of spring, and babbling brooks and all the rest; but poets never take their harps to sing that time of brazen sides, when all the scientific sharps are telling how to swat the flies.

Guard Against Premature Burial. In England there is an association for the prevention of premature burial, which offers the following statistics regarding people who were buried alive or suffered otherwise from being judged dead when they were not: Buried alive, 149; narrow escapes therefrom, 219; dissected alive, 10; narrow escapes from being dissected alive, 3; embalmed alive, 2; burned alive, 1.

"Will he bite?"
"I shouldn't wonder; they say they're bad in summer!"

Still One.
Cook—Hello, Fred, old fellow! Well! Well! I haven't seen you since the old days, when we used to run around together.
Hook—No, Tom, Ah! those old days! What a fool I used to be then! Cook—I tell you, I'm glad to see you. You haven't changed a bit, old fellow.

OUT IN THE COLD
Weary Willie—This kicking me out of your barn into the snow is what I should call a rather summary proceeding.
Hiram Haymow—Well, if you sit in that wet snow for a little while you'll think it's more wintry than summary!
Miles of Floor Space.
There are 70,000 acres of floor space on Manhattan Island.

UNCLE WALT

The Poet Philosopher

Copyright, 1909, by George M. Adams

BY WALT MASON

The gentle season goes its gall, and soon will vanish from our ken; then summer, with its heat on straight, will lead the panting sons of men. The heat will work us to the bone, and all the doctors will unite to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

PASSING OF DAY AND NIGHT, AND SPRING

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

men will come to tell us how to swat the flies. I try to be a cheerful Jay, but I confess, with downcast face, I hate to see the spring go 'way and nuzzling summer take its place. I always multiply my sin beneath the burning summer skies, when health swat the flies. I try to be an optimist, but even cheerful hours grow sore.

WANTED--FARM HELP

WANTED--At once, good reliable, steady man for steady job, driving delivery wagon. Hanley Bros, 51-34.

WANTED--Two laborers at Footville Condensed Milk Factory, Footville, Wis. Twenty cents per hour. 52-31.

WANTED--Men and boys at Kellogg's Nursery. 50-47.

WANTED--Man on farm by day one and one-half miles northeast of Janesville. Inquire W. O. Douglas, Rte 5 Janesville, Footville phone. 52-31.

FOR RENT--Four light, airy rooms for housekeeping; city water and gas; sewerage, 300 Oakland avenue, New phone 489 blue. 52-31.

FOR RENT--Furnished or unfurnished rooms, modern conveniences also good bath. Old phone 825, 608 South Main St. 51-31.

FOR RENT--Six room house, H. Conley, 513 S. High St. Inquire J. H. Conley, Pop Corn Stand, 51-31.

FOR RENT--Furnished room suitable for light housekeeping. Inquire 168 S. Academy St. 51-31.

FOR RENT--Furnished light housekeeping rooms, 162 Cherry St. 51-31.

FOR RENT--Bright room house, Inquire 221 So. Franklin St. New phone 60-31.

FOR RENT--Four unfurnished rooms, city and soft water and gas, Corner Pleasant and Locust streets. 50-31.

FOR RENT--Strictly modern furnished room. Inquire at 811 Milwaukee Ave. 50-31.

FOR RENT--Modern flat, steam heated, S. D. Grubb Clothing Store, 46-20.

FOR RENT--Four rooms at 109 Holmes St. 48-31.

FOR RENT--Furnished rooms for light housekeeping. Private entrance, modern, two blocks from depot. New phone 1222 White. 48-41.

FOR RENT--Seven-room house, gas, well, at 1019 1/2 street, $10.00 per month. First-class repair. Lowell Realty Co. 48-31.

FOR RENT--Modern house at bargain to right party. Old phone 1076; new 383. 41-31.

FOR RENT--A modern house, good location. Apply to F. L. Stevens, Lovejoy Block. 27-41.

FOR RENT--Two modern steam-heated flats. Apply to F. L. Stevens, Lovejoy Block. 27-41.

FOR RENT--Six-room flat, entirely modern, steam heat. Private entrance. Inquire 337 S. Main St. or Helma Seed Store. 45-41.

FOR SALE--Great variety of dahlia roots. Cheap. O. M. Penno, 725 Milton Ave. 41-31.

FOR SALE--20 yards Ingram carpet $5.00, 305 Milton Ave. 52-31.

FOR SALE--Mandolin and a 4x5 plate camera and outfit. Both in good condition. Cheap. Phone, new 431 black. 52-31.

PAY CASH for your groceries and trade at Nohr Bros. 27-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

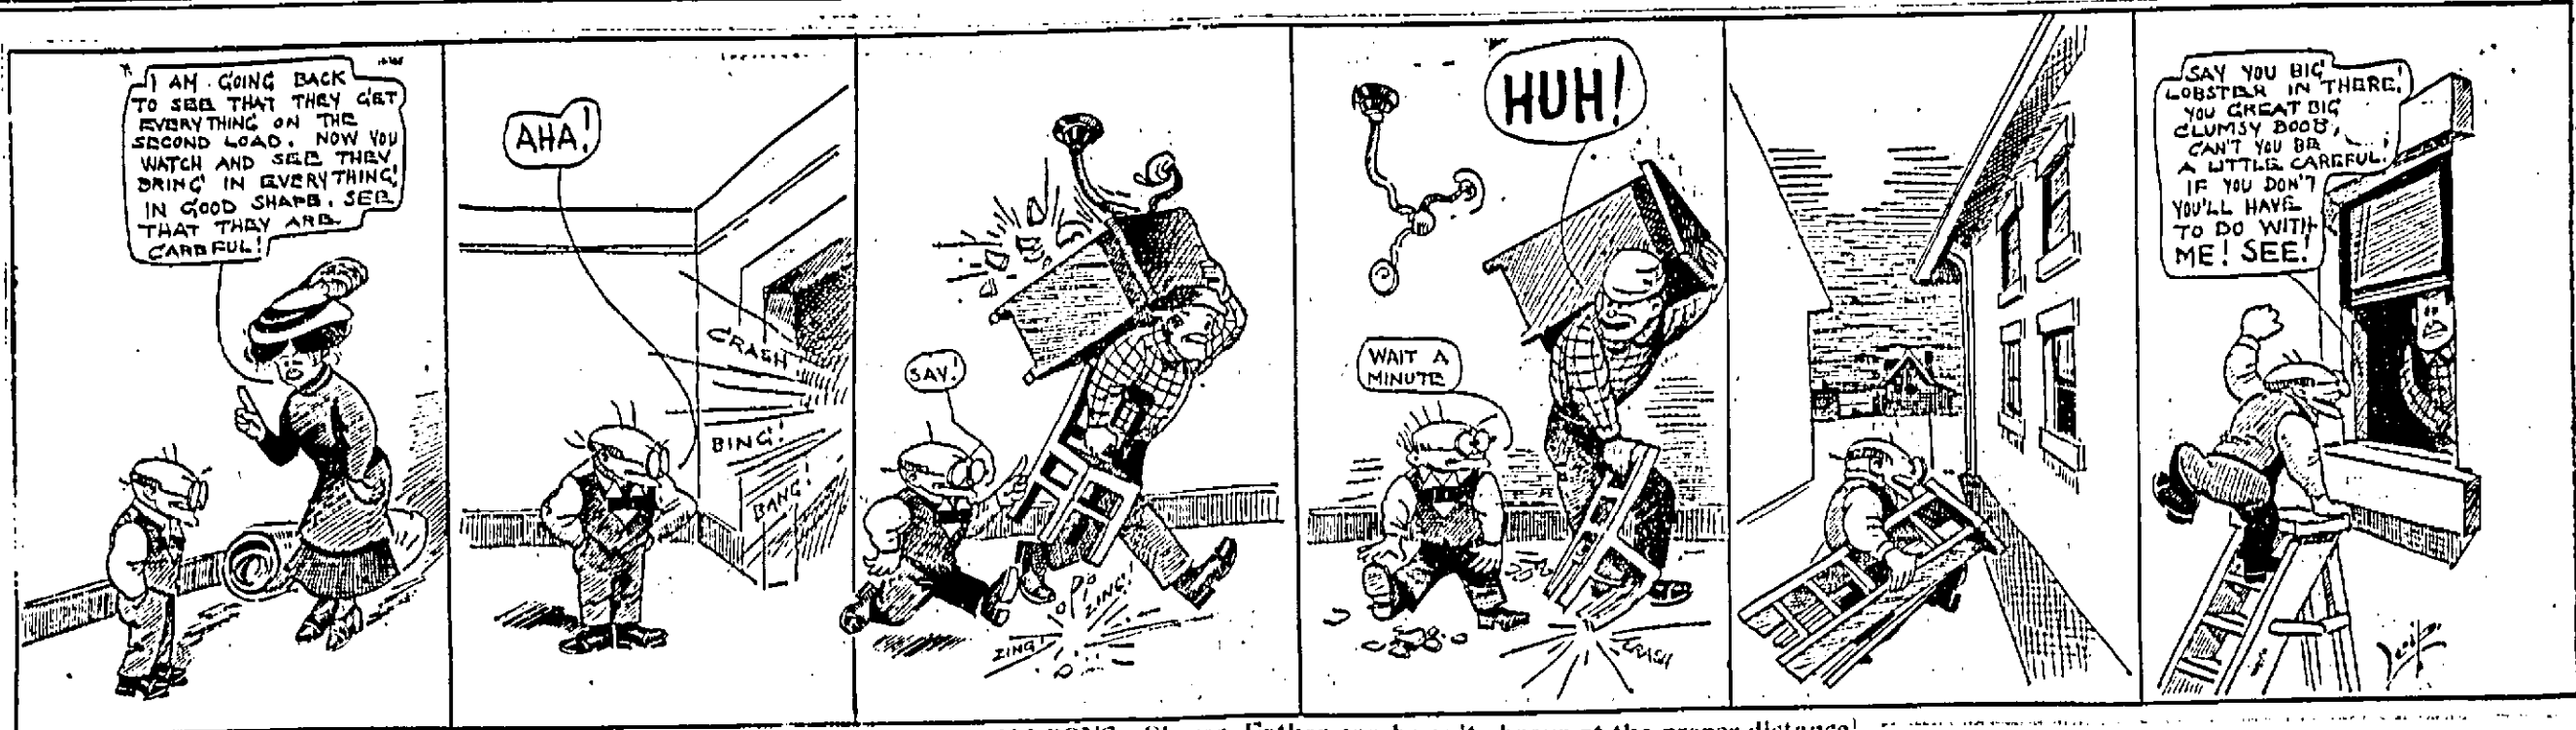

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Burpee. 16-41.

FOR SALE--House and lot and vacant lot corner of Caroline and Fourth Ave. House modern improvement. Cheap, monthly payments if desired. J. J. Cunningham. 60-121.

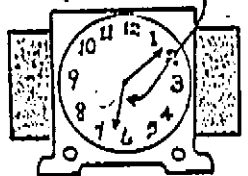

FOR SALE--My residence, No. 203 Pleasant St. F. C. Bur

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—Oh yes, Father can be quite brave at the proper distance!

TODAY'S RIDDLE

WHAT HANDS ARE THOSE THAT WORK NIGHT AND DAY, YET NEVER TIRE?
(ANSWER)

Those Happy Days.

How sweet to my heart are the days of my childhood!—Baltimore Sun.The Wreck of the Titan

By Morgan Robertson

Copyright, 1912, by M. P. Mansfield.
Copyright, 1912, by Morgan Robertson. All rights reserved.

It had all happened in a minute, but in that minute he was crippled for life, for in the quiet of a hospital the best of surgical skill could hardly avail to reset the fractured particles of bone in the limp arm and bring to place the crushed ribs. And he was drifting on a floating island of ice, with the temperature near the freezing point, and without even the rude appliances of the savage.

He painfully made his way to the little pile of red and white and lifted it with his injured arm, though the stooping caused him excruciating torture. The child was bleeding from four deep, cruel scratches, extending diagonally from the right shoulder down the back, but he found upon examination that the soft, yielding bones were unbroken and that her unconsciousness came from the rough contact of the little forehead with the ice, for a large lump had rubbed.

Of pure necessity his first efforts must be made in his own behalf, so wrapping the baby in his coat he placed it in his shelter and cut and made from the canvas a sling for his dangling arm. Then, with knife, fingers and teeth, he partly skinned the bear—often compelled to pause to save himself from fainting with pain—and cut from the warm but not very thick layer of fat a broad slab, which, after to be seen by "jacking" ears.

He recklessly drank from the bottle, needing the stimulant and reasoning, perhaps rightly, that no ordinary condition could affect him in his present condition. Then he examined the wreckage, most of it good kindling wood. Partly above, partly below the pile, was a steel lifeboat, decked over nightlight ends, now doubled to more than a right angle and resting on its side. With canvas hung over one half and a small fire in the other, it promised, by its conducting property, a warmer and better shelter than the bridge. A sailor without matches is an anomaly. He whittled shavings, kindled the fire, hung the canvas and brought the child, who begged piteously for a drink of water.

He found a tin can—possibly left in a leaky boat before its final hoist to the davits—and gave her a drink, to which he had added a few drops of the whisky. Then he thought of breakfast. Cutting a steak from the hind quarters of the bear, he toasted it on the end of a splinter and found it sweet and satisfying, but when he attempted to feed the child he understood the necessity of freeing his arms, which he did, sacrificing his left shirt sleeve to cover them. The change and the food stopped his crying for awhile, and howling lay down with it in the warm boat. Before the day had passed the whisky was gone and he was delirious with fever, while the child was but little better.

CHAPTER V.

Marooned on an iceberg.

WITH brief intervals, during which he replenished or rebuilt the fire, cooked the bear meat and fed and dressed the wounds of the child, this delirium lasted three days. His suffering was intense. His arm, the seat of throbbing pain, had swollen to twice the natural size, while his side prevented his taking a full breath voluntarily. He had paid no attention to his own hurts, and it was either the vigor of a constitution that years of dislocation had not impaired or some anti-fetid property of the bear meat or the absence of the excruciating whisky that won the battle. He rekindled the fire with his last match on the evening of the third day and looked around the drifting horizon, same, but feeble in body and mind.

If a sail had appeared in the interim he had not seen it, nor was there one in sight now. Too weak to climb the slope, he returned to the boat, where the child, exhausted from fruitless crying, was now sleeping. His unskillful and rather heroic manner of wrapping it up to protect it from cold had no doubt contributed largely to the closing of its wounds by forcibly keeping it still, though it must have added largely to its present sufferings. He looked for a moment on the wan, tear-stained little face, with its fringe of tangled curls peeping above the wrappings of canvas, and, stooping painfully down, kissed it softly, but the kiss awakened it, and it cried for its mother. He could not soothe it, nor could he try, and with a formless, wordless curse against destiny weeping up from his heart he left it and sat down on the wreckage at some distance away.

"We'll very likely get well," he mused gloomily, "unless I let the fire go out. What then? We can't last longer than the bear and not much longer than the bear. We must be out of the tracks. We were about 900 miles out when we struck, and the current takes to the fog belt here—about west-north-west—but that's the surface water. These deep fellows have currents of their own. There's no fog. We must be to the southward of the belt—between the lanes. They'll run their boats in the other lane after this. I think the money grabbing wretches. Curse them if they've drowned her. Curse them, with their water tight compartments and their logging of the lookouts. Twenty-four boats for 3,000 people, lashed down with tarred grippe lashings, thirty men to clear them away and not an ax on the boat deck or a sheath knife on a man. Could she have got away? If they got that boat down they might have taken her in from the steps, and the mate knew I had her child. He would tell her. Her name must be Myra too. It was her voice I heard in that dream. That was hashish. What did they drug me for? But the whisky was all right. It's all done with new unless I get ashore, but will I?"

The moon rose above the castellated structure to the left, flooding the icy beach with silver gray light, sparkling in a thousand points from the encrusted, streams and rippling pools, throwing into blackest shadow the gul-ties and "abnoys" and bringing to his mind in spite of the weird beauty of the scene a crushing sense of loneliness—of littleness—as though the vast pile of inorganic dissolution which held him was of far greater importance than himself and all the hopes, plans and fears of his lifetime. The child had cried itself to sleep again, and he paced up and down the ice.

"Up there," he said moodily, looking into the sky, where a few stars shone faintly in the flood from the moon—"up there—somewhere—they don't know just where—but somewhere up above, in the Christians' heaven. Up there is their good God, who has placed Myra's child here—their good God—and down below us, somewhere again, are their hell and their bad god, whom they invented themselves. And they give us our choice—heaven or hell. It is not so—not so. The great mystery is not solved. The human heart is not helped in this way. No good, merciful God created this world or its conditions. Whatever may be the nature of the causes at work beyond our mental vision, one fact is indubitably proved: that the qualities of mercy, goodness, justice, play no part in the government scheme. And yet they say the core of all religions on earth is the belief in this. Is it, or is it the cowardly, human fear of the unknown that impels the savage mother to throw her babe to a crocodile, that impels the civilized man to endure churches, that has kept in existence from the beginning a class of soothsayers, medicine men, priests and clergymen, all living on the hopes and fears excited by themselves?"

"And people pray—millions of them—and claim they are answered. Are they? Was ever supplication sent into that sky by troubled humanity answered or even heard? Who knows? They pray for rain and sunshine, and both come in time. They pray for health and success, and both are but natural in the marching of events. This is not evidence. But they say that they know, by spiritual uplifting, that they are heard and comforted and answered at the moment. Is not this a physiological experiment? Would they not feel equally tranquil if they repeated the multiplication table or boxed the compass?"

"Millions have believed these—that prayers are answered—and these millions have prayed to different gods. Were they all wrong or all right? Would a tentative prayer be listened to? Admitting that the Hindus and Korans and Vedas are misleading and unreliable, may there not be an unseen, unknown being who knows my heart, who is watching me now? If so, this being gave me my reason, which doubts him, and on him is the responsibility. And would this being, if he exists, overlook a defect for which I am not to blame and listen to a prayer from me based on the mere chance that I might be mistaken? Can an unbeliever, in the full strength of his reasoning powers, come to such trouble that he can no longer stand alone, but must cry for help to an imagined power? Can such time come to a sane man—to me?" He looked at the dark line of vacant horizon. It was seven miles away; New York was 900, the moon in the east over 200,000, and the stars above any number of billions. He was alone with a sleeping child, a dead bear and, the unknown. He walked softly to the boat and looked at the little one for a moment; then, raising his head, he whispered, "For you, Myra."

Shaking to his knees, the atheist lifted his eyes to the heavens and with his feeble voice and the fervor born of helplessness prayed to the God that he denied. He begged for the life of the vast in his care, for the safety of the mother, so needful to the little one, and for courage and strength to do his part and bring them together. But beyond the appeal for help in the service of others not one word or expressed thought of his prayer included himself as a beneficiary. So much for pride. As he rose to his feet the flying jib of a bark appeared around the corner of ice to the right of the beach, and a moment later the whole moonlit fabric came into view, wafted along by the faint westerly air, not half a mile away.

To spring to the fire, forgetting his pain, and, throwing on wood, made a blaze. He haled in a frenzy of excitement, "Dark ahoy! Dark ahoy! Take us off!" And a deep toned answer came across the water.

"Wake up, Myra," he cried as he lifted the child. "Wake up. We're going away."

"We goin' to mamma?" she asked, with no symptoms of crying.

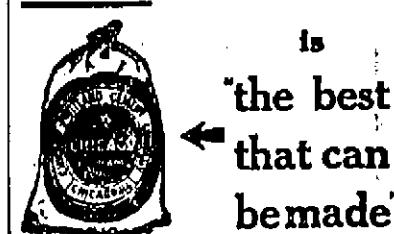

"Yes, we're going to mamma now—that is," he added to himself, "if that clause in the prayer is considered."

Fifteen minutes later, as he watched the approach of a white quarter boat, he muttered: "That bark was there, half a mile back in this wind; before I thought of praying. Is that prayer answered? Is she safe?"

On the first floor of the London Royal Exchange is a large apartment studded with desks, around and between which surges a hurrying, shouting crowd of brokers, clerks and messengers. Fringing this apartment are doors and hallways leading to adjacent rooms and offices, and scattered through it are bulletin boards, on which are daily written in duplicate the marine casualties of the world. At one end is a raised platform, sacred to the presence of an important functionary. In the technical language of the "city," the apartment is known as the "room" and the functionary as the "caller," whose business it is to call out in a mighty sing song voice the names of members wanted at the door and the bare particulars of bulletin news prior to its being chalked out for reading.

It is the headquarters of Lloyd's—the immense association of underwriters, brokers and shipping men which, beginning with the customers at Edward Lloyd's coffee house in the latter part of the seventeenth century, has, retaining his name for a title, developed into a corporation so well equipped, so splendidly organized and powerful, that kings and ministers of state appeal to it at times for foreign news.

(To be continued.)

"Chicago AA"
Portland Cement

Is
"the best that can be made"

That's The Brand
We Handle

Concrete fence posts may be made for 12c a piece. Leave your name with us for free instructive booklet.

BRITTINGHAM & HIXON LUMBER CO.
Janesville, Wis.CURIOUS BITS OF HISTORY

THE TRAGEDY OF JULIA.

By A. W. MACY.

History affords few more impressive instances of a gay and dissolute youth followed by years of suffering in expiation than that of Julia, daughter of the Roman Emperor Octavian. It is all the more remarkable because her own father was the implement of remorseless justice that pursued her to the grave. When a young woman she led a life of unbridled licentiousness. She hoodwinked her father for a time, but at last the truth was forced upon him. He loved her dearly; yet he yielded her up to the course of justice. She was convicted of immoral conduct, and from the glittering life of Rome she was banished to the barren, rocky island of Pandateria, in the Gulf of Gaeta. There she was permitted no female attendants, no wine and no fine clothes. Her only companion was her unhappy mother. There she spent five miserable years. The people of Rome implored Octavian to forgive her. His answer was, to remove her to a more secure prison in Calabria. Here she dragged out her wretched life until her father died and Tiberius came to the throne. But he, too, refused to release her, and she slowly sank into the welcome arms of death.

(Copyright, 1911, by Joseph B. Howles.)

TIRED RUN-DOWN PEOPLE

A North Carolina Man Suggests a Remedy

Greensboro, N. C.—"For a long time I was so run-down and debilitated that I could hardly drag around. My appetite was poor and I could not sleep nights. I had tried different so-called tonics without benefit. I was advised to try your cod liver and iron tonic. Vinol, and I am so glad I did, for it gave me a hearty appetite. I soon commenced to sleep soundly, and I feel strong, well and more active than I have for years. Every run-down or debilitated person should just give Vinol a trial." K. Allsbrook. What Vinol did for Mr. Allsbrook it will do for every weak, run-down or debilitated person in this vicinity. To show our faith we will furnish the medicine free if it does not do as we claim. Come in and get a bottle on these terms. Smith Drug Co., Janesville, Wis.

CRITICAL TIME
OF WOMAN'S LIFEFrom 40 to 50 Years of Age.
How It May Be Passed in Safety.

Odd, Va.—"I am enjoying better health than I have for 20 years, and I believe I can safely say now that I am a well woman. I was reared on a farm and had all kinds of heavy work to do which caused the troubles that came on me later. For five years during the Change of Life I was not able to lift a pail of water. I had hemorrhages which would last for weeks and I was not able to sit up in bed. I suffered a great deal with my back and was so nervous I could scarcely sleep at night, and I did not do any housework for three years."

"Now I can do as much work as any woman of my age in the county, thanks to the benefit I have received from Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I recommend your remedies to all suffering women."—Mrs. MARTHA L. HOLLOWAY, Odd, Va.

No other medicine for woman's ills has received such wide-spread and unequalled endorsement. We know of no other medicine which has such a record of success as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. For more than 30 years it has been the standard remedy for woman's ills.

If you have the slightest doubt that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will help you, write to Lydia E. Pinkham, Medicine Co. (confidential) Lynn, Mass., for advice. Your letter will be opened, read and answered by a woman, and held in strict confidence.

Gentle and Sure

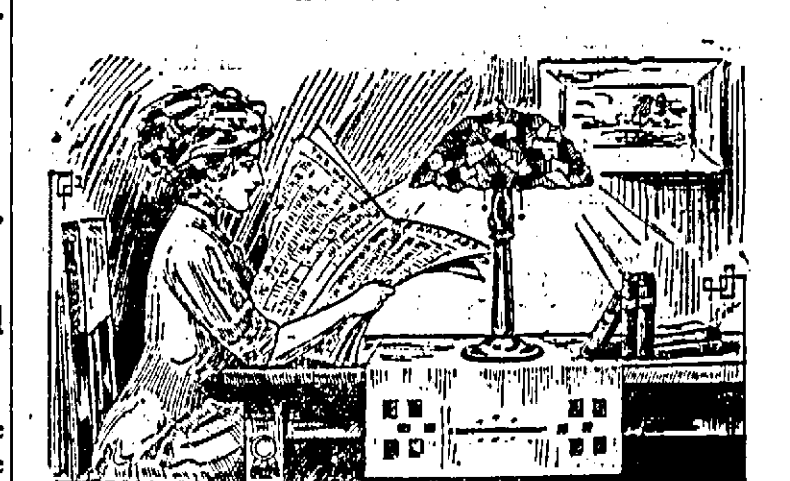

You, also, should give approval to this efficient family remedy—your bowels will be regulated so surely and safely; your liver stimulated; your digestion so improved by

BEECHAM'S PILLS

Sold everywhere. In boxes 10c, 25c.

A Progressive Century.

Twentieth century has given us a satisfactory treatment for rheumatism. The American Drug & Press Association, of which we are members, are manufacturing a preparation called Meritol Rheumatism Powders, from a formula adopted by them after medical experts had pronounced it one of great merit. Give Meritol Rheumatism Powders a trial. They are guaranteed. Reliable Drug Co., Exclusive Agents.

Where the Good Mistress
Finds the Good Maid

Ask the best maids and they'll tell you they turn instinctively to Gazette "Help Wanted" columns for positions. That's why the woman "in the know" insists on having her "Help Wanted" advertisement in the Gazette. Gazette "Want" Ads are the daily meeting place of employer and employee. Gazette "Want" Ad. phone are 77 2 rings, either phone.

J. P. BAKER & SON

Professional Cards

OSTEOPATHY

DR. K. W. SHIPMAN
402 JACKMAN BLOCK.
Phone, New 224 Black.
House Phone 287.
Office hours, 9 to 12 a. m.; 2 to 5 p. m.

DRS. CHITTENDEN & KELLER

Office Residence
217 Hayes Block. 305 Court St.
PHONES:
Rock Co. 107. Rock Co. phone 14
Wisconsin, 1010. Wisconsin, 1037
Office hours—8 to 9 A. M.; 1 to 8 P. M.

Dr. E. N. Sartell,

Over Shaver Drug Store.
Female diseases, Chronic cases and Surgery a Specialty, besides regular practice. 9 to 11; 2 to 5; 7 to 9; Sundays 10 to 12.
Old phone 1256; Residence, old phone
1276. New phone, Red 72.

ALICE G. DEVINE

CHIROPRACTOR
Evanville, Wis. Dillard Block.
Phone 93.
OFFICE HOURS: Evanville, 9 to 11
A. M.; 2 to 6 P. M.; Monday, Wednesday and Friday. 7 to 9 P. M.
every day.
Oregon: 9 to 12 A. M.; 1 to 5 P. M.
Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday.

D. J. LEARY
DENTIST

Office over Dagher Drug Co.
Both Phones. Janesville, Wis.

DR. Wm. H. McGUIRE

304 Jackman Block.
Janesville, Wis.

A. L. BURDICK, M. D.

Practice limited to the diseases of the Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat.
Office 221 Hayes Block.
Hours: 9 to 12 A. M.; 2 to 5 P. M.;
to 8 P. M. Tel. 468, New.
GLASSES CAREFULLY FITTED.

DR. FREDERICK C. LINDSTROM

OSTEOPATH
Suite 322-323 Hayes Block.
Rock County Phone 129.
Wisconsin Phone 2114.
Office hours: 9 to 12 A. M.; 2 to 5 P. M.

